

SM 5569

The Windflowers

Rutherford McLeod*

Werner Josten

Allegretto ♩ = 108

Voice

I know where the wind-flow'rs blow, I

Piano

p
* segno

know!

I have been where the wild hon-ey - bees Ga-ther

hon - ey — for their queen, for their queen.

poco rit.

pp
espr.

* From "Songs to Save a Soul," published by B.W. Huebsch, Inc., New York Copyright, 1922, by G. Schirmer, Inc.

a tempo

I would be a wild— flow'r,

mp

ten. accel. cresc.

Bluesky o-ver me for an hour, So the wild bees should colla voce accel. cresc.

seek and dis-cov - er me, and kiss me,

mf pp rall.

kiss me, kiss me!

p rall. dim.

Leg. Leg. Leg. Leg. Leg.

P a tempo Più mosso

Not one of the dusk - y dears should miss me.

a tempo mf

Leg. *

poco rit.

Tempo I^o

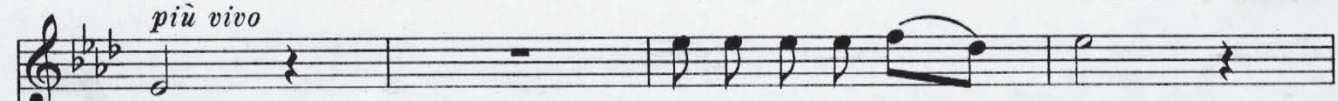

I know where the wind-flow'rs blow, I know!

p

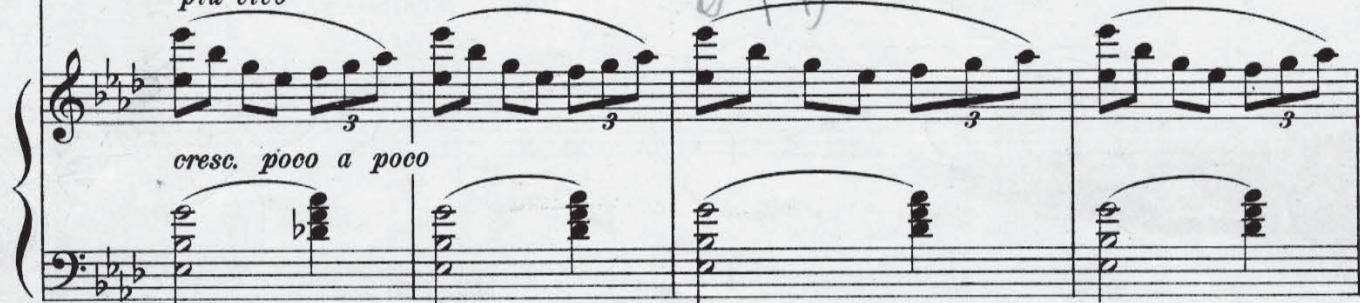

I have been where the lit-tle rab-bits run In the warm yel-low

sun. O, to be a wild-flow'r

più vivo

cresc. poco a poco

ten.

For an hour, an hour in the heath-er,--

colla voce cresc.

f mf Ossia

A bright flow'r, a wild flow'r, Blown

f mp mf p

ten. pp

by the weath-er, by the weath-er.

p dim. rall. ppp

8