Vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The vocal line continues with the lyrics "shin - ing through the trees, Down up - on the Swa - nee shore; / sha - dows soft - ly fall, Mam-my's in the cab - in door;". The piano accompaniment continues with a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

Rose - dreams float - ing on the breeze, Take me back to you once
 Su - gar cane is grow - ing tall, Cot - ton fields are white once more; — In love's gar - den you were the rose That more; — Whip - poor - will — is call - ing to me, While bloomed for me in a day; — But I oft - times fear that some bright stars shine from a - bove; — 'Neath the South - ern moon I'll be

mf

strange wind, dear, may bear your love a - way. —
 croon - ing soon, to you my la - dy love. —

rit.

CHORUS

Swa-nee Rose — hear my lov-ing plea, Keep a place — in your heart for me,

Soon I'll come — like the hon-ey bee, Where my flow - er grows; —

And at night — when the pale moon glows, Way down South — where the riv-er flows,

I'll make love — to my Swa-nee Rose. —
