VOICE

... And now the purple dusk of twi-light time Steals a-cross the meadows of my heart,

High up in the sky the lit-tle stars climb, Al-ways re-mind-ing me that we're a - part.

You wandered down the lane and fara-way, Leav-ing me a song that will not die,

Love is now the star dust of yes-ter-day, The mus-ic of the years gone by. —

Some-times I won-der why I spend the lone-ly night Dream-ing of a song? The mel-o - dy haunts my re-ve-rie, And I am once a-gain with you, — When our love was new, and each kiss an in-spir - a - tion, — But that was long a-go: now my con-so-la - tion is in the star dust of a song. Be-side a gar-den wall, when stars are bright, You are in my arms, The nightingale tells his fair-y tale of pa-ra-dise, where roses grew. — Tho' I dream in vain, — In my heart it will remain: My star dust melody, — The memory of love's re-frain. Sometimes I - frain.
