Dear Mr Cruikshank

You may perhaps have forgotten your kind expression of willingness to create a plate for me-but I assure you I have not and I had only delayed sending it to you till I had finished the chapter to which it refers in case of needing attention. May I now send it you - or when will you be a leisure? It consists of the subjects you saw with four larger heads and it will be keeping that it should be ready for printing in eight weeks- but within that time pray suit your entire convenience-and me always most gratefully Yours

Ruskin.

George Cruikshank. Esq.

Mrs Ruskin begs her regards-
