leaf bag bandits

During a two month spree in 2012, Circle K convenience stores in four cities were targeted 13 times by cigarette thieves. Suspects would approach and verbally threaten the store clerk, then jump over the counter and proceed to steal as many as 200 cartons of cigarettes per incident. The suspects placed the cigarettes in black leaf or garbage bags and fled the scene.

With an uncertain vehicle description and vague suspect descriptions, detectives and analysts were left with basically two factors to work with – location and time of occurrence - Circle K stores and between the early morning hours of 1:30 a.m. to 4:50 a.m.

With this information, detectives and the Crime Analysis Unit put together likely targets and predictions for future hits. Several multi-jurisdictional meetings were held to share intelligence and information was distributed to field officers to patrol at Circle K locations.
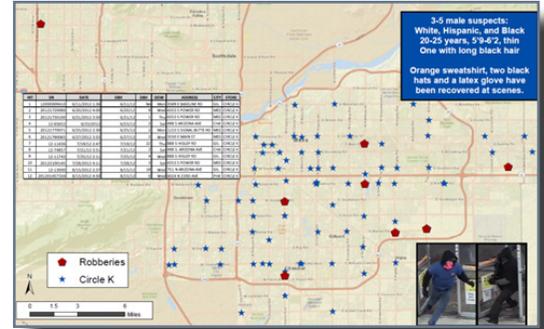

Ultimately, four suspects were taken into custody as they were attempting another robbery while patrol officers were already on scene conducting surveillance. In all, it was a collaborative effort by detectives, patrol, and the analysis unit to successfully close the series.

retail theft ring

What seemed, at first, to be a routine shoplifting investigation turned out to be a retail theft ring involving a 61 year old man, his 89 year old mother, and at least 19 retailers.

While investigating the incident a surveillance was conducted. At one point the pair committed 32 shoplifts over a five day period. The suspects would then turn around and sell their stolen merchandise at garage sales.

After a several months' long investigation, search warrants were served and three box truck loads of brand new merchandise were recovered from several storage lockers.

In the end, a total of $132,000 in stolen merchandise was recovered and returned to victim retailers. Long form charges were filed against the mother through the Maricopa County Attorney's Office. The son was booked and ultimately received a five month prison sentence.

Stolen property recovered through retail theft ring investigation.

During this fiscal year, the department widened its offerings on the social media stage with the implementation of not one, but two Facebook pages, as well as a strong presence on Twitter and You Tube. Keeping in contact with residents is one of the top priorities of the Public Information Office. Not only does social media keep the public informed of the goings on in the community, but it promotes our promise of transparency and introduces the human side of our department.

Additionally, the department launched two smart phone applications. The first is the DDACTS (Data Driven Approach to Crime and Traffic Safety). DDACTS integrates location-based crime and traffic data to establish effective and efficient methods for deploying enforcement resources. Using Geo-mapping to identify areas that have high incidences of crime and crashes, DDACTS uses traffic enforcement strategies that play a dual role in fighting crime and reducing crashes and traffic violations. Drawing on the deterrent of highly visible traffic enforcement and the knowledge that crime often involves the use of motor vehicles. This application gives the user a monthly report card on the agency's progress in the target area. The second application provides the user with general information about the department as well as links to department videos, a method of submitting crime tips, and links to our Facebook and Twitter pages. patrol resources

Three important units within the police department are instrumental in supplementing the patrol function. These units include the Civilian Patrol Assistants, Teleserve, and Detention Transport. The use of a blended staffing approach (civilian and sworn personnel) has enabled the department to allocate sworn resources more efficiently.

Civilian Patrol Assistants (CPAs) are deployed to the field to handle an assortment of calls for service including non-injury accident scenes and parking violations. In FY 2012/13, two CPAs responded to 355 non-injury accidents.

Another valuable resource to the patrol function is Detention Transport. The department currently employs six (6) detention transport officers (DTOs). The DTOs' role is to provide arrested subjects transport to and from court, while providing a safe environment not only for the public, but the arrested subjects as well. Transport pickups for Gilbert Municipal Court are typically done from the Maricopa County Sheriff's Office (MCSO) jails in Phoenix, but are also on occasion done from Pinal County. DTOs will frequently respond to meet other agencies for warrant turnovers as well. In FY 12/13 the department had nearly 1,900 bookings at MCSO jails (1,843 full / 22 half bookings). Although the numbers fell slightly from FY 11/12, which saw nearly 2,000 bookings, the department began experimental processes in March of 2013. DTOs began holding subjects who were arrested after midnight until court the following morning. For a six month period, DTO's held an average of 70 prisoners a month. This experiment ultimately showed better work flow efficiency and a potential cost savings which was the catalyst for looking into a Unified Holding Facility with the Chandler Police Department.

While in court, DTOs provide security but also assume bailiff-type duties providing the court staff with fees and background information on the arrested subjects. The DTOs assist with all the detainee movement and facilitate the needs of the court to expedite the court process. After court procedures, the DTOs return court remands to county's custody and return to assist officers with the booking procedures (fingerprint / photographs) for new arrests. Although court hours are normal business hours, DTO staffing is required 24/7 as arrests are processed throughout the entire day.
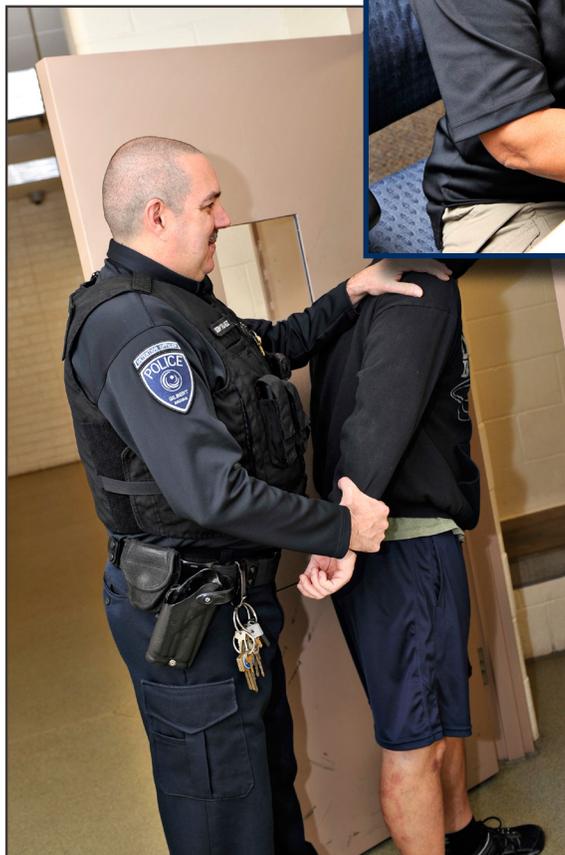

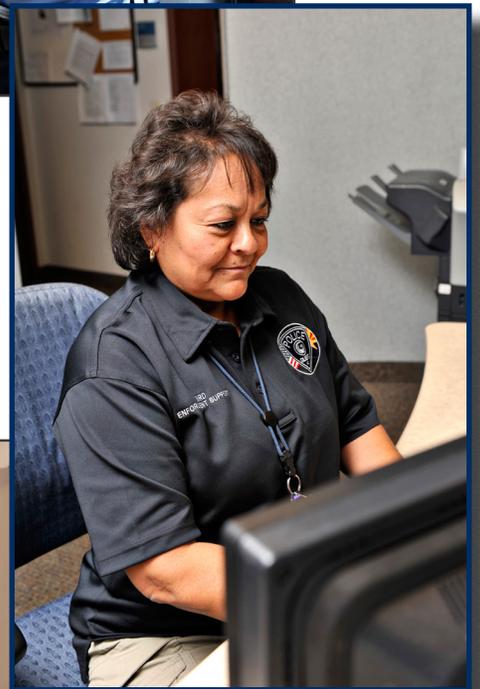

youth and adult resources

The Gilbert Police Department has the unique advantage of having among its resources the Gilbert Youth and Adult Resources (GYAR) section. GYAR provides a comprehensive counseling program to Gilbert residents who are referred by the Gilbert Police Department, the Gilbert Municipal Court, and/or the Gilbert Fire Department.

Primarily, counselors offer voluntary brief, solution-focused counseling for clients of all ages, court-ordered treatment for adults, and diversion programs for youth. In collaboration with other units within the police department, GYAR conducts direct follow up with victims of domestic violence. Additionally, counseling is offered in any police incidents involving those at-risk for suicidal thoughts, marital counseling, runaways, etc.

Counselors and/or volunteers are available to respond with other police services to calls for service involving those in crisis, suicides, or to make death notifications. During FY 12/13, counselors responded on 100 crisis calls.

Additionally, GYAR counselors collaborate with the local court systems to screen and conduct follow up services for court ordered domestic violence offenders, drunk driver screenings, and court ordered counseling. The unit also offers adolescent diversion programs for offenses such as curfew and underage consumption, as well as other juvenile offenses. A total of 14 community youth diversion classes were held last year.

GYAR has a strong relationship with the local school districts to provide students and families with risk assessments, individual counseling, and conducts group psycho-educational classes for youth having drug/alcohol and/or behavioral issues at school. The department's school resource officers also participate by referring families for counseling services through GYAR.

A counselor in GYAR acts as the advisor to the Mayor's Youth Advisory Committee (MYAC). Each year, in cooperation with the Town of Gilbert, MYAC holds a Student Government Days event. In May 2013, 44 students from Gilbert and Higley school districts participated. During Student Government Days, students work with members of various departments throughout the Town. The event culminates with a mock town council meeting where issues affective youth are discussed.

During FY 12/13, GYAR personnel served over 4,200 clients.
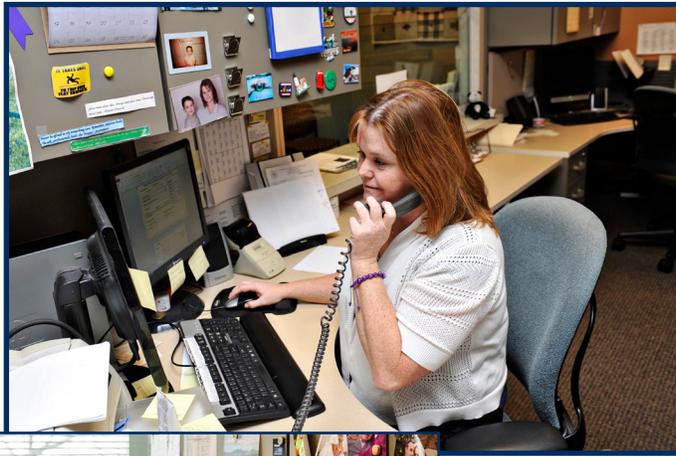

blue line of love
toy drive

Each December, the Crime Prevention Unit coordinates a large scale toy drive for families in town. Local businesses become drop off points for new toy donations.

Just before Christmas, the department's lunchroom transforms into "Santa's Workshop." Many rolls of wrapping paper later, toys are delivered to the many families participating in the program.

rock and run 5k

An annual Spring tradition, the Rock and Run 5K benefits Special Olympics Arizona.

The event includes 5K and 1 mile fun runs. The 2013 run raised over $5,000 for Special Olympics. This is another event that would not be possible without the generous local businesses in Gilbert.

law enforcement
torch run

The Law Enforcement Torch Run is a continuation of the law enforcement community's dedication to Special Olympics. Law Enforcement employees throughout the state take their turn carrying the Olympics' torch to the Special Olympics Arizona opening ceremonies.
