Neal Of The Navy

Words and Music by
CHARLES BAYHA

Moderato

The piano introduction is in 2/4 time, marked Moderato. It begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The right hand features a series of chords and eighth-note patterns, while the left hand provides a steady bass line with eighth notes. The piece concludes with a final chord and a fermata.

We've had lots of he - roes in the days gone bye,
Tho' you're just the he - ro in a pho - to play,

The vocal line consists of a series of quarter and eighth notes. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand.

Men who fought to keep the stars and stripes on high,
Still you teach a les - son in a strik - ing way,

The vocal line continues with quarter and eighth notes. The piano accompaniment maintains the eighth-note bass line and chordal accompaniment.

But to - day we've got a he - ro just as bold, As
You have shown us what we owe to each Jack Tar, And

The vocal line concludes with quarter and eighth notes. The piano accompaniment features a final chord with a fermata.
