

My dear J.B.

Herewith Anticipationsii to follow up no I

Three is well in hand, though the {home} is getting a great obstacle to work.

This ii will greatly help i I think. I don't see that

[page break]

I shall be coming up to represent literature (along [your] letters) [in] the Royal Society Dinner on

Nov 30th I expect to get up about 4 & I shall stop at the Metropole

(where the dinner will be) Will you come share tea with me?

[page break]

I hear things shouldn't have illustrations (if that will help you). A good imaginative artist might get a lot out of them.

The wall flowers were excellent. Pleased to recommend you at any time.

Yours

H.G.