Awards Banquet Ends Coeds' Day On ASC Campus

By LORETTA TURANO

Women's Day at ASC was brought to a successful climax with the announcement of scholarship winners at the annual Awards Banquet held in the Union Ballroom, April 25, at 6 p.m.

Associated Women Students' President Barbara Gay presided at the banquet. The welcome address was given by Mrs. Grady Gammage and the greetings by Dean Catherine Nichols.

Other events included an 11 a.m. assembly with all girls wearing summer cottons and heels. "The Charm of the Educated Woman" was the theme for the Assembly and a basis for decoration at the banquet.

Women students and groups received the following awards: Outstanding Freshman Woman, Mary Lou Pyle; Residence Hall with Highest Scholarship, Gammage Annex; AAUW Award, Barbara Gay and Glee Chew; Women's Physical Education Service Award, Anne Bixby; Chi Omega Social Science Award, Dolores Koenigs; Big Sister Chairman, Bea King; South Hall Women of Year, South Hall Intramural Team; Gammage Hall Scholarship Award, Margaret O'Leary; Newman Club Senior Service Award, Joan O'Connell; Pan Hellenic Scholarship Plaque, Sigma Sigma Sigma; Matthews Hall Outstanding Senior Woman, Bebe Brown and Gayle Berkenkamp; Mu Rho Alpha Scholarship Award, AWS Fresh Scholarship Winner, Kay Kirkendall.

Awards for the 12 Outstanding Senior Women were presented to: Barbara Chausow, Glee Chew, Lettie Ann Gutshall, Barbara Parkhurst, Joan O'Connell, Amina Khan, Anne Bixby, Sharon Turnbull, Bizanne Lewis, Alberta Mills, Joan Kleinschmidt and Harriet Leeke.

Installation ceremonies of incoming AWS officials was held.

Finance Bill Passes Senate

Arizona State's finance bill lived through two hours of debate and finally passed the proposed committee of the whole Senate by a unanimous vote.

Only one major amendment was made to the bill. Senator Jim Williams moved that intercollegiate athletics should receive not only $7.15 out of every $25 fee as based on the estimated 3,950 students for next year, but the same percentage from the fee of every student who registers.

In the past, activity fees from any students registered over the estimated number for which the bill was drawn up were put into the contingent fund for emergencies.

Senator Williams explained to the Senate that his finance committee had given $1.50 to the bowling alley fund because a Phoenix businessman had offered

From right to left are George Augsburger, Barry Wolf, Walt Mills, Annie Wilda, Pat Hughes, and Pete Lombard. The play will be presented at 8 p.m. tonight in the Lyceum.

King, Queen Candidates Also In Poll

Bill Braman and Ken Ridenour won their way into the finals next Wednesday for senior class president, heading a list of 19 candidates who are to vie in voting races.

In last Wednesday's balloting, Braman topped Ridenour 96 to 68, while Loren Vaughn was eliminated. Dick Dodson with 60 and Jerry Machmer with 44 were voted into the finals for junior class president.

Also on next Wednesday's ballots will be Arizona State's candidates for campus king and queen, who are to be crowned at the Coronation Ball Friday, May 4. Barbara Gay and Kay Cochran are vying for queen and John Amey and Scott Robinson are hopefuls for king.

Since petitions for junior class vice-president were not taken out until late, three candidates will be on the final election ballots for the first time—and a plurality vote is to decide the winner. They are Connie Papandrew, Jimmy Kerr, and Larry Patterson.

CONNIE PAPANDEW—AWS representative from Gammage Annex, Pleiades, Spurs' secretary, Hall Council.

JIMMY KERR — East Hall president, East Hall Council, ASC Band, a business administration major.

LARRY PATTERSON — Rush chairman, Standards Chairman and a member of Delta Sigma Phi, a chemistry major.

Other candidates in next Wednesday's finals and their voting tabulations in the primary were: Senior vice-president — Audrey Viliborghy, 80; Marvin Strait, 69; senior secretary — Pauli Udall, 113; Lillian Mansour, 56; sophomore president — Dave Garcia, 120; Roy Crosby, 118; sophomore vice-president — Valerie Underwood, 97; Carol Butler, 94; sophomore secretary — Sue McCreary, 129, and Sue Culley, 96.

Other candidates whose names did not appear on Wednesday's ballot because there are only the two running are Mary Lynn Mohn and Gwen Newman who are vying for junior secretary.

Dr. Schilling Honors Day Speaker

Speaker at the May 25 Honors Day Assembly is to be Dr. Dorothy C. Schilling of the English Department.

Dr. Schilling was recently elected to the position by faculty vote to speak at the annual assembly giving honors, trophies, certificates, and wards to outstanding students.

Receiving her Ph.D. from Stanford University, Dr. Schilling taught at Stanford and the University of California before coming to Arizona State in 1932.

Listed in "Who's Who in American Education," she is a member of the Modern Language Association of America, American Association of University Professors, and the Philological Association of the Pacific Coast.

Dr. Schilling serves on the faculty Library and the General

Delegates Attend Meets

Students of ASC will attend two conventions in Utah today.

Members of the STATE PRESS and Sahuaro are scheduled to attend the meeting of the Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Press Association at Brigham Young University in Provo. They are Stan Hall, Dick Kipperman, and Duane Humlicek.

In conjunction with this is the first meeting of the newly formed National Council of College Publication Advisors. Prof. E. J. Hopkins, STATE PRESS and Sahuaro advisor, will attend. Delegates to the National Delta Phi Fraternity Convention go to Utah State College at Logan. Dale Clarkson, Garth Skouson, Gail Willis, and Larry Ripplinger are the ASC members attending.

The delegates will be traveling to Utah together.

Pvt. Tommy R. Piper, who was graduated from Arizona State last spring, was graduated from the Military Police Training Center, Fort Gordon, Ga., it was announced last week.

He completed basic training at Fort Carson, Colo., after entering the army last November.

Martinez Receives Ribbon From Army

A junior at Arizona State, Hector N. Martinez, has been decorated with the combat ribbon with a medal pendant for meritorious service in Korea, officers in the Arizona Military District announced this week.

Martinez, a history major from Maricopa, Ariz., has served as a sergeant in Korea and was decorated for his diligent performance of duty while acting as interpreter for the Columbian Infantry Battalion attached to the U. S. Command.

The ex-sergeant was presented with the medal during an informal ceremony at the headquarters of the Arizona Military District by its chief, Col. John K. Miller.

Martinez was previously awarded the U.S. Army Combat Infantry Badge, the Columbian Combat Infantry badge, the Korean theater badge with two battle stars, and the U. N. and national defense medals. He was discharged from the army in 1953.

"Mr. Belvedere Goes to College" full-length movie, and a cartoon will be shown free in the Memorial Ballroom Friday evening at 8 p.m. for all students.

Top UCLA Grid Stars To Speak At Dinner Honoring ASC Leaders

Two of the West Coast's brightest football stars — all American fullback Bob Davenport and lineman Don Shinnick — are slated to appear on Arizona State's campus Wednesday evening, May 9. The hero pair from the UCLA Bruins' national grid champion-which was initiated by Bright at UCLA in 1951, has spread over 50 campuses across America and is an inter-denominational work. "Most of us know less of Christ than we know of Napoleon," Bright says. "That is one of the tragedies of our day. We seek freedom from religion, rather than freedom of it."

The banquet, in the Memorial Union banquet hall, is only for student body, class, fraternity, sorority, and organizational leaders at ASC, plus all Sun Devil athletes.

UCLA Coach Red Sanders says, "Davenport is the finest running fullback that I have ever coached, the greatest all-around fullback that I have ever seen."

Bob and his wife Barbara have been active in CCC for four years. He is UCLA student chairman.

Senior Vocalist To Give Recital

Arizona State's outstanding vocal performer of the year—Mrs. Harriet Aleksander—is to present a voice recital at 8 p.m. Friday, April 27, in the Phoenix Public Library auditorium.

Mrs. Aleksander, former student of the Chicago Music College and winner in the Chicago-Land Music Festival, will be featured in a senior honors recital. She is the only ASC student to achieve the honor this year, Dr. Henry Bruinsma, head of the music department, said.

The ASC music faculty named her the outstanding performer this year.

Now residing at 701 East State Avenue, Phoenix, Mrs. Aleksander is a member of Mu Rho Alpha, ASC music honorary fraternity, the Phoenix Symphony Guild, and the Phoenix Musicians' Guild.

Laura Dobbs Honored

Laura Dobbs was honored April 17 on the occasion of her 50th year of service to Arizona State. Her colleagues in the administration building presented her with gifts and flowers.

Miss Dobbs began her career here as secretary to the late Dr. A. J. Matthews, president of the college, in 1906. At the time, Arizona had not yet achieved statehood and Tempe was a normal school which also taught a high-school curriculum.

Since that time, Miss Dobbs has watched the institution grow through several stages to its present university status.

She has seen the institution grow from Tempe Normal to Arizona State Teachers, then to Arizona State College, and finally to its current status as a university with four colleges.

Religious Council Chooses Officers

Tuesday morning the Student Religious Council met to elect next year's council officers.

In the office of president the council elected Jim Hamilton. Tom Shaffer was elected the new vice president. Publicity chairman for the on-coming year will be Jean Hoybal. New senators are Jean Kadish and Edith Santarelli.

Darlene Evans was elected as chairman of next year's Spiritual Exploration Week. Jo Jo Craddock was chosen the new chapel secretary.

Don't forget to vote next Wednesday in the finals!

Editorially Speaking —

Stolen

This week a Revereware skillet and cooking pan were stolen from a bulletin board in Old Main. The cooking implements were part of a display used for teaching purposes in language arts. The pots were on the board late Tuesday; they were gone Wednesday morning.

The case of the missing pots comes right on top of the theft of a couch from the Union Building. Many minor missing articles have been reported throughout the Union since it first opened.

This type of prank is definitely out of character in an institution training people upon whom society will have to depend for leadership.

Clean Up!

It seems like people who put up posters and handbills publicizing events on campus would be thoughtful enough to take them down after the meeting or program is over. But some of them are not. They just leave them where they are and go on their merry way. Why don't they go back and clean them up?

In the showcase by Matthews Library, just to name an example, the poster on Margaret Meade stayed and stayed and stayed after she had already been here to lecture and gone. Whoever put the poster there just forgot that when publicity is put up like that it has to be picked up later. It doesn't leave bulletin boards and showcases looking very nice. It just clutters them up.

Some of the bulletin boards on campus are littered with notices and art work designed to attract the student's eye. Some of them have been there for days. When a man wishes to sell a car and the car is sold, he should go back and take down his notices.

So again—why don't they go back and clean up!

Not A Crusade

Nick: April 24, 1956. investigate an issue before firing his salvos at the only person who he knows would not endanger his job. Your recent attack on Dale Clarkson through the only campus means of reaching the student body was both unwarranted and unthinking.

Recently the need for an additional means of promoting student government policies and activities has been discussed — many suggestions have come forth, a student government pamphlet newspaper being only one of the suggestions and not a crusade on the part of anyone. The need for varied ways of reaching the student body stems from the feeling of some people, including myself, that a single campus newspaper is not big enough to tie together a student body of over five thousand students, or to adequately cover special news of great extent.

Actually the gentleman down the Memorial Union hall has worked hard for this university all year, including a good part of the summer. For instance, we would still not have an "A" on the Butte had not Clarkson, seeing that Blue Key did not have enough money to cover the expenses of a regular contractor, did the job for virtually nothing in comparison.

It seems that a responsible editor should have the decency to investigate an issue before firing his salvos at the only person who he knows would not endanger his job.

A monthly off-campus magazine to start publication in September '56 is now in the planning stage. This is by no means a humor magazine as such, but not without humor. Capable people are now in the process of making up working ideas. It would exist as any commercial publication — having layout artists, cartoonists, ad men, feature writers, current events, photographers and paid contributed writing by both faculty and students.

We are busy developing feature and format ideas from many of the top magazines, including Time, Life, the New Yorker, Esquire, Reader's Digest, and others. We feel that this magazine would give practical magazine experience to interested parties.

I have heard mutterings that this campus is not intellectually ready for such a magazine. Maybe, — however you or others interested are invited to drop a letter in the campus mail, located in the basement of the Arts Building, to—

JACK HAEHL, Editor, '56 Sahuaro.

He's with her so much I think she's his major.

Lack of Insight

Dear Nick, We regret being asked to answer the comments in your scratchpad last week. But we feel we owe it to the student body to keep the records straight.

Never before has the paper so clearly indicated the three points we must make at this time, namely,

1. There seems to be too little appreciation for student government.
2. Articles are published on subjects about student government based upon inadequate information.
3. The STATE PRESS does not seem to have grown in stature with our institution.

Its lack of respect for student government is indicated by the statement, "There are without a doubt questions more vital to the welfare of this campus than debates on student government." Frankly, how can any person with enough intelligence to be in college look upon autonomy with such shallow appreciation? Is the importance of self-government measured by the number who vote? Is it possible to increase student participation if students are not informed of the value or purpose of self-government?

The paper's lack of insight about our student government has cropped up many times this year, but never more clearly than the statement, "Should there have been such a special paper this year? It would undoubtedly have leaned toward the independents; next year it would lean toward the Greeks." Do not forget that we have outgrown the form of student government in which the Student Council, as a clique, has control. Our government has a system of checks and balances between the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches. Furthermore, you must realize that we now have three volumes of laws which were written by previous administrations to make it virtually impossible for the party in office to get far out of line.

This article and previous ones are proof of our third contention that the STATE PRESS has not grown with the institution. It is immature if the paper's policy is to accept rather than to remove apathy on the part of students about self-government.

So long as there is a crusade against a form of government, or conditions that no longer exist, it is sufficient proof the paper has stood still while the college has progressed. The bringing to life of dead issues and magnifying minor points of council discussions creates false pictures. A basic requisite of mature journalism is ACCURACY. To make the STATE PRESS a vital organ for better government, for student participation and for better citizenship in general does not seem to be the paper's goal. We are not a university. Let's have a university, not a high school paper. Let's "Teach people correct principles and they will govern themselves."

THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

On Other Campuses

By AMY RUSICH.

An inter-collegiate hop is sponsored by the sophomore class of colleges and universities in the San Francisco Bay area every year, reports the Golden Gate of San Francisco State College. Apparently it creates good will among the students of all the schools—maybe this is what UA and our university need to help solve differences of opinion.

The lead of a sports story from Pepperdine's "Graphic" reads: "Home after a disastrous road trip in Northern California, Pepperdine's Waves attempt to snag a four-game losing streak when they meet the Tempe branch of the University of Arizona in a return engagement."

Students at ASC, Flagstaff, really go wild with strange ideas for demonstration speeches. One student turned several rattlesnakes loose on the instructor's desk, which undoubtedly made the class head for the tall timber.

However, one of the most hilarious demonstrations given so far was a male student's lecture on the methods involved in pressing a pair of pants... so he took his pants off and proceeded to show the class the correct way to press them.

Letter To Editor

April 16, 1956

The Honorable William R. Mathews, President Board of Regents of the University and State College of Arizona Tucson, Arizona

Dear Mr. Mathews:

An article in the Arizona Republic of April 8, 1956, reported a policy clarification by the Board of Regents which prohibits the appearance of political candidates on state college or university campuses. The policy is not directly quoted in this article but it would seem that its purpose is to insure the public that State Higher Education facilities will not be exploited for campaigning purposes.

We certainly feel that no state institution of higher learning should ever allow itself to serve as a campaigning center nor should it be partisan on political or controversial issues. However, college and university students are today's citizens and tomorrow's leaders.

The importance of informed active participation in political affairs through the party of one's choice is a matter on which the national leaders of both great parties agree.

Mr. Hall states that he concurs with the President's statements that "Politics ought to be the part-time profession of every citizen who would protect the rights and privileges of free people and who would preserve what is good and truthful in our national heritage."

Surely Arizona's institutions of higher learning must play an important role in the vital job of keeping our democracy alive. As students at Arizona State College, it is our desire to promote this important function of our institution in every way possible. We feel that this should also be the desire, and certainly is the duty of the Board of Regents. Furthermore, we sincerely believe that the prejudices of our students against active political participation must be removed and that we must use practical methods for channeling the talented and imaginative student upon graduation into activity in the party of his choice. We feel quite sure these views are shared by the thinking students in all three institutions and respectfully suggest that student representatives meet together and prepare, for the approval of the Regents, a constructive and comprehensive program for citizenship education, which will not be merely adequate, but a model for colleges and universities throughout the United States. Such a program could include every reasonable safeguard against its political exploitation.

We are ready to work with you and under your supervision in order that the University and Arizona State Colleges may be truly the training grounds for tomorrow's leaders.

Sincerely,
 Committee, Executive Council

Artless

Dear Sir:

Recently as I was cruising by the Tempe campus I noticed someone had scrawled "university" across the college signs bordering the highway. Had this revision on the signs been done in a more legible manner it would have been well worth the time and effort put forth. However, the artless appearance of the handwriting spoiled the very thought and purpose which initiated the revision.

Perhaps the signs could be replaced with more artistic looking ones which display to all passers-by the proud name of Arizona State University.

Sincerely,
 DONNA PACE,
 Phoenix College,

Also featured were excerpts from Mozart, Strauss, Rossini, Beecham, Gillis, Nicolai, Leidzen, McBride, Mercer, Prevert and Kosma.

A large crowd of students, faculty members and guests attended.

Visiting Air Force Officers Inspect Cadet ROTC Group

The annual inspection of the Air Force ROTC unit took place Wednesday and Thursday when a three-officer team from Maxwell Air Force Base, Montgomery, Ala., visited the campus.

The three officers conducted an inspection of personnel and classroom activities, and observed the cadet wing on the drill field, after being escorted by selected cadets to the Air Science building.

Wednesday's schedule featured a briefing by the cadet wing staff and other cadet officers, and an interview with President Grady Gammage.

Thursday's activities included the wing review on the drill field and a noon luncheon in the Memorial Union with administrative officials. Cadet Wing Commander Thomas Tedrick presided during the cadet activities. Staff officers and commanders who presented reports at the briefing included:

Jack Nations, Loren Buyer, Duane Branson, Edwin Dabbs, Robert Jorgensten, Charles Tyler, Scott Robinson, and Arnold Rosenberg.

Council Sets Leadership Workshop For Payson Camp May 18-20

The Leadership Workshop date has definitely been set by the Executive Council for May 18, 19, and 20. Those attending will leave the campus Friday evening, May 19, and return around 4 p.m. on Sunday.

The weekend at the Arizona State camp in Payson, Arizona, will center around panel discussions for the orientation of new campus officers and the laying of better plans for next year's activities.

The Memorial Union Board reported that Mr. Tony Bustamante, Director of the Union, is considering a project for getting bowling alleys in the Union Building. The Board plans to talk with Mr. Gilbert Cady, administrative assistant to Dr. Gammage, about the possibility of getting Phoenix businessmen to help finance the alleys.

The Board also quoted the last month's expenditures of the Memorial Union as $6,900. For the same period of time, only $3,200 came into the Union fund.

Dates were set at the Executive Council meeting this week for several of next year's events. Homecoming is scheduled for October 27, climaxed by the game with San Jose State. Parents' Day was voted to be held Sept. 29. Senior Day is still pending among March 1, March 3, and April 13. Honors Day was brought up and considered, but nothing definite was decided.

Some of the suggestions made were to hold Honors Day on Parents' Day, discontinue it, and have an Inaugural Ball, or have a small Parents' Day in the fall and another larger one on Honors Day in the Spring. The question was finally referred to a committee composed of Dr. H. D. Richardson, Vice-President, Roger Rodzen, Bill Coles, and Gayle Berkenkamp.

Owen Dean, AMS president, announced that a banquet for the men students would be held on May 18, and although free, would be by reservation only.

Allan Green

For all of us, something to cheer about

ASSISTANT cheer leader Allan Green is a sophomore in the College of Letters, Arts, and Sciences of the University of Southern California.

He's also, through foresight, one of the youngest of the 46,175 people who hold shares in Union Oil, the 40th largest industrial company in the country. And his 55 shares entitle him to a report on our 65th year of business.

In 1955 our customers paid us the record amount of $368,760,900.

$59,286,200 of this amount, or 16.1%, was paid our 8,839 employees as wages and for benefits to protect them and their families.

Taxes took 3.6%. This does not include the $65,875,000 we also collected from customers as fuel taxes for governmental agencies.

We spent 72% with more than fifteen thousand other companies and individuals with whom we do business.

This left 8.3% of the $368,760,900 as net profit. Slightly more than half of these earnings were paid in cash dividends to Allan Green and our other 46,174 share owners, who also received one additional share of stock for each ten held.

The balance of net earnings, equal to 3.9% of the customers' dollars, we reinvested in the business for necessary expansion and modernization of facilities.

Whether or not you own stock in this or any other company, it seems to us that this report is of vital concern to you.

For so long as companies like Union Oil have the incentive to compete and make a profit, Allan Green and others like him will have the incentive to hold shares in that company.

This is the best possible economic climate for continuing prosperity. Which is, for all of us, something to cheer about.

What young people are doing at General Electric

Young chemical engineer works on new ways to make silicones

Silicones are a new class of man-made chemicals with very unusual properties. Made from sand, they assume the form of rubber, grease, oil and resin. Under extremes of heat and cold, the rubber stays rubbery, the oil oily. Silicones added to fabrics make them exceptionally water-repellent. Silicone makes waxes spread easier... paints almost impervious to weather.

One of the men responsible for finding new ways to produce silicone products is 26-year-old Frank V. Summers.

Summers' Work Interesting, Important

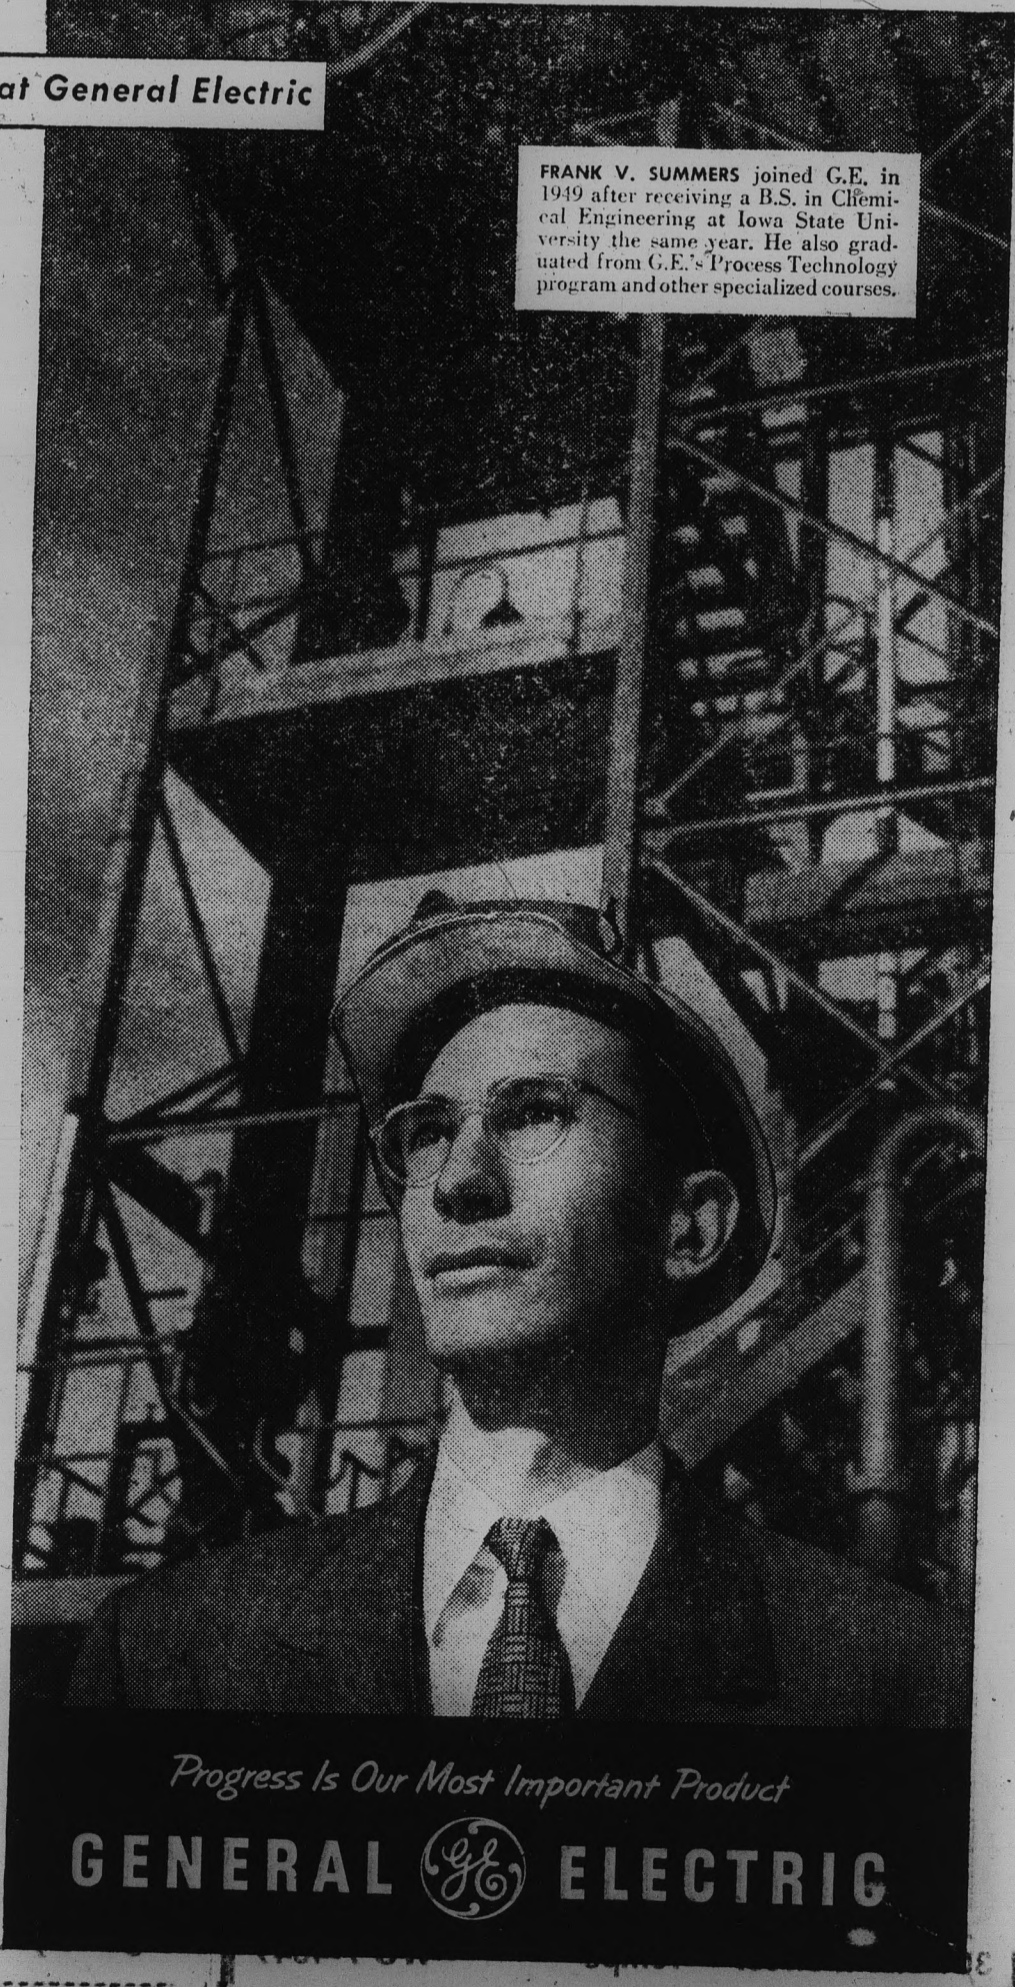

As process engineer of the Silicone Products Department, Frank Summers first compares the results of small-scale, pilot-plant experiments with the production methods in actual use. Then, using his own knowledge of chemical-engineering principles, he designs faster, more efficient and more economical methods of producing silicone products. Frank Summers' excellent training, diversified experience and outstanding personal qualifications make him a valuable contributor to this engineering team.

25,000 College Graduates at General Electric

When Frank Summers came to General Electric in 1949, he already knew the kind of work he wanted to do. Like each of our 25,000 college-graduate employees, he was given his chance to grow and realize his full potential. For General Electric has long believed this: Whenever fresh young minds are given the freedom to make progress, everybody benefits—the individual, the company, and the country.

Educational Relations, General Electric Company, Schenectady 5, New York

FRANK V. SUMMERS joined G.E. in 1949 after receiving a B.S. in Chemical Engineering at Iowa State University the same year. He also graduated from G.E.'s Process Technology program and other specialized courses.

Golfers Look To Revenge Cat Defeat

Marines Top Cindermen, Garcia Breaks Record

By DICK KIPPERMAN

Despite a record-breaking javelin toss of 242'7" by Benny Garcia and the first win of the season for the Devil mile relay team, an underestimated Marine track team from Camp Pendleton, upset the favored Sun Devils Monday night 70 1/3 to 60%.

Bob Mathias, the two time U. S. Olympic Decathlon champion competed in three events unattached, and handily won them. He hurled the discus 154 feet, threw the shot 49 feet and ran the low hurdles in 24.3 seconds.

Continuing to dominate the opposition, Leon Burton sopped a first in the 100 and 220 yard dashes in the times of :09.7 and :21.6; Dave Kenly vaulted 14' 5 3/4"; and Garcia also remained undefeated as he tossed the spear 242'7" to record his longest throw. It established a new school record previously held by

Vaulting Parson To Speak Here

Olympic champion Dr. Bob Richards, pole-vaulting parson from Long Beach, Calif., is to speak to Arizona State students Friday afternoon, April 27, at 2 p.m. in an all-school assembly in the Memorial Ballroom.

Title of the world famed athlete and popular youth speaker's address is "The Heart of a Champion." It will be an anti-alcohol talk by the vaulting parson who has soared 15 feet 5 inches for the second highest mark in history.

Bill Miller.

Sparked by Lee Holehan, the ASC mile relay team, edged the Marine quartet for their first win of the season. The winning time was 3:21.8.

In the middle distances, the Satans picked up two more firsts as Holehan captured first in the 440 and Dale Winder clocked a 1:54.7 880 for five more points.

Four of the six first places the Devils managed to salvage, were in the events in which they excel. The Devils who captured these first places are the ones who are undefeated in dual meet competition so far this season. In previous meets, it has been through the undying efforts of these three that have miraculously pulled the rest of the team out of deep waters and put them within striking distance of victory.

It has been this way throughout the six dual meets the Devil cindermen have competed in this season. The outcome has always been the same but for one exception.

For a team that has such great potential as the Sun Devils, it is pathetic that the lack of drive and fortitude on the part of several Devil thinclads that this potential has to be for naught and as a result, meet after meet has to be written down as a loss.

The Sun Devil track team is definitely weak in the weight events. This is evidenced by the fact that in the six meets that the Devils have competed in, seldom did an ASC weight man walk off with a first or second place. All of the Devil weight men are capable of throwing better than they have been. Whether it is a result of improper conditioning or just a case of laziness, is undeterminable.

This apathy is not only true in the weight events, but is more evidenced in the middle distance and distance events.

Many Devil spikesters are capable of turning in better times than they have this season. There have been some exceptional times turned in, but not consistently. There seems to be a lack of intestinal fortitude on the parts of some of these cindermen. Meet competition this season has been rough, but there is no reason for an athlete to admit defeat only because his competition has a faster time or farther throw; but instead, it should serve as an incentive to more diligent practice and training.

With the University of Arizona Wildcats moving into town for a dual meet on the night of May 5th, and the Border Conference Meet, of which the Sun Devils have won for the past three seasons, on May 12th, coming up.

If the Devils expect to defeat the University of Arizona and repeat as Border Conference champions, more drive and tenacity will have to be shown than has been evidenced in the past six meets.

Six Thinlies To Compete At Relays

Six Sun Devil thinclads left yesterday for Des Moines, Iowa, to compete in the Drake Relays.

Coach Baldy Castillo is taking with him the Devils' two-mile relay team of Bill Harper, Dale Winder, Ted Kiene, and Ray McKisson. The Satan two-mile relay team have finished first the last two years in the college division.

Co-captain Benny Garcia, undefeated in dual meet competition this season, will also be competing in the javelin event at Drake. Monday night Garcia set a new school record when he tossed the spear 242'7".

Pole vaulter Dave Kenly, whose best vault this season is 14' 7" will be the sixth member of the Sun Devil squad. Kenly is also among the unbeaten this season.

The Sun Devil two-mile relay team is capable of running a 7:49 for this event, but will be running against a quartet of Howard Payne College half-milers who have been clocked in 7:41 this year.

Kansas University's Les Bitnes will be competing at the Drake Relays and will offer Garcia stiff competition in the javelin event. Bitner, however, could only throw the spear 214'6" at the Kansas Relays last week.

Squad Travels To Tucson, UA Holds Early Victory

Looking to a revenge victory, ASC's golf team travels to Tucson tomorrow to face the University of Arizona.

The Cats squeezed past the Demon linkers 14-7 in an early season match on the Mesa Country Club course to hand the ASC crew their only loss of the season to date.

As a warm-up to the Arizona fracas, the clubbers of Al Onofrio waltzed past Phoenix College 19-2 last week-end on the Arizona Country Club links.

Coach Onofrio, discussing the coming Cat match, said: "We hope to turn the tables down there." The U squad now has a 14-7 record compared to ASC's 9-1 mark.

Duff Lawrence, Jim Bernard, Stan Hobart and Russell French will make the trip to the Old Pueblo, according to Onofrio.

Statistics released after 10 matches, show Lawrence leading the pack with an average of 71.8. Behind him are Bernard with a 73 average and Hobart with 73.3. Playing nine matches, Russell French, has compiled a 76.3 average for the nine-hole matches. Allan French, who has participated in five go-rounds, has a 76.

Hervie Simmons, playing in three of the tilts, has a 76.8 and Bill Davis, in his only match shot a 77.

U Whitewash Devil Netters

ASC's men's tennis team didn't prove much of a match as they were downed 9-0 by the powerful University of Arizona netmen last Saturday on the ASC courts.

Doug Harrington, playing in the number 1 slot for the Demons was topped by Gary Peterson, winner of many of the state tournaments, 6-1, 6-1 in the best match of the day.

This was the second consecutive loss for the Devils as they were scalped by the visiting San Diego Naval Training Center racquetmen 8-1 the previous day.

Other singles results of the Tucson match were: Schoop, UA, def. Milt Cordell, ASC, 6-0, 6-2; Burwick, UA, def. Vic Wyly, ASC, 6-1, 6-2; Clarkson, UA, def. Ronald Wright, ASC, 6-0, 6-0; Carrillo, UA, def. Joe Sanchez, ASC, 6-1, 6-2; Hubbard, UA, def. Harold Krichman, ASC, 6-1, 6-1.

Wrestlers - Gymnasts Show Progress

The State AAU Gymnastic meet was held last Saturday in Tucson at the U. of A. and Sun Devil Chuck McMahon returned with six medals. His fellow Sun Devil, Bob Foley, both of football sideline fame, placed second in tumbling and fifth on the parallel bars.

McMahon won the tumbling and took second in all-around rings, side-horse, trampoline, and parallel bars. Foley copped fourth in free exercise, and fifth in the long horse.

Tom Hairabedian, ASC graduate assistant in PE, won the trampoline championship, and Dick Jacobs, ASC alum and ex-Mr. Sun Devil, won third in the high bar and fourth on the parallel bars.

Norris Steverson, ASC Club director, announced that there will be a state high school gymnastic clinic today at 3, in which Hairabedian, Dave Goodman of PU, and W. U. Westervelt of Tucson high will instruct and demonstrate the different exercises.

This will be followed by a gymnastic festival at 7 Friday evening. The ASC club, like the Wrestling club, is attempting to gain personal support to become a varsity team.

The swiftly progressing ASC Wrestling Club met the University of Arizona here last Saturday and came out on the short end of a 29-24 score.

The Devil grapplers were obliged to compete twice in their weights to accommodate the U since the Cats presented a squad twice their number in size. A return match has been scheduled for May 5 in Tucson at which time ASC coaches Fred Bryant and Harve Jensen hope to field a much larger group.

Steve Hale of Mesa, ex-Rocky Mountain champ, officiated for the contests.

Satans Drop Twinbill To Wildcats, Thomas Blanks Devils In Nightcap

By STAN HALL

Recently released by the Border Conference are the final league statistics for the past football season. They show that Arizona State, who finished in second place behind Texas Tech, lead the loop in total offense, placed third in total defense, were second in rushing offense, first in rushing defense, first in passing offense but sixth in passing defense. All in all, that's not a bad record.

ASC also placed high in the individual state. Dave Graybill, voted the Most Valuable Player in the loop, finished second among the total offensive leaders. The versatile junior was in on 164 plays, gained 112 yards rushing, 1,078 passing for a total of 1,190 yards. Freshman Leon Burton, who only toted the ball 68 times compared to 209 and 149 for the other two of the top three, gained 694 yards for over 12 yards per carry. Art Luppino topped all BC ball carriers as he gained 1,313 yards in 209 jaunts with the pigskin.

In the passing department, Graybill lead the league. He attempted 132 tosses, completed 20, had 7 intercepted and accounted for 1,078 yards gained. On the receiving end, Charlie Mackey and Gene Mitcham, elected co-captains for the '56 Demons, placed one - two. Mackey snared 34 for 473 yards and five TDs while Mitcham caught 27 for 552 yards and one touchdown.

Sixty points by Burton gave him third place in league scoring.

Glad to see some interest shown on campus for wrestling. One of the most interesting individual sports to watch, college wrestling demands perfect physical shape, stamina and brains. Talked to Fred Bryant, P.E. instructor who along with Harve Jensen, is coaching ASC's wrestlers the other day. He tells me that although wrestling is such a fine sport, because it gives the little and big man the same chance to excell, it will never be put into the sports budget until student interest develops. For one, I would very much like to see Arizona State have a wrestling team.

If you have never seen collegiate wrestling, let me clue you in. It is one of the finest spectator sports in the bunch. So, if you get a chance, see some college grappling. I think you'll enjoy it.

By ABE GUTIERREZ.

Coach Mel Erickson's Devil nine, looking past their two hard-fought battles with the University of Arizona, will meet their 22nd adversary of the season today, April 25, when they take on the Grand Canyon team for the second time this year.

Phoenix will be the locale of the afternoon tussle.

Rested U. of A. hurlers Donnie Lee and Carl Thomas pitched their team to 4-to-1 and 6-to-0 margins over Arizona State's Satans on Saturday, April 21, at poorly lighted Rendezvous Park.

The twilight twin bill saw the sure-fire future big leaguers from the Old Pueblo choke the Devil bats for only three hits in all Demon times at bat for the day.

Lee doled out the three safeties in the first contest with Thomas coming back in the nightcap to riddle the Devil Hickory sticks. Big Carl gave nary a hit to the Staters in his nine inning stunt on the mound.

Thomas and Lee, rested by Cat Coach Frank Sanced for a week to be at their chucking best for the Demon series and sacrificing duties in games they possibly could have won, had their "stuff" working to perfection to halt the Maroon and Gold bat brigade.

"Rapid" Rex Brewster, who went the route on the hill for the Devils in the night clash, had his blazing fast ball, curve and slow change-up popping to the hilt as he chalked up 14 strikeouts to record the best results in that category for the day.

RECORD SETTER . . . Benny Garcia got off the best throw of his career last Monday night in the dual meet with the Camp Pendleton Marines to set a new Goodwin Stadium record and better the Border Conference mark. His toss of 242' 7" was called by the UP "One of the two best throws this year."

Intramural scene

Softball competition is now in full swing in the ASC intramural program with 15 teams entered.

Starting last Tuesday, the tournament will conclude when the schedule is completed.

Schedules are posted on the intramural bulletin board in the gymnasium. All managers should be sure of the time they are to play. Games are to start at 4 p.m. and forfeiture is required if the team is not ready to play by 4:15.

Following completion of league play, the two top teams from the Arizona, the State and the College leagues, plus two teams at large, will meet in a double elimination tourney.

Track preliminaries were held last Tuesday with the finals following on Wednesday, making it impossible for the STATE PRESS to obtain the results.

Only two events — swimming and golf — are left on the intramural calendar for this semester.

Bluejackets Scuttle ASC Spikesters

Four Goodwin stadium records were smashed as a powerful squad of Olympic hopefuls from San Diego Naval Training Center crushed the Sun Devil thinclads 101½ to 29½ last Friday night.

Sweeping seven of fourteen events plus a victory in the mile relay, the Bluejackets displayed amazing talent and versatility before some 2000 fans in Goodwin stadium.

The only first places the Devils salvaged were in the events in which they excel. The Devils who captured these first places are the ones that are undefeated in dual meet competition so far this season.

Jack Davis, former USC and Olympic star, rated as one of the world's greatest high hurdlers, ran a record breaking :13.8. It was Davis all the way, although it seemed at one time that teammate Milt Campbell, runnerup, to Bob Mathias in the Decathlon at the 1952 Olympics, would over-take him.

In the ASC-NTC meet Friday night, Benny Garcia, Leon Burton, Dave Kenly, Al Miller, Bill Roberts, Ray McKisson, and Lee Holehan were the only Devils to gather points for the "Castillo Men."

Garcia won his event by heaving the javelin 230' 8¾". Kenly vaulted 14 feet even, and Burton handily won the 100 and 220 yard dashes in the times of :09.9 and :21.8 respectively.

Roberts placed second in the high jump with a 6' 2¾" jump; Miller, the most underrated man on the Sun Devil track team, placed second in the javelin with a toss of 215' 11¼"; freshman McKisson ran a 1:55 half-mile, but placed third; and Lee Holehan took a third in the 440 yard dash.

A new freshman-sophomore honorary fraternity has been formed by the Associated Men Students Assembly. The fraternal group known as Alpha Mu Sigma, replaces the junior-senior organization which was disbanded.

"The purpose of Alpha Mu Sigma," said Owen Dean, AMS President, "is to carry on the activities of AMS and train its members in good leadership."

"Freshman and sophomore students are to be chosen on the basis of leadership qualities and at least a 2.25 cumulative index."

A selection committee will choose the men students for the honorary fraternity. The committee is comprised of four members from the faculty and five men from the AMS. The faculty members are: Dr. Shoemaker, Mr. Dolphin, Dr. Burke, and Dr. Becker. The AMS committeemen are Ed Shields, Roy Crosby, Leroy Whitson, George Lerg, and Ted Ragsdale.

WAC Interviews Slated Friday For Senior Coeds

Lt. Helen L. Peterson, Women's Army Corps Officer Procurement Member, will be at the Memorial Union Tuesday, May 1, 1956, to interview senior women concerning direct appointments as officers in the Women's Army Corps.

Under the present program, direct commissions as second and first lieutenants are being offered to women with college backgrounds between the ages of 20 and 33 who have the mental and character qualifications required of applicants.

Lt. Peterson is seeking young women of the executive type, with leadership qualities, and a good general education.

They are interested in teachers for kindergarten, primary, third, and sixth grades. Students interested in making an appointment should contact the Placement Center in the B.A. Building.

ASC Alumnus Awarded DSC

First Lieut. Charley L. St. Clair, a Distinguished Military Graduate of Arizona State's Army ROTC unit in 1952, has been awarded the nation's second highest decoration for valor, the Distinguished Service Cross.

The award was made for extraordinary heroism on July 13, 1953, in Korea.

St. Clair was serving as an artillery forward observer when his position was overrun by the enemy. Disregarding his personal safety, he called for artillery fire on his own position.

St. Clair was wounded in the hip and separated from his two companions. He spent seven days behind enemy lines, noting their dispositions, without food or water. On the seventh day, the lieutenant succeeded in reaching safety by swimming a river.
