

"Mi Amado"

Words by LEWIS & YOUNG

Music by HARRY WARREN

Moderato

Piano

mf

rit

Ukulele
E♭E♭GC

p

Ev-ry lit-tle heart is wrapped a - round A quaint lit-tle love song,—

p ben cantando
a tempo.

A song of bliss, — a song of bliss!

But my lone-ly heart went out and found Its own lit-tle love - song;—

mf

Copyright 1928 by Famous Music Corporation

Harms Inc. Sole Selling Agent

dim.

— It goes like this, — it goes like this: —

dim.

Refrain

Rubato (Slowly like a Spanish serenade)

My be-lov-ed of the moun-tains, — You are mighty as the moun-tains —

P con molto espress.

— So I, whis-per to you ten-der-ly: "I need you, Mi Ama-do." — You have eyes that shame the sun-beams,

— With the fi - re of the sun - beams, — So I whis - per to you ten - der - ly: "I want you, Mi A - ma - do."

— Just like the dawn - ing meets the morn - ing — And wakes the world up with a mf piu espr.

song; — At a glance you seemed to make My lone - ly heart a - poco rit. a tempo.

-wake the day you came a - long. Give me kiss-es dipped in poco rit. Pa tempo.

moon - light 'Mid the ro - mance of the moon - light

— While I whis - per to you ten - der - ly: "I love you, Mi A - ma - do?" My be - lov - ed of the - ma - do?"

p sf