

SM2061

"I'll Give The Gold In My Heart For The Diamonds In Your Eyes."

3

Lyric by Arthur J. Lamb.

Music by Leo Edwards.

Andante Moderato.

When e'er I look in - Ah; there is some - thing

to your eyes, And see the glo - ries there,
in true love, Of more than price - less worth, 'Tis gaze up - on a thous - and stars, With sil - very splen - dor deep - er than the deep - est sea, 'Tis great - er than the Copyright MCMXII by Chas. K. Harris.

Rights for Mechanical Instruments Reserved.
International Copyright Secured.

fair, So on the dark - est day your eyes, Can earth, And tho' a King who loves may give a fill my heart with light; They're in my eve - ry throne and rich - es too; He can - not of - fer

thought of you, And in my dreams at night.
to his love, More than I of - fer you.

Refrain. Valse moderato.

I'll give the gold in my heart for the di - a - monds in your

mf

eyes, You are the on - ly one I love,

You are lifes dear - est prize, — Tho' I've no wealth I'm rich in love so hear my plead - ing sighs — I'll give the gold in my heart for the dia-monds in your eyes. —