

SM 7317

The Five-Step

Words by B.G. DE SYLVA
and LEW BROWN

Music by RAY HENDERSON

Moderato

Piano

mf marcato

Ukulele

G C E A

Gone are the days of the "one-step" And of the "two-step" Here is a new step; Hop on it!
This is the new "hit - and - run" step, "Eat-em - a - live" step,

And it's the "FIVE-STEP."

You know the

"black - bot-tom"

sure got 'em,

But it had- to let go,

Cake - eat-ers;

Time - beat-ers,

Here's the dance to know:

Refrain Lively

One, there it is,

One, two, there it is,

One, two, three, can't you see where the mer-it is? One, two, three, four, ev'-ry-where it is

One, two, three, four, FIVE STEP! One, got to learn, One, two, got to learn,

One, two, three, there is not such a lot to learn, One, two, three, four,

Aren't you hot to learn, One, two, three, four, FIVE-STEP? I've got the shoes, you've got the shoes, All God's chil - 'en with shoes can do it. I've got the tune, you've got the tune; If you can count, there's noth-ing to it! One, heat it up!

One, two, heat it up! One, two, three, she and he soon -'ll beat it up; One, two, three, four,

How they eat it up, One, two, three, four, FIVE-STEP! FIVE-STEP!