

SM 4647

"GEORGIA MOONLIGHT"

Words by
ROY THORNTON
and HAVEN GILLESPIE
Valse moderato

Music by
ERWIN R. SCHMIDT
Composer of "Carolina Sunshine"

mf

When the moon is all a glow, I'm dreaming of the long a-go, Mem'ries of Sweet and low I hear the breeze a-sing-ing, Dixie mel-o-dies, Croon-ing it

p

old, seem to un-fold; And in fan-cy I can see, The ones I seems, songs of my dreams; As the shad-ows soft-ly fall, My gold-en love, who wait for me, And I long for my Old South-ern Home. ——— mem-o-ries re-call, Old-en scenes of the land that I love. ———

CHORUS

In my dreams I see the Geor-gia moon a-shin-ing, Shin-ing thru the night,

p-mf

o'er the fields of white, There's a yearn - ing in my heart and I am pin -

ing, To be there where all the world seems bright; I can hear the birds a - sing - ing in the wild wood, And the rippling streams, calling me it seems, Back to hap - py days of child - hood,

Un - der - neath the Geor - gia Moon. In my Moon.