

ELECTION DAY TUESDAY NOV. 7

THE RESULTS OF THE LATEST POLL TAKEN BY THE CITIZENS FOR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS ARE NOW IN. ELECTION DAY IS NEXT TUESDAY, AND IT IS EVERY REGISTERED CITIZENS RIGHT AND DUTY TO VOTE ON THAT DAY. IT IS EVEN MORE IMPORTANT THAT EVERY REGISTERED GAY PERSON IN THE STATE VOTE AND SHOW OUR STRENGTH IN A UNITED VOTE. THE QUESTIONS ASKED IN THIS LATEST CCR POLL ARE PERTINENT TO EVERY GAY MAN AND LESBIAN WOMAN IN THIS STATE. TWO OF THE QUESTIONS PERTAIN TO SEXUAL OR AFFECTIONAL PREFERENCE/BEHAVIOR. THE OTHER ASKS THE CANDIDATES SPECIFICALLY FOR THEIR VIEWS ON SUPPORT FOR THE EQUAL RIGHTS AMENDMENT. THE ACTUAL QUESTIONS AS ASKED WERE:

1. DO YOU SUPPORT DECRIMINALIZATION OF PRIVATE CONSENTING ADULT SEXUAL BEHAVIOR?
2. DO YOU SUPPORT CONFIRMATION OF THE EQUAL RIGHTS AMENDMENT TO THE U.S. CONSTITUTION IN 1979?
3. WOULD YOU SUPPORT LEGISLATION THAT WOULD PROHIBIT DISCRIMINATION BASED ON SEXUAL OR AFFECTIONAL PREFERENCE?

AS EXPECTED, THE MAJORITY OF CANDIDATES ANSWERED NEGATIVELY TO THE QUESTIONS ASKED, BUT MORE IMPORTANTLY, MANY OF THOSE SEEKING OFFICE IN THIS ELECTION SPOKE QUITE POSITIVELY AND DESERVE YOUR SUPPORT AT THE POLLS. ANSWERING AFFIRMATIVELY TO ALL THREE QUESTIONS - LISTED BY DISTRICT - THE SUPPORTERS OF GAY RIGHTS AND PASSAGE OF ERA ARE AS FOLLOWS:

PHOENIX BAR BURGLARIZED

PHOENIX - The Forum/Boardwalk was broken into and burglarized on Wednesday night of last week, October 25, sometime after the bar had closed for the night. The intruder broke into the office and made off with a large sum of money and cases of liquor, also coins were taken from the various machines on the premises.

INFORMATION AND REFERRAL MEET WITH TUCSON GAYS

TUCSON - On Thursday, October 26, members of the Tucson Gay community met with staff and management of Information and Referral (I&R). The purpose of this meeting was to set up an information and emergency crisis line for the Gay community. Now instead of several different calls to various organizations it is now possible to make one phone call to get the response or action that is needed.

Representing the Gay community at the meeting were Jim Smith, Director of GCS; Beverly Ginn, Gay Coalition and ANI; Phil Oliver, Director GSO Peer Counseling and Theresa Terry representing Arizona Gay Youth. Each gave a ten minute talk to the I&R representatives outlining the problems and resources that arise in their respective places in the Gay community. After the talks, the meeting was open to discussion and questions. Many questions were asked, discussed and answered.

Plans are being made to distribute posters to various locations throughout the city. The AGN and Tucson Gay Coalition Newsletter will be providing additional promotional space. If you need help regarding Gay related problems call "Information and Referral" at 881-1794 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. If there is a crisis or emergency, call "Help-On-Call", 323-9373 24 hours a day. If you have any additional information you would like added to I&R's files, please call 881-1794, leave your name and the information you would like them to have.

NAZI GROUP OFFERS TO HELP BRIGGS

LOS ANGELES (GayLife) - A California Nazi group has volunteered to help the Briggs forces pass the anti-Gay initiative Proposition 6, but that offer of assistance has been turned down. The Nazi organization, the National Socialist White Peoples Party, sent a letter to state Senator John Briggs, endorsing Prop. 6 and offering to supply speakers in support of the amendment as well as authorizing Briggs to use the party name in his publicity.

A spokesperson for Briggs said the senator would be "repulsed" by such a letter but claimed that it had never arrived at the Briggs campaign office. A staff member for the National Socialist White People's Party, which is headquartered in Arlington, Virginia, estimated that party membership in Orange County is 50 persons. He continued, "Our storm troops section is always ready to take to the streets in support of our policy. If needed for a demonstration or counter demonstrations, we could put a small, but effective force into action."

BIAS IN CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, DC (GCN) - A bill that would have had the U.S. House of Representatives set up a structure for aggrieved congressional employees died in the waning days of the recently adjourned Congress. The measure, introduced by Rep Morris Udall of Arizona and Rep. Patricia Schroeder (D-Colo) did not even get a reading as congress rushed to adjournment.

Udall and Schroeder said their measure would provide "the missing teeth" needed to ensure fairness on Capitol Hill. Their action followed a year old study which showed favoritism for white males over blacks and women in hiring and in the positions they hold and in salaries paid. Before the death of their proposal, Udall and Schroeder stated it was time for the House to adopt the legislation to end its reputation as the nation's "last plantation."

LEGISLATOR DIES AT MIAMI BATHS

MIAMI (GayLife) - A Pennsylvania state legislator, who was regarded as a "super patriot" and a "straight arrow" politician, was recently found dead of a heart attack in the Club Miami, one of the city's more popular Gay bathhouses. State representative William Shuman, 57, held the Silver Beaver, the top award of the Boy Scouts of America, and was active in both the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Miami Police said that Shuman collapsed and died of a heart attack on his way to the whirlpool approximately 4 hours after entering the bath.

RE: TUCSON WOMEN'S COMMISSION
LESBIAN LIFESTYLE WORKSHOP
FM: Dash Filipowicz
Nat'l. Lesbian Feminist Organization

The rights of lesbians to have a lesbian workshop sponsored by the Tucson Women's Commission have been challenged by Councilman Richard Amlee and Mayor Lew Murphy. Fortunately the other members of the Council saw fit to protect our rights as a minority group and as taxpayers. They still need our support, however, because there are still organized "so-called Christians" trying to take away these very rights.

LET YOUR STAND BE KNOWN!!!

Call: 791-4700 and have your recorded message given directly to the Mayor and the Council. Also call 791-4201 and register your support for this upcoming workshop with the Mayor's office. The workshop is scheduled for November 10 and 11.

Episcopal priest blasts Prop. 6, reveals he's gay

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) - Episcopal priest Rev. William H. Barcus III, delivered a broadside against Proposition 6, the anti-Gay Initiative, in his sermon last Sunday, then revealed to the congregation he is homosexual. Barcus, 43, told three successive groups of parishioners of his homosexuality at the Church of Saint Mary The Virgin.

"I take upon myself the mantle of outcast," Barcus said. "I must stand with my people, Gay people, I must stand for their sake, for my soul's sake, for your sake."

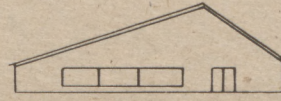

The anti-Gay initiative would prohibit the hiring or retention of schoolteachers who advocate homosexuality. Opponents of the measure contend current laws already protect children and such a measure would trigger witch hunts.

One parishioner, upon hearing of Barcus' announcement, commented, "We loved Bill last week and we love him this week."

PARENTS AND FRIENDS OF GAYS INCORPORATE

PHOENIX - One the 12th of September, a group calling themselves the United Parents and Friends Support Group was officially incorporated by the State of Arizona. As you probably can guess, that name is legal-ese for Phoenix Parents and Friends group that has been meeting more or less informally for quite some time. Back in July, the group had a meeting and decided that there were a number of services and activities that were very much needed by the Phoenix Gay community. They also realized that they were an ideal group to sponsor and/or run such services. Their membership is primarily non-Gay while still being vitally concerned with the welfare of Gay people, since "They are the membership's children." It would be hard to accuse such a group of Proselytizing."

The next step was to make the group a legal body so that it could do things like raise tax-deductible donations, hold property, run programs and the like. The articles of Incorporation were written broadly enough so that the group can sponsor just about anything that they feel is needed. Some of the services that have been proposed include rap groups, recreational activities and counseling for Gay people who are not yet 19-years-old and a hostel-type residence to provide food, shelter, counseling and job-finding assistance for homeless Gay Youths.

Not all of the organization's energies have gone into future planning. They are currently providing crisis counseling for parents who have just received news about their child's sexual preferences. Parent counseling is also provided in another way. Part of every meeting is set aside for discussing the problems, feelings and joys of being a parent of Gay persons. The group's most ambitious undertaking has been the sponsorship of The Phoenix Street Project. This is an outreach service, staffed by volunteer mental health and social work professionals, which is providing crisis counseling and job-finding assistance (legitimate, permanent jobs) for Phoenix's young street hustlers.

If you are a parent or a foster parent of a Gay person, or are a non-Gay or Gay professional (lawyer, doctor, social worker, etc.), who has Gay clients, and would like to be a part of this organization, call Mrs. Faith Parker at 957-1738 for the location of the November 6 meeting. Monthly meetins are on the first Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m.

1517 SOUTH BLACK CANYON PHOENIX, ARIZONA

Dignity/Tucson has been so busy the past few weeks that there hasn't been much time for anything else and that's why this article has been missing from the pages of AGN. But we're here this week to catch you up on all the news.

With over 60 paid-up members and nearly 200 additional people who attend Dignity activities, the Tucson chapter has become one of the largest and most active organizations in the Rocky Mountain states. The monthly newsletter is sent to all members and details the monthly activities as well as provides interesting, entertaining and educational reading. One of the only regularly produced newsletters in Arizona, the Carillon is read by over 300 individuals.

Up-coming events include a Mass and pot-luck on Saturday, November 4. (Call 745-1812 or 297-6340 for details), a Dignity regional meeting in Albuquerque the weekend of November 11, a Car-port Sale the weekend of November 18-19, a monthly business meeting on November 21 and a community Thanksgiving dinner with MCC on November 23.

Whenever the members of Dignity get together, there is a sharing, a very deep caring the takes place and all that come into contact with it are renewed and leave with uplifted spirits. If you haven't been to a Dignity event before, why not plan to attend one this month.

Editorial

Next Tuesday, November 7, Pima County voters will be asked to determine whether 12 Superior Court judges should remain in office. Under the state's Merit Selection System, the ballot asks only whether the judge should be retained - yes or no.

Because of this, we must go back to June 6, 1976, a date that every Gay person in the City of Tucson should remember. In the evening, on that date, Richard Heakin - a student at the University of Nebraska, in Tucson visiting friends - was brutally murdered as he was leaving the old Stonewall bar. Four youths, who were admittedly out to bash some queers, were indicted for participating in the murder. In October, 1976, the four were brought to trial before Judge Ben C. Birdsall. Judge Birdsall allowed the original charge of murder to be changed to Involuntary Manslaughter and subsequently put the four on probation until they were twenty-one.

Just recently, reporters from Tucson's Arizona Daily Star did an evaluation of the 12 judges using various statistical resources, including the poll conducted by the State Bar of Arizona. Local attorneys, the report says, agree that their strongest criticism of Superior Court judge Ben C. Birdsall is his thin skin. They say the 10 year veteran judge has proven he is too sensitive to public criticism. Many attorneys say that Birdsall, 55, has recently been overreacting to criticism leveled against him when he put the four teenagers on probation in the Heakin murder. Since that time, the attorneys say privately, the judge has - at least in two cases - imposed the death sentence in questionable murder sentences.

The Gay community and many, many non-Gay citizens were outraged at the time, for the poor judgement in the Heakin case. True - what is done is done, and Judge Birdsall has since judged many cases, and true - of the 172 local attorneys rating the judge, 95% recommended that he be kept as a Superior Court judge. I would probably have to do the same if I were an attorney with the likelihood of appearing before him in the future. But - we sincerely question the competency of a man who shows so little concern for human life that he would allow four persons who did, in fact participate in a murder, back out on the streets with only the warning that they should finish school and not drink until they are of age. We question the competency of this judge when he allowed the original charge of murder in the Heakin slaying to be changed to Involuntary Manslaughter. We question the competency of this same judge to sit in judgement, who although consistently rated as "overall satisfactory" by the local attorneys, was also mildly criticized for occasionally playing favorites in the courtroom with attorneys he knew well.

We cannot forget the anguish of Richard Heakin's parents who had to have the body of their son shipped back to Nebraska for burial only a few days after he left for a vacation in Tucson. We cannot forget the intense feelings and overall despair of the Tucson Gay Community - not only at the actual murder - but the completely unfair 1976 decision of Judge Ben C. Birdsall.

Tuesday, November 7, Pima County voters will be asked to vote yes or no on whether to keep Judge Birdsall and the 11 other Superior Court judges. If any of the 12 do not get at least 50% yes votes, they would be removed from office and a replacement would be appointed by the Governor. When you go to the secrecy of the voting booth, we ask that you use your good conscience when you cast your yes or no vote for Judge Ben C. Birdsall. We, personally hold no vendetta, but we are having a very difficult time forgetting the past.

- ...Boardwalk's Bob and Hap are going to retire as Lesbians.
- ...Larry of the Forum attended a bath in Los Angeles that only admits good-looking people. Sorry you didn't get in, Larry!
- ...Frenchie and Keith, was there really an after-hours party later that evening, or were you two just looking for an excuse to go home early and sack out?
- ...Mike of Forum, whose shorts are you sniffing these days?
- ...More than one person got hung up at the Ramrod anniversary party.
- ...Buck, we're glad the Ramrod got the picture all together for you at long last.
- ...What's this we hear - that the Boardwalk's cigarette machine, which took a daylight walk last winter, was found in the Salt River bed following the big floods. Sans money and smokes, of course.

- ...Is it true that Dale Y. was in the hospital last week for heart lift tests and Charles N. paid the bill?
- ...Warner J. found out last week that the "ugly teller" for cashing a check was really the bartender at the B/P
- ...Cindi Diamond II made her walk at the Halloween Ball in Scottsdale better known as Erma Bombeck.
- ...The best joke about Brent and Rusty last week was that they didn't understand it.
- ...Bob B. wishes that Loretta was a prompt at opening the bar as she is at closing them.
- ...Does Daisey H. have J.T. to thank for turning her into the midnight jogger that she's always wanted to be - only Del S. knows for sure.
- ...Andy P. and Alex were afraid to lose each other at the the Halloween Ball in Scottsdale, so they dressed alike.
- ...Is it true that Norma Jean, Dick L. and John H. applied for a group rate at West Center after lunch last Thurs.
- ...Rumor has it that after last Tuesday Nights Lasagna dinner at the Back Pocker, Mary B. is recommending that Joe H. apply at the gas company for a job.
- ..."Times Are Changing" - Norma Jean took off her clothes at the Graduate and was criticized ... Phil C. took off his and won $50!!!
- ...Cindi Diamond is a very nice person.
- ...Fernando I looked so good at the Halloween Ball in Scottsdale, he should have won King of the Ball.
- ...If the Graduate had had the Hair Tiz's stereo needle or the Hair Tiz had had the Graduates spotlight, we may have seen ONE good show on Saturday night.
- ...Scooter was so high on that French stuff that he forgot his phallic cake at the Sheraton Inn in Scottsdale. Too bad that french stuff wasn't Perrier. Happy birthday Sugar.
- ...Some aging actresses get new jobs on the producers casting couch. Candias got hers on the new carpet in the old office at Joshua Tree.
- ...John H. wants his 'drip' back.
- ...Mother Johnny left the Graduate for the Hair Tiz in a fit of good taste.
- ...The management of the Hair Tiz and the Imperial Court did not exchange an unpleasant letter or word all week - now THAT'S NEWS!
- ...What two ladies from Suffolk Road were seen at the Graduate Tuesday night trying to find a way home after being so rude to everyone in sight?
- ...One of the parking attendants at Jekyll's "Rocky" show thought she had been promoted from private no-class to Commander first class.
- ...Jim J. got rave reviews for his Fred Y. light show last Tuesday night - just goes to show that if you cut and dye your hair someone will think you're chicken.

Tucson Gay Coalition

VOTE=the word of the season=VOTE

Your vote can make a difference. This election is looking like a record low turnout. Politically (oops, sorry about that word!) that means trouble for liberals and that, dear hearts, means trouble for gay causes, gays and friends of same. Our apathy in the voting booth, as in other areas is counted on very heavily by those who do not wish to see us. They are admitting we're here, but they just don't want us "flaunting" ourselves--You don't "flaunt", you say? If you've grown beyond hiding the real you, you are "flaunting", according to THEM. Is there a THEM? You bet your bleep there is. Oddly enough, THEY too work in mysterious ways. We need not be a mystery. We need not be invisible. We need not be ineffective. We need not "demonstrate", but we will! We need not boycott, but we can! We need not "be", but we are!!!

If you can picture an ostrich with its head in the sand, you'll have a pretty good idea of which part will get shot off first! Hardly any way to go through life...Get your head out of your sand and your ass in the voting booth!! You're not registered, you say? Now how did that happen? Next time you say? One of these days there may not be a next time...In Arizona it is impossible to register between the primary and the general election (however constitutional that may be).so make a mental note, better yet, write it down: GET REGISTERED!!! You DO count and seldom more than in a ballot tally. BALLOT POWER IS SILENT POWER: now doesn't that sound like fun???

Check the Political Polls in gay publications, write your decisions on a sheet of paper, take that with you to your booth and:DO IT!!!

- ...What local would be celebrity will attempt on Saturday to entertain elegantly on unemployment checks and food stamps.
- ...Mary B., the daytime help, and Bob B. respectfully request that Sally get an answering service for both home and work.
- ...Roy C. gave the most in-elegantly served elegant dinner party every seen on the entire Northside Tuesday night.

UP FROM THE ASHES

THE PHOENIX BIRD

A seafaring cousin of mine flew into town the other night for a one-night visit. I am sure some of you have met or heard of him and admire Johnny as much as I do. A best-selling book was written about him and Neil Diamond wrote some of his very finest music in his honor. It was an inspirational experience to get to spend another evening with him, and my special thanks to the Sombrero Playhouse for bringing back once again the film biography of Jonathon Livingstone Seagull. If he comes around again in the future, my unequivocal advice is - do not miss!

BAR HOPPING: Deadline time for this column prohibits my covering any of the Halowe'en eve or Hallowe'en night activities. We shall assume that all went well, as ex-spook-ted. Miss Christi Lunden presided over holiday festivities last Saturday evening at Diamond Lil's, and she managed to do things to my feathers that no one else has succeeded in doing, all sealed with a kiss. Lee, on sound, was wearing a very fetching outfit that was about one-half inch this side of "decent" exposure, and sparkling in sequins. The show was very impromptu and entertaining, with much audience participation (and Christi-participation in the audience). What was originally billed as a one-(wo)man revue wound up involving the entire house, including me on my perch. Prize winners for costumes were Pearl (1st), Daniella (2nd), with third prize going to Gary for making a monk of himself. And a ghostly time was had by all. Only one question was left up in the air at closing: Christi love, did you ever make it back from that telephone in time to finish the champagne with Lee; or Lee, did you manage to get it down unaided? Thanks, gang, for an exhilarating evening. As earlier forecast, I let my fancy get the best of me and dropped by the Full Moon on Sunday afternoon to observe the pumpkin-carving contest. I saw about half a dozen lively creations come to completion and was only glad I had not been asked to judge, they were all that good and original (I picked up one good new idea for my own jack-o-lantern, which went on display at my nest on the witching eve. Congratulations, Melissa, for grabbing 1st place award in that contest. And many happy pumpkin pies! Check Talk of the Town this coming Sunday through Tuesday evenings, Nov. 5-6-7, for a special show featuring Bobbi Callicoatte in concert. There will be two shows nightly starting at 9:30.

The Ramrod's 7th Anniversary party last Sunday was a fabulous event. A near-capacity crowd enjoyed complimentary beer and food, plus frequent door prize drawings. Monte was up all night cooking the ham and turkey and trimmings, but looked as though he had not missed one bit of his beauty sleep. A number of out-of-towners were present. Houston sent us its own Wild Willie. And from Tucson came Dave, Polly, Mother

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is just a note to thank the person who lifted my wallet in the Toole Box last Thursday night. I had always wanted to get my every penny stolen right out from under me, and now I have.

You might as well keep the money, you obviously need it much more than I. After all I was only going to waste it by paying bills, buying food and providing shelter for myself. Your needs must be greater than mine.

Also, you not only possess every penny I had to my name, you also own every single piece of identification that I used to own. I hope you look a helluva lot like me and can sign my name in my handwriting so that you can use this I.D. in good health.

I do have one question though. Why did you chose me? What have I ever done to you? I just go along living each day, minding my own business (for the most part) wishing to do no harm to anyone, and yet you choose me to pick on. Why?

You might also be aware of another fact. Since I already have severe money problems, your good deed surely complicated things tremendously. Since I can't eat, pay the rent, or pay my bills, I have been asked to leave my place of residence, and I have no place to go to. You have complicated my life wonderfully.

In closing, let me say that people like you are the salt of the earth! I would surely like to meet you personally. What a good job you do in your efforts to make other peoples lives miserable. Bravo! But I will refrain from an encore, if you don't mind. Again, thank you for stealing me blind and making life interesting.

With love
Paul Breeding, Tucson

TO THE EDITOR:

Who does Councilman Richard Amlee think he is? It hasn't even been one month since conflict of interest charges were leveled against Amlee in his use of his City Council seat to influence contracts in his personal business firm. Now he is out organizing local churches to infringe upon the rights of law-abiding, tax-paying lesbians who merely want the right to assemble and have a workshop for themselves. I suggest he concentrate on the morality of his own actions!

I also think that the Tucson City Council could best spend our hard-earned tax dollars investigating these clearly obvious charges against Dick Amlee rather than quibbling over the rights of consenting adults. Please, use our money wisely. Thank you.

Sincerely
Gail Filipowicz, Tucson

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is a tear sheet from the Today/Sun weekly paper here in Phoenix. The author of the article on homosexuality is Fred Hervey, the owner of the paper, and also the owner of the parent company, Circle K convenience stores.

Because this article is, at the very least, discriminatory in nature, I am organizing a boycott of all the Fred Hervey enterprises. Your support and assistance of advice would be greatly appreciated.

I am Charles W. Hunt, Phoenix

ED NOTE: AGN has dispatched a letter to Mr. Hervey advising him of an impending boycott and asking for a clarification of his inflammatory statements like, "The very foundation of our family life structure will be under attack if we ever make the mistake of protecting homosexuals in our society." We will keep you informed, and rest assured, we will follow up on this one!

ELECTION TIME THIS TUESDAY - VOTE!!!

There are two gay cases being battled in Arizona at this time, both by ACLU attorneys.

The first involves a young man, tried and convicted as an adult, segregated because of his alleged homosexuality and deprived of opportunities to work and therefore earn early release.

The second case involves a man in the Army who confided in his doctor that he was a homosexual. The Army is requesting a less than honorable discharge.

Both cases are in process. The ACLU is one of our best defenders. As with all civil liberties groups, they are badly in need of members and funds. Contact your local ACLU Chapter and join - these people have been supporting us for a long time!

Also, some of you may be interested to know that another community action seminar is being planned for the first weekend in December. This one will be slightly different in format but will be more of the same fun, skill-sharing and loving learning. Many of you expressed regret at having missed the last one. If you think you might want to come, call me at 791-9418. We need at least 15 people with $10 each before we can arrange for a space.

DOING AMERICA WITH BOB DAMRON

SALT LAKE CITY

Salt Lake City was founded by Brigham Young and his band of Mormon followers in 1847. Among that group who crossed the country in covered wagons was my great-great-grandmother. That is how I came to be a Mormon, or member of the L.D.S. (Not to be confused with L.S.D.), the normal name for the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Saints. I shall never forget the day I was dunked under water and baptised. For months in advance I lived in mortal fear that I was going to be drowned.

The sagebrush laden desert where my pioneer ancestors settled is today a clean, attractive sprawling metropolis nestled in the foothills between the Rockies and the Great Salt Lake. With a population approaching half a million, it is the largest city and one of the best 'rest stops' between Denver and San Francisco.

I doubt that anything could possibly more screwed-up than the way Salt Lake City's streets are numbered, unless it is Utah's antiquated liquor laws. Many restaurants are 'dry' and very few serve cocktails. Some offer on-premises mini liquor stores, where you can purchase miniatures and order 'set ups' while still others permit you to BYOB or wine. Gay bars only sell beer, but you can 'brown bag' a bottle of your favorite hooch. Bars are open daily until 2 a.m. during Daylight Savings Time, but close at 1 a.m. the rest of the year.

Currently there are only five gay bars, but a couple of others may be opening soon. 'Hottest' by far with the boogie bunch is the Sun Tavern located at #1 South 400 West or 400 West South Temple, depending upon which way you decipher it. Any way, it is opposite the old Union Pacific Depot at W. South Temple and 4th St. (which used to be 3rd) When 'straights' invaded, owner Joe Redburn installed a big sign which reads "The Sun Tavern was built for the gay community. Lets keep it that way". Hooray for Joe, who is also running for a seat in the state legislature.

The Comeback at 551 So. 300 West (3rd St.) has weekend-shows, Sunday brunches and Wednesday night spaghetti feeds. Diesel dikes frequent the Uptown Lounge, next to the 'Sun', and believe me, guys are not welcome. The Rail at 363 West South Temple is a small cruise bar, but rumor hazzit maybe changing names to Crazy Pete's. The oldest bar in town is the Radio City on South State St. whose clientele include sometimes interesting downtown types.

Jeff's Gym is just a name for Club Baths, which can best be described as mediocre. For books and things try the Waking Owl at 1260 East 4th St. South.

The Village Idiot is a 'head' shop on So. State St. Liberty Park is notorious, but street cruising can be dangerous. A former congressman, city official and popular comedian can all attest to this.

I stay at the Hilton Inn, and for 'straight' dining, I recommend the Balsam Embers, Heather, La Fleur de Lys, Log Haven, Print Shop, and Roof Restaurant atop the Hotel Utah. The Royal Pallace and Ristoranti Della Fontana are unique in that they are housed in converted churches, not Mormon of course. Points of interest include the Mormon Temple and Tabernacle, State Capitol, University of Utah, Salt Palace, Trolley Square and nearby Ski resorts.

But above all is the Mormon Church which dominates most commerce, industry, government and philosophy throughout the state. My mother still recalls a childhood 'crush' she had for Spencer Kimball, now president and spiritual head of the five million worldwide Mormons. The news media reported recently that Kimball had a 'talk' with God and Blacks can now be ordained into the Church. No such luck for homosexuals, who are still taboo. It was this sort of hypocrisy which led me to 'drop out' of the Church in my early teens.

Last but not least, and this pretty well sums up Utah, the Donnie & Marie Osmond show is filmed here. Presumably they are better Mormons than I am? (For more detailed information, pick up a copy of the BOB DAMRON ADDRESS BOOK 1979 --America's foremost travel guide--available at most better bars, baths, and book stores throughout America. Or, send $7.00 for your copy (which includes packing and shipping) to BOB DAMRON ENTERPRISES, INC., P.O. Box 14-077, San Francisco, CA 94114).

Johnny, Eddie and Doc, among others. All visitors, as well as some locals, were sentenced to do time behind the bar, in connection with which a new Ramrod record was made - Polly was the first female (real one) to ever work behind the bar in its 7-year history! Scott, and a number of others, won Rolls Royces as door prizes, but were unable to drive them home. Hal won a poolstick/cane and proceeded to lose his tip. By now, we hope, he has recovered it and screwed it back on. Ronn Trash found out that kerchiefs can be easily lost from rear pockets. Tucson's John lost his shorts to the Ramrod. We had a nice new international visitor, Eric from Amsterdam, who is stopping through Phoenix for a few days. Welcome, young man! Regular tenders Ron and Darryl were never loverlier in their special costumes for the occasion. The evening was topped off by champagne provided by the house and a bit of a hassle over whether the bar was there because of the patrons or the patrons there because of the bar. Sort of like the chicken and the egg! Thanks Monte, Mike and all for a great time. My run pin collection runneth over!

Well, it is time to get down to politics. I tried to run for a seat in the legislature once, but my party turned my bid down. They said that the kind of bills I knew anything about were not the kind of bills dealt with by the legislature. I felt very beaked after that put-down! At any rate, next Tuesday is the day to get out and be an American. Vote your conscience for whatever you believe, simply do it! If you need a ride, give me a call. I still have some sitting space left on my right wing!

Happy Birthday to you, Happy Birthday to you, Happy Birthday Dear Dahlinks Happy Birthday to you, and you, and you, and you, and you, and you, and you too!

♐ Sagittarius: November 23 to December 21

Things are blooming all over and its definetly not even spring. So what! your time is now and you may as well take advantage of it.

♑ Capricorn: December 22 to January 19

If its raining rain on Sunday it will be a Cold Winter for you. If not, look out for an Early Spring. Things depend alot on YOU.

♒ Aquarius: January 20 to February 18

Pennies from Heaven are falling your way this week. Its too bad that they're not Quarters and be glad that they're not falling on you.

♓ Pisces: February 19 to March 20

The Stars predict that they will be out this week and also that they will be be shooting at you. Not Aiming, just shooting.

♈ Aries: March 21 to April 19

Aries, Love Of My Life, please tell me, when will you come back to me? I've been good, I know I have, So When? Tell me when.

♉ Taurus: April 20 to May 20

And as for you. I think that it will be O.K. just don't read anything for the time being and everyone will be where they belong - Out Front.

♊ Gemini: May 21 to June 20

- #1 Be careful, don't spread germs, run at least 500 miles a day.
- #2 Do it now, breathe heavy, sit on your tookas.

♋ CANCER: June 21 to July 22

You know that you're contagious don't you? The be thing to do is keep yourself in view of everyone, and you're bond to be discovered.

♌ Leo: July 23 to August 22

The Lion is loose and Rumor Has It - so are you. But you know that I don't spread nasty lies. So, the lion is loose and you're free.

♍ Virgo: August 23 to September 22

Virgin - Hah! Don't try to pull that over on me. Somebody else might fall for it, but not anybody that can read.
