

SM 3058

Who'll Take Care Of The Harem When The Sultan Goes To War?

Words by
JIMMIE KAUFMANN
and ARCHIE MAYER.

Music by Wm J. LEWIS.

Marcia.

Piano.

Till Ready.

Voice.

I can't sleep a wink at night I'm wor-ried all the day,
I know why dear Tur-key was the last to go to war,

To find out a cer-tain thing I've tried in ev-'ry way,
If the Sul-tan had no har-em he'd been there be-fore,

Copyright MCMXV by Maurice Richmond Music Co. Inc. 145 W. 45th St. N. Y.

International Copyright Secured. All Rights Reserved.
The Publishers reserve the right to the use of this Copyrighted Work upon the parts of Instruments serving to reproduce it Mechanically.

I have ev - en gone so far to ca - ble 'cross the sea.
He tried hard to get a man to take care of his wives.

Just to see if there's a - way to solve this mys - ter - y.
Ov - er here they look for jobs like that all thru their lives.

Chorus.

Who'll take care of the Har - em when the Sul - tan goes to war,

He's gone out in a world of harm' leav - ing be - hind a poul - try farm

He would die for Tur - key, — But he loves his chick - en more, — That's the job I'd like to get I

If I were his maj - es - ty in wish it were for keeps and I would do more in one day than leaves I'd dress them all and then I'd close the win - dow when the

Paul did in three weeks, If he'd let me mind his Har - em,
leaves be - gan to fall,

When the Sul - tan goes to war.