

SM 5601

2 I Wonder Why The Glow-Worm Winks His Eye At Me

Words by
OSCAR HAMMERSTEIN, II

(Professor and Girls)

Music by
HERBERT STOTHART

Allegretto scherzando

Piano

pp p gva.
accelerando
rall.
pp

Allegro moderato mf (PROFESSOR)

La - dies! now the class will come to or - der please stud-y with 'me Bug-ol-o - gy. — Oh what a cute pro-fes-sor!

(GIRLS)

(PROFESSOR)

la - dies! Beet-les, But-ter-flies and Bum-ble-bees.

p(SHE)

Teach- er please, drop the bees, I know a bug more Puzz'ling (Puzz'ling?) He comes to see me ev - 'ry night It's a most un-wel-come vis - it And

Spoken

molto espress

poco rall. (PROFESSOR) (SHE)

I must ask you this ques-tion sir, Well go a-head What is it? I poco rit fp

Refrain Slowly

p-f won-der why the glow-wormwinks his eye at me, No

p-f mat-ter where I chance to go he's sure to be. He's al-ways blink_ blink_ blink - ing with his lit - tle light,

He's al-ways wink_ wink_ wink-ing when he's see-ing things at night. When - ev - er there's a call - er sit - ting on my porch, He comes a-long and flicks his lit-tle torch I al-most hear him laugh a-loud in sly glow-worm glee, And then he winks his eye at me. I me. ten. ten.

