Isn't It Wonderful!

Words by
P. G. WODEHOUSE.

Duet.
(Betty and Dick.)

Music by JEAN SCHWARTZ.

Moderato.

Piano.

p (BETTY.)

Now that you — are here, I'm so hap - py, dear:
Just sup - pose, — my pet, We had nev - er met!

How can such hap - pi - ness be?
We'd have been lone - ly and sad:

Why should it come — just to me?
Might both have moped — and gone mad:

That is what I — can — not see, dear!
 What an es — cape — we have had, dear!

(DICK)
 I've been think — ing, too, Much the same — as you,
 If I'd not — got you, I know what — I'd do,

And I must say — I a — gree:
 Put Pa — ris Green — in my tea!

rall.
 Why should life be — so di — vine for you and me? —
 Yes, things have hap — pened just right for you and me. —

Refrain.
Moderato.

p-f (BOTH.)

Is - n't it won - der - ful! Is - n't it won - der - ful!
Is - n't it won - der - ful! Is - n't it won - der - ful!

Just like dream - ing a dream, - I'm a - fraid I — may wake,
Just like dream - ing a dream, - I'm a - fraid I — may wake,

Find there's been some mis - take, Much too good things seem,
Find there's been some mis - take, Much too good things seem,

(DICK.) Fan - cy the bliss - of be - ing here with you! —
(BETTY.) I want to creep - and nes - tie close to you: —

(BETTY.) Hav - ing you kiss - me as you used to do! —
 (DICK.) If I'm a - sleep, just let me sleep on, do! — cresc.

 (DICK.) Is - n't it won - der - ful! (BETTY.) Is - n't it beau - ti - ful!
 (BETTY.) Is - n't it won - der - ful! (DICK.) Is - n't it glo - ri - ous!

(DICK.) Is - n't it mar - vel - lous! (BETTY.) Is - n't it heav - en - ly!
 (BETTY.) Is - n't it heav - en - ly! (DICK.) This is the life — all right!

(BOTH.)
 I can't be - lieve - that it's true. true.
 I can't be - lieve - that it's true. true.
