NOVELTY FOX-TROT SONG

By JOE DAVIS &
HOWARD JOHNSON

Piano

Vamp

Folks I know a Clear the track a - night-club where there's a won-der-ful band. Nights down at this night club head folks, 'cause they're be-gin-nin-g to play; Lis - ten what I said folks, they play a mel-o - dy grand. They get hot and hot-ter, till they're all a - come on get out of the way; Hear that band choo choo-in', hear that en - gine flame. When you hear that dit-ty, You will know it's name:

puff, New shoes you will ru-in, When they do their stuff:

Chorus (in strict tempo)

Blow-in' off steam, They call it Blow-in' off steam, That band is cer-tain-ly mean, I'm here to say. ————— Get the trom-bone,

Just hear that sax-o-phone moan, This new in-ven-tion at-tent-ion, it

"MY HAWAIIAN SERENADE"

A Beautiful Hawaiian Waltz Song

sounds just like an en-gine Blow-in' off steam, hear that old clar-i-net scream, they'll wake you out of a dream, the way they play.

Talk a-bout heat, they're boil-ing ev-'ry-one's feet. need oil-ing, like a ma-chine, Blow - in' those horns, no stop-pin', ev-'ry-one's corns, are pop-pin', gee but I'm keen,

just blow - in' off steam. 1
 for blow - in' off steam. 2
