Forty-First Annual Commencement

An Interesting Program Arranged; Address By President Matthews

The Annual Alumni banquet, given in honor of the Faculty and graduating class, will be held this evening, Tuesday, May 29. The group will assemble on the Matthews lawn at 6:45, and from there will proceed to the dining hall for the banquet.

An interesting program has been arranged, at which Mrs. H. C. Lockett, '01, of Phoenix, will preside. The numbers are as follows:

Welcome to Alumni—John Barry, President of Association.

Address to Alumni—Dr. A. J. Matthews.

Boys' Quartet, "Po Little Lamb," "Tim Rooney's At the Fightin'"; Jesse Hayes, '28; John Hinshaw, '29; Claude Michea, '28; Virgil Pyle, '28.

Welcome into Association, degree class and regular class.

Responses—Glen Sorenson, President of degree class; Virginia Hatch, President of Normal Senior class.

Flute Solo—Kenneth Clark, '26. Entertainment Number—Virgie Harris, '28; Katherine Wilweber, '28.

Introduction of new officers.

At the annual business meeting of the Alumni Association, held on May 23, the following officers were elected:

President—John Sandige, '14. Vice-President—Ray Alexander, '03. Directors—Mrs. L. C. Austin, Miss Josephine Frankenburg.

It is expected that there will be guests from all parts of the State, as this banquet is the big affair of the year. The Alumni members, especially those who have previously attended Mr. Krause's banquets, are anxious to come back again.

At 9:00 o'clock a dance will be given in the gymnasium. The music will be furnished by Johnny Riggs' orchestra.

Noted European Geographer To Visit Arizona

In a letter from Dr. Albrecht Penck to Mr. Hoover, he recalls the very pleasant visit to Tempe last spring. Dr. Penck is the most renowned of European geographers. Last May he was for several days the guest of the Geography Department of the college and the personal guest of the Hoovers. He is returning to the United States this summer to offer a course of lectures in the University of California. Dr. Penck and Mr. Hoover plan to meet at Flagstaff in August and may visit the Grand Canyon together.

Dr. Penck was the guest and speaker for the Geographic Society in their last meeting of last Spring.

Annual Staff

During the past week the remainder of the Sahuaro staff for 1929 has been appointed by the editor-in-chief, with the help of faculty members in the English department. The complete staff is as follows:

Editor-in-chief—Nadine Larimer. Assistant Editor—Zola Staples. Business Manager—Retha Bolding. Assistant Business Manager—Paul Chadwick.

Society Editor—Irma Copperthwaite. Literary Editor—Marguerite Parker.

LEAVE ALBUM TO COLLEGE TO BECOME A TRADITION.

Instead of leaving a picture of the Senior class for the school, the class of '28 decided, at a recent class meeting, on Friday, May 25, to leave a picture album. There are several reasons for this change, the main one being that hanging space is becoming limited. It has become the custom of many of the larger colleges to leave class picture albums, and it is hoped that the future graduating classes of the Tempe College will do the same.

Senior Day

For some time it has been the custom at the Tempe College to have the "Flag Rush" on Senior Day, which takes place between the Freshmen and the Senior boys. This year a "Tie Up" between the two classes has been substituted. The event was scheduled for Monday, May 28, at 5:00 o'clock.

Another Senior Day event was the Senior "Farewell Walk." The procession, led by Mr. F. M. Irish, left the dining hall at 6:30, and walked to the new Gymnasium. Here Coach McCreary gave a short talk. The next stop was made at the College Farm, where Mr. Ostrander addressed the group. From the farm they walked through the campus and stopped at the Industrial Building. Mr. Fairbanks was the main speaker at this stop. At the fountain, Mr. Irish gave the last talk of the evening, before the procession disbanded.

After disbanding, the Seniors met on the Matthews lawn for a short, enjoyable program.

The annual event of the evening was the "Lanaern Walk." Both the Freshmen and the Seniors took part in this event. The students marched from the campus to the Butte with their torches, where they formed the number of their graduating year, the Seniors 28 and the Freshmen 29.

FOND REMEMBRANCES

The Macs—Out Alpha Hall way. To Mac—"Do you act toward your wife as you did before you married her?"

Mac—"Exactly. I remember how I used to act when I first fell in love with her. I used to lean over the fence in front of her house and gaze at her shadow on the curtain, same way now."

Ed—"How do you like my new shoes?" Tommy—"They look great."

Bulldogs Ring Down Curtain On Glorious Athletic Year Of Four Big Major Sports

TWO MORE CHAMPIONSHIPS GAINED

The termination of this school year brought to a close a very brilliant athletic year in football, basketball, track, and baseball, from the standpoint of the number of victories won and also from the number of championships garnered.

Starting the football season with prospects dim, due to the fact that only a few veterans were left to serve as a nucleus for a strong eleven, while the majority of the squad consisted of a host of green material, Coach McCreary succeeded, by the dint of hard practice and perseverance, to round out a team that made the fans sit up and take notice, instead of carrying on a losing pace, as expected. The team at the initial part of the season, playing as individuals and not as a unit, lost their first few games, but in their game with Gila College first brought out the fact that they were mastering the rudiments of co-ordination and winning football. Then on Homecoming Day, with the highly touted Junior College Bears as their opponents, they proceeded to administer to the Bears a 47 to 0 trouncing that completely upset the dope bucket of the Informal Conference, and established themselves as one of the strongest elevens in Arizona.

The lettermen lost by graduation or otherwise this year are Joe Smith, James Barney, Charles Thompson, Bob Mullen, John Goodwin, Harry Guthrie, Ed Carr and Lawrence Terrill. Johnnie Riggs is Captain-elect for next year, and the gridiron warriors that are expected to return and help him keep up the standard of this year are Dick Grasmoen, McCarty, Sutter, Griffith, Goddard, Caywood, Dana, Willard and "Kike" Allen.

In basketball, the team, despite numerous casualties that left the combination weak at times, managed to come through and annex the State Informal championship. Vihel was hampered with a bad knee, Grasmoen with an ailing ankle, while Dick was a patient on the sick list, yet the five finished the season by winning two out of three games with Flagstaff, and one out of four with the

COLLEGE SENIORS ARE ENTERTAINED

On Monday evening, May 21, Miss Sadie Goodwin entertained the members of the College Senior class and their monitors, Mr. Irish and Mr. Blackburn, at her home on Eighth street. After a delicious chicken pie supper, the party attended the dance given by the Freshmen.

Miss Birky Leaves To Return Next Year

Miss Clary Birky, Y. W. C. A. Secretary of the Tempe State Teachers College, left Wednesday morning, May 23, for her home in Bloomington, Illinois. She expects to attend Commencement week at Bluffton College, Ohio, of which she is a graduate. Miss Birky will return to Tempe when school opens next fall.

The old Y. W. Cabinet was entertained Sunday afternoon, May 13, by Ilene Joyce at her home. As this was the last meeting of the group, they discussed many problems, but the most important was the forming of an Alumnae Y. W. Association. Rae Bogart was elected president. Ilene Joyce alumni secretary and Beulah Ratcliff will act as librarian during the coming year. They also made some plans for the association. The girls all enjoyed the afternoon very much, and a lovely supper was served.

Members of the new cabinet are planning on coming back early next fall in order to help the Freshmen register, and get acquainted with dormitory life.

A large number of girls attended the last "Y" meeting, which was a Commitment Service. Rachael Bogart, the retiring president, and Mary Root, president for next year, both gave fitting talks for the occasion. Miss Birky then gave a farewell address and the girls sang "Follow the Gleam" as the meeting adjourned.

SAHUARO FLOWER ANNOUNCED

At a special assembly, held in the auditorium, Monday of this week, the Sahuaro flower for 1928 was announced. Miss Zella Hoenshell, a member of the freshman class was chosen. The choice was made from a group of six pictures presented to the Fox Film Company of California. Mr. Borzagi, director for that company, and director of the play Seventh Heaven did the selecting. That the job was not an easy one, was generally understood by everyone, however, we believe that he has selected a Flower for 1928 that is worthy of the honor given.

The last meeting of the Geographic Society fulfilled the tradition established for this meeting. It was held on the Hoover lawn, illuminated for the occasion, last Friday evening, May 17.

The special guest of the occasion was Dr. Nils Horner, of the Swedish Geological Survey. The meeting was a semi-formal gathering, partly social in character. Dr. Horner spoke informally, telling the story of Sweden from the Ice Age through prehistoric man to the present day important economic and social developments, stressing the modern hydro-electric improvements. For the rest of the evening Dr. Horner was kept busy answering the varied questions of the Geographics. At the similar meeting last year the society had as its guests Dr. Albrecht Penck of the University of Berlin, the most noted of European geographers, and his assistant, Dr. Albrecht Hausofer.

The other occasion of the meeting was the installation of the new officers. Mrs. Stafford, the retiring president, reviewed some of the history and achievements of the society, after which she transferred the duties and responsibilities of her office to Mr. Harold Nichols, who was formally received as leader of the society by the monitor, Mr. Hoover. Mr. Nichols then took charge and the other new officers were installed. The new president in assuming his office spoke of the splendid character and work of the Geographic Society and what it was doing for its members.

The society was pleased to have also as a guest, Miss Pattie Avery of Phoenix, who remains a most loyal Geographic.

Freshman Class Give Party

FRESHMAN CLASS GIVE PARTY

No longer can the high and mighty Senior look down from his lofty throne, scorning the Freshman and taunting him with cries of "cheap skate"—"tightwad." Witness, if you please, the entertainment the Freshman class gave for the upper classmen last Monday afternoon.

From 4 o'clock until 6, Tempe Beach was crowded with the merry-making Collegians. After dinner in the dining hall, a big dance was held in the old gymnasium. The dancing ended about 9:30, and somewhat the worse for various and sundry Eskimo pies they had consumed, everyone went home.

Anyway, it was a good party, and we won't forget it for a long while. Fifteen rahs for everybody!

Freshman Election

At the last Freshman class meeting officers were nominated for next year. The election was held on May 16 and the following officers were elected:

John Hinshaw—President. William Windes—Vice-President. Catherine Weaver—Secretary. Farrel Dana—Treasurer.

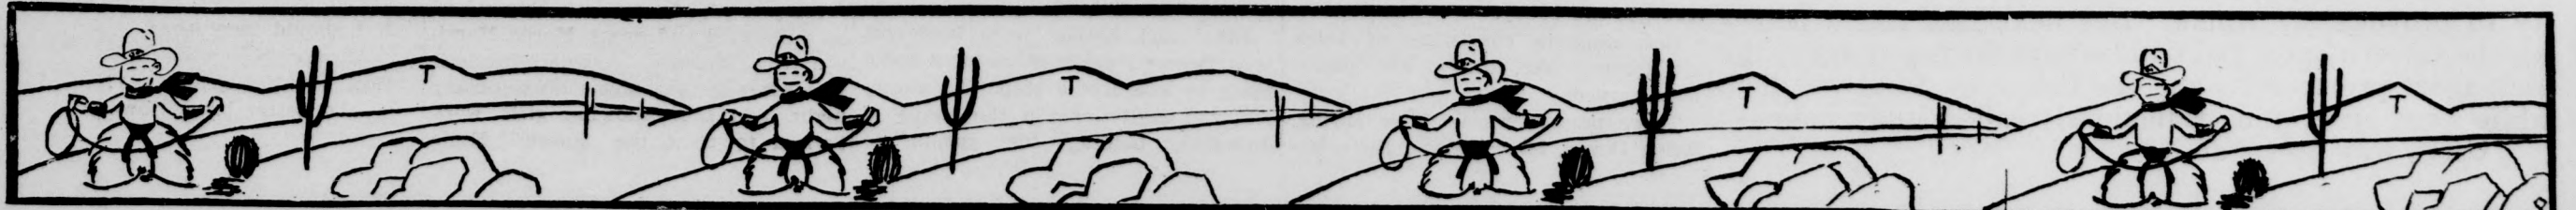

During the past year the work of the Secretary and Treasurer has been done by one person, but due to the responsibility of the positions, they were elected separately for next year. Other nominees for the offices were:

President—Frank Blazina, Lessie Raye Vickers. Vice-President—William Windes, Frances Bennett, Dorothy Loomis.

Secretary—Wylie Wentworth. Treasurer—Elizabeth Jones, Caroline Contreras, Adolph Kauzalrich.

A committee appointed by the President purchased a gift for Miss Caulder, as a remembrance from the Freshman class. Miss Caulder directed the Freshman class play, which was appreciated very much.

Entered at the Tempe, Arizona, Post Office as second-class matter.

"ANYTHING WORTH HAVING IS WORTH WAITING FOR"

The school year closes, and we are about to go our separate ways. But it is not ours to forget these past nine months of fullness—not for some time to come.

Instead, the powerful hand of circumstance is bringing us an echo—a rich, full-toned echo of the many voices we have come to love and cherish during the past two years.

So, get your ears to the ground! The postman is coming—with a Sahuaro '28 in his kit!

Worth waiting for? Consider these things, and wait eagerly for thy mail: A book seasoned throughout with ideal expression of the pioneer theme, all from the talented hands of the class of '28; a book containing a three-color reproduction of an original painting by one of our class; an athletic section which we dare to offer as the best yet entered in a Sahuaro, in honest attempt to do justice to the supremacy of Tempe in sports this year; a Campus Beauty and a Campus Queen page, not to mention a girls' and boys' special page, that are masterpieces from the hand of our staff artist, Beth Carter; and last in the book, but far from least in its value, a wonderful collection of snapshots which you will thumb over for years to come with many a chuckle of memory.

Here is a book produced by a staff happily free from petty squabbling and hard feelings, a book the burden of which was not shouldered by any one or two individuals, and turned out under the severe handicap of Spring Vacation for concentrated work, and consequent shortening of the year. The staff has done its best, and failed by some ten days to get its masterpiece into your hands before the close of school. But—only in this has it failed.

We can think of nothing sweeter to leave ringing in your ears, than the admonition of a true faculty friend and advisor. Miss Blair says, "Anything worth having is worth waiting for!"

NEXT YEAR

Do you remember, way back last September, Freshies, when you came over to Tempe for the first time? Do you remember that first week when you felt the greenness just oozing out all over? And—do you remember the friendly hellos that the lordly Seniors gave you?

This is one of the few colleges where the upper classmen really try to be cordial to the newcomers. The cheerful hello is not only a custom—it is almost a tradition. Next year let's carry on! If we see a poor, little, innocent, trusting Freshman carrying a huge load of books around, let's swallow our superiority, forget how comical such a situation is, and smile in a friendly sort of way.

SEPTEMBER TO JUNE

Has this been a long year? Don't say anything too forcefully, because the more you have done the shorter it's seemed, and the less—well! Are you beginning to say already that next year you are going to keep and avoid at the end? We shall see! We shall see!

But when all is said that can be said, and a little more, has it been such a bad year? Has the freedom been too great for a modern young thing to stand? It seems to me that the Seniors have done their bit in grand style. Wasn't that a good Lyceum Course? And the Follies, they are so near that we don't have to rake the past to remember. Oh, there have been some good times!

THE CATERIE—CLOSED FOR THE SUMMER

The rooms are all cleaned, the pennants down, the picture of him packed. There will be no future calls for catting here, during the summer, for there won't be anyone's new or old clothes to criticize, anyone's grades to prove the unfairness of all instructors, anyone's popularity to provoke sly winks. But next fall, the windows will be thrown open, the trunks unpacked, and again the kick-apart promenades and the fish story feasts will help while away an evening ridiculously called study hour.

Girls, why do we do it?

Dormitory News

NORTH HALL NOTES

Election of Officers
 Hall officers for the coming year were elected last Monday evening at a house meeting. Those chosen were Wylie Wentworth, President; Margaret Stewart, Vice-President, and Emma Higgins, Secretary-Treasurer.

Many Have Positions
 A number of the Seniors of North Hall already have teaching positions for next year. Imogen Hoffman will teach in Williams; Eleanore Glinnie, Walker; Ruby Skaggs, Sonoita; Elsie Gates and Hazel Henderson, Globe; Lavora Miller, Eleanore Sears, Nellie and Edna Graham, Miami; Lela Roach and Dorothy Jantzen, Peoria; Elizabeth Adams, Scottsdale; Florence Morris, Hayden, and Mrs. Wickman, Yuma.

Plan to Enter "U"
 Alice Knowles and Alice Ryan, both Seniors, plan to enter the U. of A. next term.

Guests
 Alice Wilkins has had her sister Joy as her gueste for a number of days.

To Enter Junior College
 Mary Lewis will attend the Junior College at Fullerton, California, next year.

To Spend Summer
 Mary Weddington will spend the summer at her home in Oklahoma. Mary intends to be back with us next year as a College Junior.

Hazel Henderson, whose home has been in Globe, will live in Tucson for the summer.

EAST HALL NEWS

Once more we hear the rapping of hammers and the banging of trunks, and once more our house mother, Mrs. Waite, is gathering her flock together to shoo them to all the various directions to their homes. Some for only three months, but others, perhaps, for always.

We've had a wonderful year together, and East Hall has surely been our home—we've had all Eddie Guest said: "It takes a heap o' livin' in a house to make a home," tears, laughs and everything.

Election of Officers
 At our last house meeting we were mighty glad we have such a dandy group of freshies to carry on.

The following officers were elected: Dorothy Cochran, president; Lessie Raye Vickers, vice-president; Elizabeth Roark, secretary-treasurer.

Parties
 Elizabeth Fisher celebrated her birthday in room 50, by having a group of her friends in.

Wilma Ham celebrated in honor of her roommate, Mary Hickox by giving a buffet supper. Judging from sounds and smells a good time was enjoyed by all.

After the president reception Virginia Wilkerson entertained her "gang" with upside-down cake garnished with ice cream.

But perhaps the largest party of them all was the birthday surprise party Emma Warren and Irma Cowperthwaite had for Grace Brownlee.

The tallies were college caps, and the score pads were hidden within dear little diplomas tied with our school colors and sealed and signed by the official heads.

Everyone enjoyed bridge for awhile, especially Wilma Ewing who captured first prize, and Margaret F. who got the booby.

Refreshments consisting of brick ice cream, cake, candy, and punch were served.

Those present were Wilma Ewing, Helen Dovey, Ione Hodges, Elsie Mc-

Creary, Virginia Wilkinson, Catherine Weaver, Margaret and Delia Finerty, Alice Beck, Marion Doyle, Marie Nordstrom, Lura Parker, Wilma Kach, Hazle Roberts, Elizabeth Fisher, Grace Brownlee, Emma Warren, and Irma Cowperthwaite.

Everyone seems to be waiting for something or someone. It may be our parnts, a diploma, a test, a car, a trunk, a ticket, some money, or most anything, but the hall has a regular epidemic. The most popular thing seems to be our folks. We expect quite a few this year, and then we all depart.

Goodbye dear T. S. T. C. we're backing you always.

MATTHEWS HALL NOTES

Home for Week-End
 Kathleen McNelly spent an enjoyable week-end at home in Globe.

In Casa Grande
 Lillian O'Conner went to Casa Grande to spend Saturday and Sunday.

Home Again
 Two girls are already homeward bound, glad to get home and sorry to leave others behind. They are Geneva Sellers, who goes to Bisbee, and Lugarda Ortiz, whose home is in Tucson.

Farewell Supper
 Misses Helen Clark and Marna Simms were hostesses at a farewell supper given in honor of Sophia Jo and Bee Felton. The Indian motif was used in decorations and place cards. The outstanding event of the evening was a very intricate treasure hunt, followed by bridge. The guests were Sophia Jo, Bee, Helen K., Wilma Ham, Mona, Hildegard and the hostess.

Farewell Party
 Sophia gave a farewell party for Miss Birky. Those present were Miss Birky, Rae, Grace, Helen, Marna and Sophia.

Bridge Party
 An interesting bridge party was given by Maria. The motif of decoration and edibles was animal crackers. Those partaking were Mary Collins, Mona, Ethelyn, Hildegard and Maria.

Visits Hall
 A former roommate of Betty stopped in to see her. She was Edith Curtis, better known as "Sally" Bartell.

Home
 Mary Humphries spent the 12th and 13th at home in Prescott. She had as her guest Marguerite P.

Visits Daughters
 Mrs. A. R. D'Arcy of Jerome has been visiting her daughter Genevieve.

Visits "Billie"
 Clara Peterson, who teaches in Superior, was here to see Billie.

Hall of Fame
 Matthews Hall is very proud of Cecile Ewing, who was presented in a recital last Friday. Cecile is well known for her excellent readings, and is in demand everywhere.

Louise Gibbs Visits
 Louise Gibbs of Class of '27, and former Matthews Hall girl, was here with her mother, visiting.

Election of Officers
 Matthews Hall had election of officers at the last house meeting. Those who will pilot the good ship are:

Helen Kincaid—President.
 Allene Lowery—Vice-President.
 Marguerite Parker—Secretary and Treasurer.

Ship Party
 Ethel and Esther were hostesses at a farewell party given in a room made to look like a ship. The guests received invitations in the shape of diplomas, bidding the guests to board the ship "Homeward Bound." Each guest was to dress as someone else, and act as much like the person as possible. This made the evening very enjoyable, and laughter reigned the whole time. Those present were:

Mary H. as Ethel.
 Iola as Virginia D.
 Ethel as Ida.
 Ida as Wanita.
 Wanita as Peggy Louise.
 Genevieve as Ernestine.
 Ernestine as Cecile.
 Cecile as Mary.
 Virginia as Esther.
 Esther as Genevieve.
 Peggy as Billie.
 Billie as Iola.
 Herma Douglas as Mrs. Hurst.

Spaghetti Dinner
 Minnie H., Jo Wilson, Verdell, Emilia and Velma Anderson were guests of Sis Iben at a spaghetti dinner.

Week-End in Mesa
 Minnie and Jo spent the week-end with Velma Anderson in Mesa.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Curnow will be here to take Ethel and Edith home.

Homeward Bound
 Matthews Hall is a scene of wild confusion, with trunks open, drawers overturned, and girls buried in all their belongings, trying to assort them and be systematic. Here and there girls scurry, asking one another for mislaid articles, but invariably finding them where they last had them. Many wailings are heard because there is not enough room for their newly acquired possessions.

The hall is a scene of great activity now, but soon this will cease and Matthews Hall will be quiet and bare, a very edifice of silence.

All the girls will be scattering everywhere, happy and busy. Some will return in the fall, to live together through next winter, while there are those who are now on their road of life.

No matter what the future plans, a happy memory will live of Matthews Hall, the girls and Mrs. Hurst.

SOUTH HALL NEWS

Enjoy Feed
 Dorothy Abbot, Ardis Larison, Mabel Junker, Ellen Skinner, and Tekla Lefler enjoyed a lovely feed together on Friday night.

Visits Hall
 Mr. Edgar from Needles, California, was a visitor at South Hall to see his daughters, Sarah Edgar and Mary Golden.

Esther Hinshaw left on Friday night for her home in Yuma.

To Yuma
 Edna Pederson spent the week-end in Phoenix as the guest of Ruth Bowles.

From Snowflake
 Merle Karchner had as visitor's this week-end her mother, brother, sister, and cousin from Snowflake.

More Guests
 Avilia Barnett spent the week-end in Phoenix visiting friends.
 Miss Helen Nolan of Florence, who was a former student here, will be a guest of the Philomathians Tuesday. Her sister, Marguerite Nolan will accompany her, to be the guest of Sarah Edgar.

Seniors Leave
 We are sorry to lose our Senior members from this hall, but most of the other girls will be back with us next year.

Week-End Guest
 Mary Golden and Sarah Edgar had as their week-end guest, Merna Harrison from Phoenix. A delightful feed was given in her honor on Saturday night, and the following girls were invited to meet the guest: Essie

Nunn, Fern Foltz, Mary Halterman, Mary Root, Ellen Burke and the hostesses.

Helen Reader and Dorothy Abbott spent the week-end in Tucson.

Guest of Club
 Mary Halterman spent Saturday at Miami as a guest of the Physiography club of the Phoenix High School. The club visited the Inspiration mine and the smelter.

Surprise Feed
 A surprise feed was recently given for Essie Nunn, a graduating senior in South Hall.

Visits Mary
 Esther Hinshaw spent Sunday, May 20, with Mary Halterman at her home.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE DEGREE CLASS OF 1928

I, Glenn Sorenson, leave my ability to get along with the fair sex to C. Chatham.

I, Miriam Stafford, leave my ability to S. A. to Charles LaDue.

I, Wess Jones, leave my unusual Sex Appeal to Runt Goddard.

I, Joe Smith, leave my gripiness to Johnny Riggs and Ed Grasmoen.

I, Sadie Alexander, leave my ability to swear and tell jokes to Ernestine Evans.

I, K. Fogal, leave my "life on the campus" to Margaret Carr.

I, P. O. Thomson, leave my walk and talk to Collins.

I, James Barney, leave my sack holding ability to Monk Windes.

I, Carmelita Hardin, leave my passionate love making ability to Margerite Parker.

I, Gertrude Boldman, leave my boisterous ways to Roy Windsor.

I, Estelle Bronish, leave my Major Hoopie ways to Wilbur Sutter.

I, Kenneth Clark, leave my air of importance to some other Jackass.

(Signed) CLASS OF '28.

WILL IT COME TO THIS?

"What's your name?"

"McCreary."

"Where do you work, Mr. McCreary?"

"I'm with the State Teachers College."

"Been there very long?"

"About fifteen years."

"What's your salary now?"

"Twenty-five a week."

"Own your own home?"

"Only 239 more payments."

"Where do you bank, Mr. McCreary?"

"At the Tempe National."

"How much have you got there?"

"Lemme see—$27.18 the first of this month."

"Family?"

"Yeah, Wife."

"Well, I guess that'll be all. Now, Mr. McCreary, how much do you want to pay down on this package of chewing gum?"

THE SAGACIOUS LOVER

When we two parted

In anger and tears,

Half broken-hearted

To sever for years,

Dazed by our sorrow,

We failed to recall

We'll meet tomorrow

At somebody's ball.

Too quickly we spoke;

Said good-bye for too long,

Now time has its joke,

And we're both in the wrong.

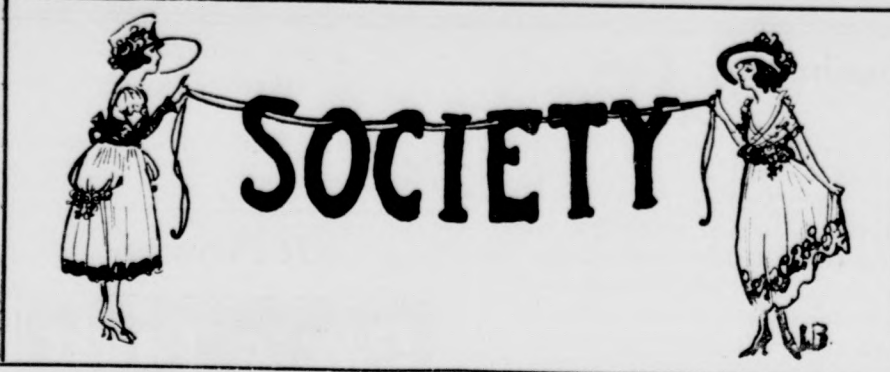

If I should meet thee,

After eight hours,

How should I greet thee?

—I'd better bring flowers.

—Life.

PIERIAN NOTES

At a meeting held on May 8th, in North Hall, the following officers were elected to carry on the work for next year:

President—Elizabeth Roark.
 Vice-President—Helen Kincaid.
 Secretary—Vesta Foster.
 Treasurer—Juanita JoJilly.
 Program Chairman—Sally Stryker.
 The next meeting was certainly a damp one. The reason for such an unusual proceeding was that the Senior members entertained the Freshmen at a swimming party. After several high dives and various duckings, the fair maidens made their exit and spent quite a time in partaking of fruit salad, sandwiches and cake. The evening was full of fun, but still was rather sad for some, to know that it is almost time for leaving all the crowd. Anyway, next year the Alumni members will expect to hear a great deal from the various persons taking part in other activities on the campus, namely, Helen Kincaid, President of Hiking Club and Matthews Hall; Elizabeth Roark, Vice-President of Hiking Club and Secretary-Treasurer of East Hall; Dorothy Lockrane, President of East Hall, and Evelyn Frances, Secretary of South Hall; Sally Stryker, Associate Editor of Collegian, and Vesta Foster, Society Editor of Collegian.

LAMBDA KAPPA SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE MONTH

The L. K.'s spent a very enjoyable evening at the McLain home west of Tempe. A short business meeting was held and the election of new officers took place. The officers are as follows:

President—Elizabeth Jones.
 Vice-President—Bertha Mae Walters.

Secretary—Florence McLain.
 Treasurer—Ora McGirk.

After the business meeting everyone added something toward a program and many songs and jokes were enjoyed, while delicious refreshments were served by our hostesses, Florence and Elizabeth.

Swimming, eating, laughing and talking—all these were present at the jolly meeting of the K. K.'s and L. K.'s. The K. K.'s entertained the Lambda Kappa Society at the "Tempe Beach" and later at the Casa Vieja. A picnic supper followed by a clever program made the time fly by only too soon.

Another interesting and delightful affair was the Phi Beta Society breakfast, given at the Casa Vieja. The members of the Lambda Kappa Society were guests at this beautifully served breakfast.

The last meeting of the Lambda Kappa Society was held in East Hall parlors. The formal invitation was first on the program. The new pledges taken into the society were: Wilma Koch, Thelma Fane, Ora McGirk, Elizabeth McLain, Mary Lewis, and Marjorie McEuen. The last part of the meeting was given over to the installation of new officers. Plans are being made for the Alumni Tea and we are looking forward to seeing some of the girls back.

Saturday, May 26, the girls who will not be with us next year are to be the guests of the remaining members at a desert breakfast. Plans are being made for all to have a very good time. The society president, Imogene Hoffman, is to be the guest of honor. We all wish her success and happiness in her work. The society is very grateful to her for her skillful leadership during the past year.

JOLLY RED HEADS

The last meeting of the JoJilly Red Heads was held Thursday. Election of officers for next year was the main business. Frances Bennett was elected to succeed Kathleen Burgham as President, and Lake Howell was re-elected to the office of Secretary and Treasurer.

Three new members were taken in—Minnie O'Brien, Sarah Edgar and Muriel Powers. Elsie McCreary will be back with us next year. Those leaving this year are Margaret Barr, Kathleen Burgham, Elsie Owens and Florence Morris.

Here's hoping Mr. Irish and his Red Heads have a good time next year.

CLIONIAN NEWS

The Senior members made their farewell visit to the Clionian rendezvous Tuesday, May 15, and were royally entertained by the Freshmen members. After the delicious feed the Freshies gave a program which included these numbers. Reading, That Old Gang O' Mine—Wylie Wentworth. Songs by Minnie, Jr., Edith and Ethel; Dance—Ruby Harkey and a Farewell Speech to Seniors by Mona Denson. The last number on the program was the desires of Freshmen members for Senior possessions. Molly Bendixon requested that Nellie Graham leave her height and curly hair, and Edith Curnow expressed her desire for Mary Weddington's ability to do stunts and her line for Miss Murphy. Then every one sang songs and the meeting broke up with every one in a very happy and friendly mood.

Meet at Payne's Home

The Clionians met Tuesday, May 22, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Payne. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows:

President—Edith Curnow.
 Vice-president—Minnie Hilkins.
 Secretary—Ruby Harkey.
 Treasurer—Mildred Norris.

The officers were installed and speeches were made by old and new officers.

The Clionians then presented Mr. and Mrs. Payne with a small gift to show, in some way, their appreciation for all their kindnesses to us. Then Mrs. Payne served delicious refreshments.

Annual Tea Held

Tuesday, May 29, from 3 to 5 p. m., the Clionians held their annual Alumnae Tea on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Payne's home. It was a real reunion of old and new members and a very entertaining program was arranged by Ruby Harkey. This meeting was the last of the year and it was with regret that goodbyes were given.

DELTA THETA SOCIETY

Society Entertained

Mrs. Mary Empey and Miss Nellie Stills entertained the members of the Delta Theta Society with a Buffet supper at Miss Stills' home, May 22. The alumnae members present were: Dora Garrison, Mrs. George Hoenshell, formerly Louise Goodwin, Minnie Laird and Helen Hanus.

Election of Officers

The new officers for the coming year were installed by candle service. They are: President, Mary Halterman; vice-president, Helen Clark; Secretary-treasurer, Dorothy Brodie.

To Hold Tea

The Delta Theta Alumnae Tea is to be held Tuesday afternoon, May 29, on the lawn of the Matthews' home. Mr. and Mrs. Cookson, Mrs. Waite, Mrs. Hurst, Miss Goodman and Mrs. Honshue are among the invited guests.

End of Year Party Given

The annual "end of the year party" of the C. W. C. was held at Riverside Park Wednesday of last week.

In the true spirit of the club, "they were away" from the fountain at six o'clock. The first thing on the program was a swim and a few thrills down the slide. This was followed by a delicious lunch prepared and served by the girls. As for the lunch, the C. W. C.'s are always ready to do it justice. Mr. Irish, however, has not made his final decision on the cake.

At this time the incoming president, Farrel Dana, and the outgoing president Buelah McCreary, were heard from. Miss McCreary speaking of the past, from experience probably, and Mr. Dana speaking of the future, with high hopes. The outgoing seniors and the incoming members were also on the program. Everyone was pleased to hear from Mr. Irish and Mrs. Waite. As guests, there was Mr. and Mrs. Sandige, and Sed Austen, although guests they are still C. W. C.'s.

After a good lunch, and a review of the past year as has been related there was only one thing left to do. The remainder of the time was spent in dancing, and you may rest assured that the C. W. C.'s crowded much dancing into the short time that remained.

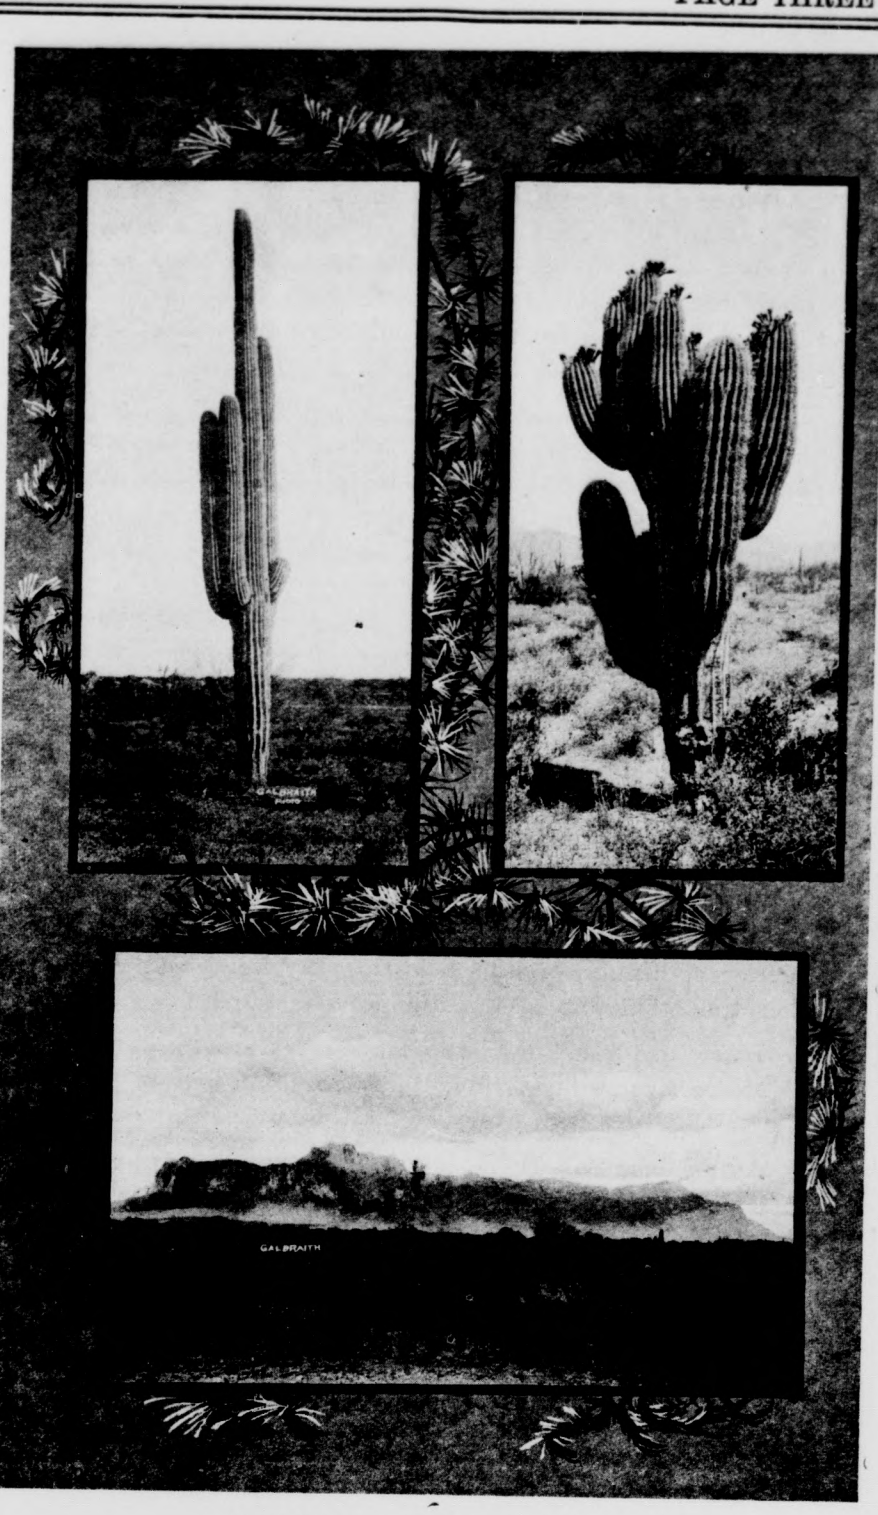

When it was time to depart it was with a feeling of sorrow and happiness mingled with much satisfaction. Nevertheless, when ten o'clock rolled around every one was home.

 Straightway loved the dame.
 At Yuletide they were far from home

With nothing much to do;
 The youth said "Come if you'll elope
 I'll do everything for you."
 Said she, "We can't elope tonight,
 love,

Unless you've lots of cash,
 I've loaned my gowns, my hats, my shoes,

My gloves, my cloak, my sash.
 My shoes are now in Albany,
 My coon coat's down in Maine,
 My velvet gown's in Yonkers,—
 My hat I loaned to Jane,
 My grip is in Chicago,
 My cloak is in Pen Mar,
 My pajamas are in San Jose,
 At least, I think they are."

"All right, my love," he answered,
 "We'll wait for your clothes, my dear;

If I had to buy you an outfit
 We'd be waiting for more than a year.

So we can't elope tonight, love,
 With your clothes all away, on leave,

Since it's not the mode and far too cold
 To dress like Mother Eve."

CHARLES GILMORE

Quiet, unobtrusive, blessed with that rare gift of being able to do his business with a rare ability and still rarer quietness, and at the same time managing to keep his hands and nose entirely clear of other people's business, Charles Gilmore has earned for himself an enviable place on the campus and in our hearts.

He came to us from Whittier College in January, 1927, and immediately took his place in our school as though that place had been vacant for years waiting for him to come and fill it. Chosen as Editor-in-chief of the 1928 Sahuaro, he has been working ever since his election—working in such a quiet way that only those having the privilege to work with him realize the full extent of the work he has done and is still doing. We discovered at the beginning of the year that Charles was an excellent photographer and he has been able to save half or more of the expenses on group and athletic pictures for the Annual. Taking on this extra work besides his responsibilities and actual labor as editor, it is really astonishing that any one person can do so much work with a clear, level head and without complaint, or even comment on the matter!

But it is not for Charles' work that we admire him most, but for sense of humor, you would realize it the moment you glimpsed his whimsically smiling eyes. With ever a cheering word for the discouraged members of his staff, with a smile for every word of criticism, with shoulders thrown back and head up to meet every blow face to face, and with no avoiding of difficulties or problems, Charles Gilmore has marched triumphantly through college and, we hope, will continue the same march through life.

FARM SCENE NEAR TEMPE

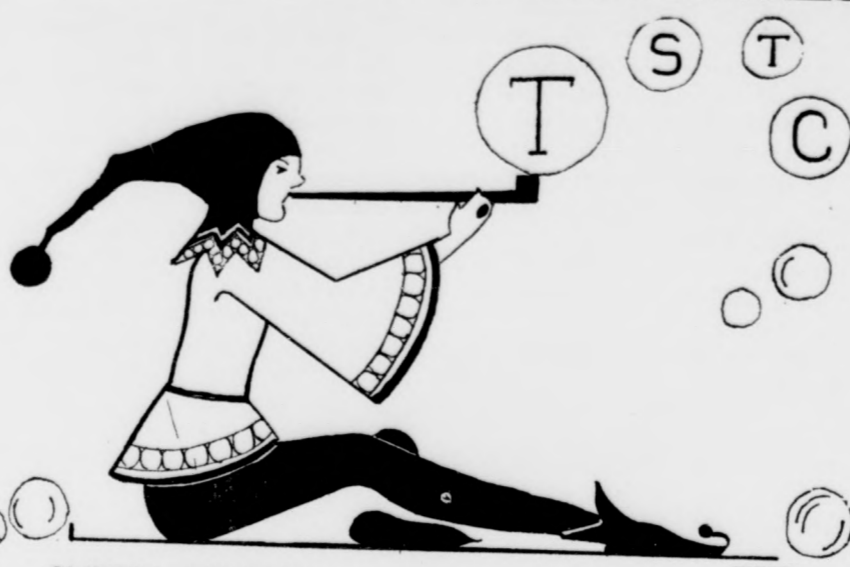

WHAT DOES HONOR DAY MEAN TO YOU?

Honor day, as you know, is the day that the awards for the year are given. It is a day when those who have taken part in a successful season of some sport look back and say: "Look what I have done, and watch what I am going to do." It is the day when we take to ourselves the roses, while we give the thorns to the other fellow.

Through every season we cheer for the college, the team and the players; we look back and say, "See what we have done." Be that as it may, there is one who is back of us all of the time. In football time you see him in khaki breeches, a maroon sweat shirt, and Ked's shoes. He never misses a night's practice, and he is always working and planning while not on the field. At each game you may find him playing the bench, but he is the best bench warmer we have. During the basketball season he is the first one out on the court, and the last one to leave. During his time on and off the court he is still planning a means of attack, a change in the lineup, or doping something out. At every basketball game he is on the spot, the best bench warmer that we have. Win or lose, he is always back of you. In the spring he is one of the busiest men on the campus. First it is baseball practice, and then it is some advice for a track man. This practice continues, on the field, off the field, and most any other time that you are willing to listen to him.

I am sure you know who I am referring to. Just plain old Mac. Every day is honor day for him. He is proud of all of us and deserves every honor that we can give him.

As a house "Dad" he has been there, although we have not always given him our best support. Whether it is a cheerful good morning, when he and his wife step from their apartment, or whether he is flashing the lights because the water is getting knee-deep, just remember one thing—He is for us, always and in every way. Every day is his honor day. How shall we honor him?

CLIPPED COMMENT Teachers Handed "Thou Shalt Not's" From Federal Bureau of Education

Washington—The ten commandments for school teachers have been issued by the bureau of education of the interior department.

The commandments abound in cheerfulness and hold the doctrine that an even temperament has much to do with the teacher's ability to maintain her position and condition of health:

They are as follows:

- 1. Thou shalt have other interests beside thy schoolroom.
2. Thou shalt not try to make of thy children little images, for they are a live little bunch, visiting the wriggling of their captivity upon you, their teacher, unto the last weary moment of the day, and showing interest and co-operation unto those who can give them reasonable freedom in working.

3. Thou shalt not scream the names of thy children in irritation, for they will not hold thee in respect if thou screamest their names in vain.

4. Remember the last day of the week, to keep it happy.

5. Humor the feelings of thy children, that their good will may speak well for thee in the little domain over which thou rulest.

6. Thou shalt not kill one breath of stirring endeavor in the heart of a little child.

7. Thou shalt not suffer any unkindness of speech or action to enter the door of thy room.

8. Thou shalt not steal for the drudgery of many "papers" the precious hours that should be given to recreation, that thy strength and happiness may appear unto all that come within thy presence.

9. Thou shalt not bear witness to too many "schemes of work," for much scattered effort is a stumbling block to weary fingers.

10. Thou shalt laugh—when it rains, and we, woolly ones muddy the floor, when it blows and doors bang, when little angels conceal their wings and wriggle, when Tommy spills ink and May flops a tray of trailing letters; when visitors appear at the precise moment when all small heads have forgotten everything they knew.

And again I say unto you, laugh, for upon all these commandments hang all the law and the profits in thy schoolroom.

P. O. SCORES HIT

For a number of years P. O. had been aspiring for a position in the College Follies. The nineteen twenty-seven Follies had passed him up, but in 1928 he was given a part. P. O. had always wanted to be in a "climax," and had been for some time, only he didn't know it, and now was his chance.

This was his part—at the climax of the play he was to dash out on the stage and say, "Hark, did you hear that pistol shot?"

P. O. had rehearsed his part often and was now ready to make his debut on the stage. The night of the play came, and finally the time for his part came. With a dramatic gesture P. O. "fell" upon the stage and exclaimed, "Hark, did you hear that pistol shot, I mean did you hear that pistol shot, dam it all, did you hear that bang?"

You can always tell the difference between a prof. and a student by asking them what "it" is. If he tells you it's a pronoun, he's no student.

The best formula for learning is this: We learn by our mistakes; we make mistakes in not studying, therefore we learn by not studying.

QUESTIONNAIRE FOR COMIC SUPPLEMENT FANS

Which do you prefer for the ending of a comic strip, "Wham!" "Bam!" or "Zam!"?

What kind of people say "Eeek!"? What is the meaning of the words when spoken by a comic strip dog: "Yerf Yerf Yowf Glup?"

What bird that likes crackers says "Awrrrrrk!"?

Why do modern dictionaries omit such common words as "oink," "gloop," "oork," "arrk," "yipe-yipe," "arf-arf," "sniff-sniff" and "zowie"?

What becomes of a character that says, "Oh, man?"

"When my mother was three years old, she fell from a third floor window."

"Die she die?"—Belle Hop.

University of Arizona. The men lost this year are Bob Mullen, Doyle Harbeson, and Joe Smith, while the returning court men are Captain-elect Grasmoen, Riggs, Vihel, B. Smith and Dick.

The track squad undoubtedly was the most successful track team in the history of the school as well as of the athletic year. This is the first time that the College was supreme in the conference in this sport, made possible by a well balanced team that was well fortified in every department of either weights or sprints. Besides securing championships, the members of the cinder path carved their niches in the Arizona Hall of Fame by shattering five State records. Bill Griffith, by hurling the discus some 127 feet, set a new record; Willard broke the record for the javelin, Grasmoen for the high jump, Vihel his own record for the quarter-mile, and the relay team, consisting of Caywood, McCarty, Goodrich and Tyson, managed to cavort around the oval for a new mark in the half-mile relay.

The men leaving are Culbert, Michea, Tyson, while Captain-elect Sutter, Griffith, Goodrich, McCarty, Grasmoen, Ennis, Wardlow, Vihel, Watts, Caywood, and Willard return for another repetition of this year's performance.

In baseball the lack of pitchers was felt, but through the efforts of a well-balanced infield and outfield, the nine managed to obtain their share of laurels. The high spot of the season was the defeat handed to the University on their own diamond at Tucson. The prospects are very bright for next year's team, with such men as Prather, De Clerq, B. Smith, Coor, Hudson, Sine and Cole, the Captain-elect, returning. Those lost by graduation are Barney, Joe Smith, Goodwin, Mullen, Harbeson, and Carr.

Swimming, Eats And Dancing

The Normal Seniors, College Juniors and College Seniors were entertained by the Freshman class on Monday afternoon and evening, May 21. At 4:30 the Tempe pool was opened to all Tempe students for the swimming party. After an hour of enthusiastic sports, participators came back to the campus and spent a half hour in the dining hall.

A dance in the old gymnasium furnished entertainment for the evening. As a special feature, a "take off" on the Senior Follies was given by a group of Freshmen girls, including Elizabeth Jones, Minnie Hillkins, Caroline Contreras, Raye Vickers, Josephine Wilson and Mary Humphries. The dancers were dressed in various types of costumes for their maneuvers. Johnny Riggs' orchestra furnished the music for the evening.

Mary Humphries acted as chairman of the entertainment committee, assisted by Retha Bolding, Carolina Contreras and Benny Cole.
