Dear Old New York

Words by
LARRY URBACH

Music by
VICTOR NURNBERG

Moderato

Piano

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass accompaniment with quarter notes. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C).

Voice

Lon - don says it's Ev - 'ry town I

Till Ready

The first vocal line begins with a rest, followed by the lyrics. The piano accompaniment continues with a similar rhythmic pattern, marked with a forte (f) dynamic. A section marked 'Till Ready' indicates a change in the piano accompaniment's texture.

best,
know,

Thinks it beats the rest
Loves to boast and crow

Par - is too is boast - ing with pride of it's near - ness to Par - a - dise

The second system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part features a mix of chords and moving lines, supporting the vocal line.

'Ev - er since Joan of Arc died
Which may all be ver - y nice

Yen - ice, Land of dreams
But I must con - tend

Pride - ful too it to the ver - y

The third system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part provides harmonic support with chords and a steady bass line.

seems end

All these cit - ies proud can be, but Your home town's great I'll a - gree but

New York is the place for me:
New York is the place for me:

The final system concludes the piece with the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The piano part ends with a final chord and a few notes in the bass line.
