

SM 2961

2

I'll Be Back In Me Low Back Car.

Words by JOE YOUNG.

Music by WALTER DONALDSON.

Moderato.

mf

Vamp.

p

Lone-some Pad-dy,
Winds were blow-ing,

love sick lad-die from old Em-rald's Isle, it was snow-ing thir-ty-two be-low, His

Nev-er wore a smile but now he's smil-ing all the while, mule re-fused to go then ad-ding to his woe, He

Copyright MCMXV by Kalmar & Puck Music Co. Inc.
Copyright Canada MCMXV by Kalmar & Puck Music Co. Inc.
International Copyright Secured.

Feel - ing bet - ter, got a let - ter from his col - leen true, He tick - led his old mule and like a fool sailed thro' the air, Be - said "I'm aw - ful glad there's noth - ing left for me to do, But hind a heav - y cloud he spied a wire - less sta - tion there, He take me pen, I would - n't have to try, To stopped a while to send a tel - e - gram, To send me Mol - lie - o this one re - ply.

 Mol - lie - o - and this is how it ran.

Chorus.

I'll be back in me Low Back car, (giddyap giddyap)

p-f

Just to get you, me shin - - ing star,

With a heart that is true al - ways beat - ing for you

I love your I - rish eyes of blue,

Sure! it's a long, long way to old Kil - lar - ney

But re - mem - ber you can't be too far,

For if it takes from now 'till judgement day, I'll be back in me Low — Back car. I'll be car.