doubt is not quite right (She) Quite right! Will your dar-ling eyes Up-then we'll see, I may! (He) She may! Fool-ish lit-tle one, You on my pic-ture rest? (He) Yes and o-ther-wise T'will be should-n't miss the chance! It has oft' been done So why here a-gainst my chest. (She) In slum-ber-land your dream-ing to en-hance, wor-ry, Let us dance. (He) No mar-ried pair shall e-qual us in France!

By you I'll stand and beck-on you to - (She dances) For But first, ma chere, we'll find out how to - (He dances) If now a - days thro' life It's all the go to prance! (Ho) Why lat - er we should have A fam - 'ly to fi - nance We'll not? it pays In scores of ways, To dance, dance, dance! cares re - lieve By teach - ing them To dance, dance, dance!

CHORUS

(Both) Dance! Dance! If you're sore or you're sad. Dance!

p-f

Dance! If you're mad or you're glad. Dance! Dance! When with long - ing you sigh - When you greet - when you meet - When you're bid - ding "good - bye"

Dance! Dance! If you're sore or you're sad, Dance! Dance! If you're mad or you're glad, Dance! Dance! When with long - ing you sigh - When you greet - when you meet - When you bid "good - bye?" bye." D. S.
