"Put Your Arms Around Me"

Words by
S. M. LEWIS.

Music by KERRY MILLS.

The first system of musical notation is a piano introduction. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 2/4. The music begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The melody in the treble staff is composed of eighth and quarter notes, while the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

The second system of musical notation is a piano accompaniment. It features two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature remains two flats, and the time signature is 2/4. The melody in the treble staff continues with eighth and quarter notes, and the bass staff provides a steady accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

(Boy) All is fair in love and war, So I have been (Girl) Do you think my arms would fit 'Round your man - ly

The third system of musical notation includes a vocal melody and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written on a single treble clef staff. The lyrics are: "(Boy) All is fair in love and war, So I have been" and "(Girl) Do you think my arms would fit 'Round your man - ly". The piano accompaniment consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature is two flats, and the time signature is 2/4. The piano part provides a harmonic accompaniment for the vocal line.
