Vamp

I've tra-veled 'round and I have found a lot of things to see, — The lights of old Broad-You ought to see — how they treat me in dear old Dix-ie-land, — I live just like a way, — The sights of Pa-ree gay (so pret-ty), That sto-ry called "A - ra-bian Nights" Sure makes a hit — with me, — But king, — They give me ev-'ry-thing (so pret-ty), You'd think I was — a mil-lion-aire — They get a jas - bo band, — Oh!

CHORUS Brightly, but not fast when I'm out — for fun There is on - ly one Place I want to be: — There's al-ways something do-in' down in Dix - what a ju - bi-lee They pre-pare — for me, Can't you un-der - stand — ie, There's something do-in' down there all the time, — From morn till night you'll hear the dar-kies sing - ing, — The cot-ton blossoms in that sun - ny clime Are dancin' with'em They keep in rhy-thm, When my mam-my cooks a chick - en Al-ways some-thing do - in' down in din - ner Why! ev - ry - body's bu - sy as can be, From corn and 'ta - ters down to pie it's sim - ply great, No Dix - ie, There's some - thing doin' down there all the time, Put all your Sun - day clothes and man - ners on the shelf, Just need a - wash - in' - dish - es for you clean your plate, - There's al - ways some - thing do - in' down in Dix - ie. There's wad right in, it's ev - ry - bo - dy help him - self, - There's al - ways some - thing do - in' down in Dix - ie. There's ie. There's ie.

PATTER - AD LIB

The roo - ster starts a - crow - in' in the ear - ly morn, The lit - tle birds are chirp - in' in the fields of corn, The pp cat - tle in the pas - ture you can hear them MOO, The ba - by starts a - bawl - in' for his break - fast, too, At noon you hear old mam - my ring the din - ner bell, At six o' - clock the whis - tle blows to work FARE - WELL, At eight o' - clock the ban - jos start to jazz a - way, You'll nev - er find an i - dle min - ute in the day, There's
