

SM 6526

I Had You - I Lost You - I Found You

Words by MAX C. FREEDMAN
& TOM KELLY

(Only To Lose You Again)

Music by DON TRAVELINE

Valse Moderato

Piano introduction in 3/4 time, key of B-flat major. The music starts with a forte (f) dynamic. The right hand features a melody of eighth and quarter notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

Voice

First vocal line with piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "I loved you and lost you, one day, Now love is a dan-ger-ous game,". The piano accompaniment includes a gva (grace note) and a fs (fortissimo) dynamic marking.

Second vocal line with piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Somebod-y took you a - way Out of my life like a Ev-'ry one finds it the same, One nev-er miss-es what." The piano accompaniment continues with a steady harmonic accompaniment.

Third vocal line with piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Rob-in you flew, Off to the love that was new, You came back to one nev-er had, They have no cause to be sad, But ev-er since". The piano accompaniment concludes the piece with a final chord.

me for a while, _____ Then left me a - gain with a smile. _____
 I first met you, _____ I know what it means to be blue. _____

Chorus

I had you, I lost you, I found you,
p-f

On - ly to lose you a - gain, _____ I rath - er I nev - er had loved you at all, Than to find that I've loved you in vain, I tried hard, but I could-n't hold you,

I was fool-ish to think you'd re - main, I had you I lost you, I found you, On - ly to lose you a - gain. I - gain.

IS BER n ad our graph our Piano