

New Dorm's Namesake, Charles Trumbell Hayden, First Tempe Pioneer

By BOB MCGREGOR

Hayden Hall, ASC's plush and newest men's dorm, was NOT named after Arizona's Senator Carl Hayden. It was named after his father, Charles Trumbell Hayden.

About the time Abe Lincoln was getting started with his law studies, Hayden finished his New England classical education and headed west. He taught log-cabin school through Kentucky, Indiana, and Missouri, for "20 shillings a term."

Somehow he bought his cousin's St. Louis mercantile business and moved it west to Independence just as the old Santa Fe Trail was opening. From Santa Fe, according to his daughter, Miss Sally Hayden, his company freighted huge shipments of goods west in the pre-Civil War years 1848-58.

As soon as Arizona Territory opened for settlement he moved to Tucson, then an adobe-walled fortress built by the Spanish against the marauding Indians. In the Old Pueblo he became a successful trader and probate judge.

During this time he acquired the title Don Carlos.

The city of Tempe had no buildings, no population except crawling critters and roving Apaches and such in 1871. That was the year Don Carlos came north on a trip to Prescott. The mile-wide Salt river stopped him here at the Butte.

Legend and biographical sketches have it that Don Carlos climbed the Butte and saw a vision of the future—opportunity. He settled here. He built Hayden's Ferry to help travelers cross the big stream. He built Hayden's flour mill. And with native Indian help he built a grand adobe hacienda facing the river.

He called it Casa Vieja and the adobe remains still stand behind the 1950 version Casa Vieja.

He married a California bride in 1874 and brought her back through Phoenix, which then was a settlement of 12 houses. They lived in the Casa and raised a family.

Those were the days when old Geronimo and Cochise led their murderous Apache bands screaming from their Superstition and Dragoon mountain hideouts to harass the settlers. But the U. S. Cavalry garrison eight miles northeast of here at Ft. McDowell kept things pretty peaceful while Don Carlos brought law and order and culture as the valley filled with farmers.

Don Carlos cut an odd figure in these hard-bitten parts with his eastern coat and "boiled" shirt and little black bow tie topped off with the only silk plug hat in the Territory.

A British remittance man named Darrell Duppa somehow persuaded Don Carlos to change the name on the map from Hayden's Ferry to Tempe—Tempe being the name of an ancient Greek center of learning with geography resembling the local.

The pioneer generation of children needed schools and teachers and so Don Carlos pushed the idea of founding Territorial Normal School (now ASC) as a training ground for schoolmarms long before Arizona's 1912 admission to the Union.

Old Don Carlos "went West" for the last time and was buried in 1900. His son, Carl, has been U. S. Senator Hayden consecutively since the first Arizona election ever held.

Recently President Gammage's office received the following wire from Washington: "x x x I AM SURE THAT IF HE WERE ALIVE MY FATHER WOULD JOIN ME IN CONGRATULATING BOTH YOU AND THE COLLEGE UPON THE GREAT EXPANSION THAT HAS BEEN MADE UNDER YOUR GUIDANCE x x x OF WHICH HAYDEN HALL IS THE LATEST x EXAMPLE."

ALAS, POOR FREDERICK . . . I KNEW HIM WELL

Students were stymied last week when they saw this skull gazing out a window in the English building while resting placidly on Dr. Fred Osenburg's desk. It was learned that the skull was one of the many fossils discovered on a recent trip made by the Colossal Fossil club; and is not, as English professor Chuck Southern appears to think, the remains of his colleague, Fred Osenburg. Nor is it, as one coed said, "Ooh, look at Dr. Osenburg's skull!"

State AWS Convention Begins On Campus Today

From every corner of the state, women will assemble today, tomorrow, and Sunday for the annual AWS state convention to be held on the ASC campus.

Highlighted by the theme, "As We Serve—on the campus, in the community, in our country and the world—", the convention will welcome AWS members from the University of Arizona, Arizona State at Flagstaff, and Phoenix College as well as all women students attending ASC.

Registration from 3 to 9 p.m. today at West Hall will start the convention, with a buffet dinner at 6. The Gamma Phi Beta Follies will be presented at 7:30 p.m. in the Training School Auditorium.

Breakfast for the delegates in the dining hall will begin Saturday's activities.

At 9 a.m., the Browning room of Matthews Library will be the scene of a business meeting, at which Dr. Grady Gammage, president of the College, and Ed Carson, ASASC president, will present the welcoming addresses.

Dr. Mildred B. Sayre, Dean of Women and Associate Dean of Students, will speak on "The National Student Association" at luncheon, 12:30 in the dining hall. Presentation of summaries and a demonstration on "Group Dynamics" are purposes of the business meeting scheduled for 2 p.m. in the Browning room.

Dr. Sayre will act as moderator for the demonstration group, composed of AWS Council members of ASC.

Following the business meeting will be a campus tour from 3:30 until 4:30 and a Valley resort tour from 4:30 until 6.

Included in the tour of the campus will be inspection of the library, Gammage Annex, and the Science Building. Representatives from each of the women's dormitories will assist in the tour and Mr. H. W. Batchelor, librarian, will conduct the trip through the library.

Mrs. Alvin Kirmse, only woman representative to the Board of Regents, will be guest speaker at the banquet at the Tempe Woman's Club, 7 o'clock on Saturday.

Mrs. Kirmse was Dean of Women

Radio Executives To Attend Meeting At ASC Wednesday

Top radio production and engineering executives will be present at the first meeting of the ASC Radio Workshop to be held on Wednesday, February 28 at 4 p.m. in the new radio studios in the Library.

All students interested in any form of radio, whether it be production or engineering are invited to attend.

Ferron Halvorson, radio director, said the radio in a college schedule should not be confined to any one department but should cover every phase of school activity and training. "There will be a place in the Workshop for any student in the College," said Halvorson.

Actual programs will be handled over KTYL and other Valley and Arizona stations.

at the University of Arizona before her appointment to the Board by Governor Pyle.

Saturday's schedule will be climaxed by a dance at the Moer Activity building at 9:30 p.m.

The program for Sunday will begin with breakfast at 8:30 a.m. in the Gammage Hall Lobby.

The Reverend Glenn Riddell will address delegates to the convention at meditation in Danforth Chapel from 9:30 to 10:00 p.m. Religious services at the preferred church will close activities of the AWS Convention.

ment was presented by the outstanding professional talent of the Mexican state.

Many prominent Mexican citizens expressed the opinion that the ASC choir was unparalleled in its performances. A high Mexican state official said: "The Mexican people are fundamentally musical, and the concert tour was made to order for them."

Several of the concert students commented on the fact that many of the Mexican listening groups were affected emotionally after hearing the singing. At the Cathedral, the singing was of such emotional quality, and the listeners were so affected that some of them kissed the hems of the singers' choir robes.

TEN FILE FOR ASASC PRIMARIES

Alpha, Oldest Dorm, Closed Indefinitely

Thirty-seven residents of Alpha hall were moved to quarters in other campus dormitories Wednesday, as the state's oldest dormitory for women was closed "indefinitely."

According to Gilbert Cady, comptroller, the hall was vacated because of the high cost of maintaining the dormitory. "It just isn't economically sound for us to keep the hall going any longer," Mr. Cady explained.

"Also, the new quarters have much better facilities." The dormitory was built in 1902 by Clinton Campbell. In 1915, extensive improvements were made on the building, and the hall was enlarged in 1927.

At one time Alpha hall housed men students but was converted to a women's dormitory. When filled to capacity the hall houses 55 students, according to Mr. Cady.

Sahuaro Sales Contest Rules Announced

Contest material for the Sahuaro sales contest may be picked up at the office of the Associated Students by any student, or chartered ASC organization anytime after today.

According to Jack Cuthbertson, financial manager of the Associated Students, prizes for the organization and individual selling the most 1951 Sahuaros will be awarded as follows:

- Organization Prize $50.00
 - Individual First Prize 35.00
 - Individual Second Prize 15.00
- The contest is open to any of the following:
1. Any chartered ASC organization.
 2. Any individual may compete for the individual prizes whether attached to an organization or not.

Because of previous contractual agreements the Sahuaro must have taken in $1,800 before either the organization or individual prizes are awarded. This means that for the organization to qualify for the prize, (a) total campaign sales must reach $1,800, and (b) a single organization's sales must reach $600.

For the individuals to qualify, (a) the total sales must have reached $1,080, and (b) an individual's sales must reach $300.

If the Sahuaro gets its $1,800, but no organization or individual reaches the goal that has been set for them by the rules, the prize money will be awarded to the organization and individual who turns in the most money.

Campus Royalty Petitions Available At Student Offices

Campaigns for student offices get into high gear next week with a special election assembly. Also, petitions are now available for the honorary positions of Campus King and Queen.

Only three men had filed petitions for the office of ASASC president by the deadline Wednesday afternoon. Four more had filed for the vice-presidency and three girls were in the running for secretary.

Students will get a chance to compare the candidates at the election assembly. Each candidate will give a short speech, giving his qualifications and campaign promises.

Time for the assembly has not yet been set by the student council, but they have decided to hold it during the week prior to March 2.

James Wylie, Norman Wilson and Bill Barnes had the only petitions filed for the student office by the deadline.

Vice-president candidates are James Lively, George Harter, Wayne Legg, and Irvine Williams.

Rachel Ann Love, Shirley Sunden and Norma Erickson are the candidates for secretary.

Primary elections for the ASASC offices have been set for March 7. Finals will be held on March 14.

March 7 has also been set as the deadline for the filing of petitions for campus royalty.

The King and Queen will reign at the traditional Coronation ball to be held this spring. Petitions for these honors may be obtained at the ASASC offices.

Primary election in the royalty race will be held at the time of the ASASC finals, March 14. Runoffs will be held a week later, March 21.

If You Still Need New Textbooks, Better Hurry

The College Bookstore requests that students purchase their books for this semester as soon as possible.

Contracts are now being made with the printers for return of unsold books and as soon as these are completed the books will be returned.

Also books must be cleared from the store's storage space so that work on a new addition to the storage room can be finished.

Flapper Era Theme Of Den Talent Show

"Flapper" was the theme of the West Hall show at the Devils' Den last night.

The scene for the performance was set in a barroom. In the first act the audience saw a group of "men" gathered around the tables on the stage. Community singing with songs from the flapper era followed.

Next came Mary McCombs, Gerry Andrews, and Beki Sigworth, dressed in flapper costumes, singing "Oh You Beautiful Doll." A take-off on the currently popular "John and Marsha" acted by Marie Walker and Phyllis Samuelson followed.

The fourth act featured a reading by Muriel Voigts and Betty Jo Nash called "These College Boys."

The trio came back on stage then to sing "Put Your Arms Around Me Honey."

Act six found "Frankie and Johnnie" on stage in the persons of Barbara Willjs and Nancy Madison. Mary McCombs sang and the accompaniment was by Muriel Voight on the ukelele. The bartender was played by Joan Shaver and the sheriff by Betty Jo Nash.

Tuesday night the boys from East Hall entertained. Planned and mc'd by Rocky Maynes, the program featured Ray Rosales, John Mickelson and Pat Tanno.

Bigger, Better Plans For Fall Frosh Week

Freshman week next fall will be bigger, better and easier if the plans of several freshman class committees are carried out.

Stanley Duke, class president, earlier this semester appointed five standing committees who will plan to make next year's freshman week activities better all around. The committees are: Freshman Week committee, Big Brother and Big Sister committee, Publicity committee, Social committee and Student Counseling committee.

Already three of the committees have met with Dr. W. P. Shofstall, dean of students, to lay the ground work for big plans next year.

Concert Choir Returns From Old Mexico; Entertained By Governor Soto Of Sonora

Forty-five members of the ASC Concert Choir returned Sunday, February 18, from a tour of Guaymas and Hermosillo where they were treated as guests of the Mexican government.

The choir was privately entertained by the governor of the state of Sonora, Ignacio Soto. The governor was lavish in his praise and stated that the choir "has done more in its concerts to promote good will between the States of Arizona and Sonora than anything attempted in recent years."

Ambrose D. Holford, director of the choral group, stated the students were particularly impressed with the hospitality of the Mexican people, crowds greeted them wherever they went and overflowed into the streets while listening to the concerts.

Concerts were given at the University of Sonora, the Cathedral, the San Alberto Hotel, and the Governor's Palace.

The climax of the entertainment schedule was a party given by the Mambo Club which came as a surprise in its elaborateness and originality.

In a club room as large as the lobby of West Hall, the ASC students were welcomed while the orchestra played Mexico's famous "La Diana," a sort of "hail the conquering hero" fanfare. After the introductory display of enthusiasm, an hour long entertainment was presented by the outstanding professional talent of the Mexican state.

Many prominent Mexican citizens expressed the opinion that the ASC choir was unparalleled in its performances. A high Mexican state official said: "The Mexican people are fundamentally musical, and the concert tour was made to order for them."

Several of the concert students commented on the fact that many of the Mexican listening groups were affected emotionally after hearing the singing. At the Cathedral, the singing was of such emotional quality, and the listeners were so affected that some of them kissed the hems of the singers' choir robes.

WE COMMENT

In This Corner . . .

For the past three weeks finished ink drawings have been found pushed under the door of the State Press. They are signed, rather cryptically, "Benson, '51." We suspect they are drawn by one Bruce Benson, lately of Nogales Junction's "Kitty Kat," and recently of ASC.

"Here comes the doctor, now, Mr. Craille."

More Women Smoke Than Men, Says Survey

Questioning of 1500 North-western students revealed that 60 per cent of the girls smoke but only 52 per cent of the boys do.

A professor of English at that institution made the survey in connection with an article he wrote in the Atlantic Monthly.

He says that girls have taken to smoking because they mature earlier, and to avoid overeating. Boys don't smoke because they want to be athletes or because they don't have enough money.

The professor warns that the American male, always sensitive about his masculinity, may "stampede to cut-plug or marijuana" as the number of women smokers increase.

Another slant on the feminine part of our population: Michigan State News reports that mainly co-eds stick gum on chairs, desks, etc. The men just throw their wads on the floor and let it go at that.

A male student at Michigan State was awarded the title of "Ball-of-the-Ball" at the Veterinary Medicine Ball recently.

A reporter on the Brigham Young Universe reports that in one of his classes, a young lady was covering the meals she ate in a day.

She had mentioned breakfast, lunch, and dinner, and had come to the subject of midnight snacks. Her comment was: "And then once in a while I like a midnight snack."

Portnoff Cast Gains Fame

The cast on the arm of Dr. Collice H. Portnoff, head of the English department, is becoming quite famous on the school campus. Many notables are walking up to her and automatically pulling out their pens to sign the register.

The funniest incident that is attributed to the cast is the stopping of the meeting of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority, when all members took pen in hand and formed a line to sign their names.

By the end of three weeks, when she heads back to the doctor's office to have the plaster of paris cut off, it might be that the doctor himself will be wishing that he had the broken member when he views the signatures.

Snakes, scorpions, and gila monsters hold no terrors for Jack Damman and Gene Davis, ASC sophomore and junior whose jobs consist mainly of working with these desert denizens in the laboratories of the Science Building.

Twenty-two-year-old Gene, a pre-med student with an area of concentration in physiological zoology, is a zoology lab instructor. He and Jack have both participated in the expeditions undertaken by the ASC Science Department to collect poisonous specimens.

"The expeditions cover most of the central and southern part of Arizona," Gene stated, "and are under the direction of Dr. H. L. Stahnke." When searching for rattlesnakes, he said, "We look for cool, dark places where the snake is likely to seek shelter from the sun. Rattlesnakes, contrary to popular opinion, can't take hot weather."

Visitors to the Science Department open house in December saw Gene as one of the department assistants who showed the public how the venomous inhabitants of the desert are handled.

A native of Miami, Arizona, Gene counts music as one of his favorite occupations and leads a dance band in his hometown. He is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha and the Pasteur Society.

Jack Damman, now a Phoenixian but originally from Lincoln, Nebraska, is working in the Poisonous Reptiles Laboratory on a Damon Runyon Cancer Research Fellowship. The purpose of these awards is to aid students of science whose work consists in the largest part of experimentations in the field of cancer research.

Mattison, Wackerbarth, Hildreth, Pace Time Trials

The Sun Devil cindermen held their first practice under meet conditions during Wednesday's time trials and neat performance were notched by Captain Tom Mattison, Don Hildreth, and Merle Wackerbarth.

The pre-season time trials will be a determining factor in picking the squad which will go to the Long Beach Relays on March 10. Mattison's 1:59.2 time in the 880 pleased Coach Donn K...

and indicated that Mattison will be ready for the Relays, first meet for the Devil trackmen.

Other sparkling performances included Hildreth's neat trip over the high hurdles in 14.6, just one-tenth of a second of the Border Conference record. Hildreth went on to break the school practice mark when he skimmed the low hurdles in 23.9. This broke the former record of 24 flat.

Wackerbarth ran wild all afternoon. His best effort was a 21.8 time in the 220. Merle then clicked off the 100-yard dash in 10 flat and ended his day's work with a relay lap in 50 flat.

Earl "Tiny" Putman led the field events by scoring in the shot put and discs. Earl tossed the weight 46 ft. 3 in. and heaved the javelin 138 ft. 10 in.

Dave Kenly and Claire Turley both cleared 12 feet in the pole vault.

Bill Miller tossed the javelin 205 feet in his first effort of the young season.

Amateur Tourney Staged At ASC For March 9-11

ASC this year, for the first time, will stage the Arizona Closed Tennis Tournament. The tenth annual State tournament will take place on the Tempe campus March 9, 10 and 11 and is open to all amateur players now living in Arizona.

ASC is holding the tournament for the first time because the host must be a member of the National Tennis Association and Tempe has just become an association member this year.

There will be fourteen separate divisions for participants, namely: men's singles and doubles, women's singles and doubles, junior boys' singles and doubles, junior girls' singles and doubles, junior veterans' singles and doubles, boys' singles and doubles and girls' singles and doubles.

Entrants in Junior Veterans' events must be at least 32 years of age at the date of entrance in the tournament and entrants in junior events are limited to boys and girls who have not reached their 18th birthday.

Rules of the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association will govern the play. In all events, matches will be the best two of three advantage sets and no entrant will be permitted to enter more than two of the scheduled events.

Entries must be made to Fred Bryant, ASC, Tempe, Arizona not later than 5:00 p.m. Wednesday, March 7, for all singles events and 5:00 p.m. Thursday, March 8, for all doubles events. Fees should accompany entry or be paid prior to match play.

ROTC Riflemen Defeat Yale Group

Riflemen of the ROTC defeated the Yale University ROTC by a score of 1373-1335 in a postal meet last week.

Thelton Beck was high-point man with 360 out of a possible 400 points. He was followed by Robert Rayburn with 357, Bill Culton, 349; Roland Beck, 345, and Dean Gosney, 342. Coulton has now left the team to take up training in California at an Army Officers' Candidate School.

T/Sgt. Dean, coach of the Air ROTC riflemen, was pleased with the results but said, "Last semester we could have placed among the top five teams in the Sixth Army Area, but we lost several good men and can't hope to do as well in our remaining matches."

The next match is scheduled for March 10, when the Air ROTC meets New Mexico A and M. Other future opponents include the Universities of Notre Dame, Arizona, Oklahoma, Illinois, and the University of Louisville.

All the matches are sanctioned by the National Rifle Association.

DEVILS DUMP AGGIES, 62-59

The Arizona State college Sun Devils registered their most impressive basketball victory of the season Tuesday night, downing the New Mexico Aggies, 62-59.

With five minutes left to play and the score tied at 54-54, the return of Boyd Hatch turned the tide back in the local favor.

Although it was Hatch's steady play and timely shooting that produced the Sun Devil victory, some terrific early playing by Ed Semmeson, Roy Coppinger, and Bill Paul helped the locals.

Outstanding players on the court Tuesday night were Coppinger and Mike Swilar, center for New Mexico. Both men tallied 19 points to tie for high point honors. Tonight on the local court ASC will play host to the Lords of New Mexico. Game time is set for 8:00 p.m.

I wonder when the Great Moto will show up again at Madison Square Garden in Phoenix for some exciting wrestling? ? ? ?

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of all intramural team managers today at 12:30 p.m. Rules and regulations for the volleyball tournament will be discussed at this time.

The volleyball teams will be comprised of 12 man squads with six men making up the team. The deadline for entry is Monday, February 26th at 5 p.m.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 14...THE BEAVER

"How eager can they get?"

For once in his life, our fervent friend admits that eagerness can be over-done! He's alluding, of course, to all these quick-trick cigarette tests—the ones that ask you to decide on cigarette mildness after just one puff, one sniff, one inhale or one exhale! When the chips are down, he realizes cigarette mildness can't be judged in a hurry. That's why he made... The sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test which asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke—on a pack after pack, day after day basis. No snap judgments needed. After you've enjoyed Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), we believe you'll know why... More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
