

SM 3735

UKALOU.

(Pretty South Sea Island Lady.)

Lyric by WALTER VAN BRUNT.

Music by
HARRY VON TILZER.

Moderato. (With expression.)

Piano.

Far a-way on a pret - ty lit - tle Is land so en - tranc - ing With sun - beams glanc - ing -
 Uk - a - lou is a maid - en who will fill your heart with glad - ness And then with sad - ness -

p legato

And per - fume rare - in the air ev - 'ry where - Ev - 'ry day there's a Hoo - la maid who comes to do her
 Your ev - 'ry joy - she'll des - troy like a toy - When she loves it is al - ways with that O - ri - ent - al danc - ing - A - long the beach of Wai - ki - ki She mad - ness - That seems to set your brain on fire Woe

- is just a sir - en Lov'd by ev - 'ry poor Ha - wai - ian.
 - to all that woo her Brok en hearts mean noth - ing to her.

rit.

Chorus. (Slow.)

Uk-a-lou — pret-ty South Sea Is-land lad- y — The Hoo-la boys are fall-ing They will o-bey —

p-f

her call-ing Uk-a-lou — with a col-or rath-er shad-y — She has a charm-ing style, her smile will be-guile all the while, and she is Queen — of all in Wai-ki-ki — For you see — None —

— com-pare with Lou - oo - oo — When — she sings as Ha-wai-ians do-oo-oo — Ev -

-ry fel-low vows he'd be true-oo-oo — if he could live his whole life through With Uk-a - lou. lou.

rit. f