

DIANA AND APOLLO... Royalty of Greek Week, announced at the IFC Sing Wednesday night, are Bill Spencer, center, Apollo, and Pat Tribbey, Diana. The winners of Wednesday's election among fraternities and sororities were announced by Marvin Hamby, IFC president, left. Spencer was nominated by Phi Sigma Kappa, and Pat by Kappa Delta. They will be crowned in ceremonies at tomorrow night's Grecian Ball.

Assembly, Banquet Planned

Women's Day Highlighted By Presentation Of Awards

By ROCHELLE MACKAY
Awards to outstanding women will be the highlight of Women's Day, scheduled for Wednesday.

"It's A Woman's World" will be the theme of the annual event. Ladies will attend classes and special activities in their "dressed" clothes and heels.

WOMEN'S DAY will begin officially with tapping new Pleiades and Spurs members at 6 a.m. The remainder of the day will be centered around the opening assembly in the Union ballroom at 11 a.m. and a banquet in the ballroom at 6 p.m.

The banquet, scheduled to honor outstanding women, to announce members of Pleiades, Spurs and the American Association of University Women, and to introduce newly elected hall officers, will be opened by Mrs. Grady Gammage and Dean Catherine Nichols.

Women students will be excused from 11 a.m. classes to attend the assembly which will feature Mrs. Wesley Johnson, president of the Phoenix Little Theatre Group, as guest speaker. President Gammage will open the program.

THE FACULTY Women's club will entertain at a luncheon following the assembly. Old and new officers of AWS, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Gammage, and Mrs. H. D. Richardson will be guests of the group. Women head residents have been invited to join the Faculty Women's club at the affair.

Billie Jane Narramore, president of AWS, will preside over the banquet, the occasion for the presentation of a number of awards. Trophies will be awarded to the dorm and other organization with the highest percentage of attendance, and a plaque will be given to the dorm with the highest scholastic index.

Announcement of the outstanding freshmen and 12 outstanding senior women will be made at the banquet by Pleiades members.

The American Association of University Women will announce the names of the two AS women who have been accepted into membership of the group.

Chi Omega sorority will present its annual award for Science.

MEMBERS OF the AWS council who are serving on the Women's Day committee include Barbara John, general chairman; Virginia Vaupell and Mary Vucuchich, co-publicity chairmen; Margie Cooper, assembly; Maurice Michelson, food; and Jackie Wageman, tickets.

All-School Picnic At Tempe Beach

Swimming, racing, eating and dancing will be punctuated by egg-tossing and a tug-o-war at the AMS All-School Picnic Tuesday. Festivities start at 1 p.m. Tempe Beach recreation area is the picnic site. A MEAL of beef, salad, ice cream and beverage will be served at a cost of 50 cents. Everything else, including the dance, is free. Students with meal tickets may use them instead of paying for food.

First activity to get under way will be swimming from 4 to 5:30. A madcap schedule of games and races has been set up by Tim Hogan, games committee chairman.

Competition in the games is open to anyone, faculty or student. Groups are being encouraged to enter teams, but everyone who wants to participate will be included. Trophies are to be awarded the winners.

AT 5:30, the chow lines open. After an interval for digestion, picnickers can adjourn to the

Groups Contest Results

Which fraternity won the Interfraternity Council Sing?

This question was still being asked late yesterday afternoon, after a mix-up in the official tally at the annual event Wednesday night.

Alpha Tau Omega and Phi Sigma Kappa were in the hassle, while Lambda Chi Alpha stood by to see where it would land in the shuffle.

IN THE Sing's sorority division, Chi Omega was winner for the fourth straight year, with "Madame Jeanette," directed by Pat Kane.

Kappa Delta sorority was second with "It's a Grand Night for Singing." Alpha Delta Pi's "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" took third place in the sorority division.

The fraternity division confusion came after Alpha Tau Omega had been announced the winner, with Lambda Chi Alpha second and Phi Sigma Kappa third. On a recount of the judges' votes, Phi Sig and ATO were tied. The tie was broken with a further breakdown of the voting, and Phi Sigma Kappa declared the winner, with ATO shuffled into second place and Lambda Chi Alpha third.

THE TALLY stood at that up to State Press presstime.

Late yesterday afternoon the Interfraternity Council was trying to figure out who was the official fraternity winner.

COWBOY BALLET - Arizona State Cowboy Buddy Martin goes up in action typical of what's in store for Rodeo spectators this weekend. The AS Rodeo Club will sponsor its Intercollegiate Rodeo at the Chandler Sheriff-Posse's Arena tomorrow and Sunday. Martin landed on his feet and walked away in this activity, shot in recent competition.

Ball, Dinner Final Events

Greek Week, half-way completed, will be climaxed with tomorrow night's Grecian Ball semi-formal dance and Sunday's Greek banquet.

Greek games, a street dance, and workshops yesterday, and Wednesday night's controversial IFC Sing kept fraternity and sorority members busy this week.

The Greek-letter organization members will wash cars this afternoon at Tempe service stations, the proceeds going to

Students Compete In Rodeo

By AL SKINNER

A barrel race for women and a calf scramble for men plus a special bare-back riding event for novices will be the three featured events of the Rodeo Club's annual rodeo at the Sheriff's Posse Arena in Chandler, tomorrow and Sunday at 1:30 p.m.

Kicking off this annual event will be the Rodeo Club's western dance to be held on the terrace of the Memorial Union tonight at 9. Joanne Smoot, Rodeo queen, will reign over the week-end of festivities with her attendants, Faye Mour and Katrina Sabey.

RODEO TEAMS from Palo Verde Junior College, Oregon Tech, Fresno State, California Polytechnic, Pierce Junior College, and Arizona State will compete in the judged events.

Entry fee for the rodeo is $2. The individual or group with the top points will be awarded a cash prize. A Traveling cup has been established for the winning Greek organization competing in the barrel race and the calf scramble. If one group wins the cup three consecutive years, they will have the privilege of retiring the cup.

During the two-day event, points will be compiled for individuals and team members for qualifying for the National Intercollegiate Rodeo to be held at Colorado Springs, Colorado. SIX JUDGED events will be offered in the two-day rodeo. Bare-back bronc riding, saddle bronc riding, brahma bull riding, calf roping, bulldogging, and team roping.

Members of the AS rodeo team include Phil Stockton, team captain, Billy Neal, Buddy Martin, Jon Nickerson, Kenneth Adams, Terry Jensen and David Nix.

Last year the AS rodeo team, traveling on their own expense money, won enough points to

GAMES WINNERS

As the State Press went to press last night, the following results were announced for the Greek Games. Phi Sigma Kappa won in the fraternity sweepstakes division. Tri Sigma was the winning sorority. The team of Delta Sigma Phi, and Kappa Delta won the big event, the chariot race, with Phi Sig-Tri Sigma second, and ATO-Chi Omega third.

a charity. Ron Carlson, service project chairman, announced that men and women will be washing the cars from 1 to 4 p.m.

TOMORROW night's Grecian Ball will feature music of LeRoy Baxter, Pat Tribbey and Bill Spencer. Diana and Apollo of Greek Week, will be crowned at the dance intermission.

The dance will start in the Union ballroom at 9 p.m.

The workshops earlier yesterday, were held in the Union building. They included talks on such items as fraternity and sorority rush, public relations, fraternity and sorority relationships, and others.

The banquet Sunday will be at 4 p.m. at Tang's Rice Bowl in Phoenix. Paul C. Jones, national president of Phi Sigma Kappa, will be banquet speaker.

King-Queen Papers Out

Petitions for the annual elections of campus King and Queen will be released Monday.

Students with a cumulative index of 2.00 of any class standing are eligible to run.

DEADLINE for petitions is 4 p.m. April 29. The election will be held the same week to determine the final outcome. There will be no run-offs. The election date has been set for Wednesday, May 1.

Results of the polling will be kept secret until the night of the Coronation Ball.

AS First To Offer BS Degree In 4-Year Nursing Course

Arizona State is the only institution in Arizona offering a curriculum in nursing leading to a bachelor of science degree.

The new School of Nursing, to begin next September, will offer a complete four-year curriculum leading to the Registered Nurse and Bachelor of Science degrees.

UNDER PROPOSED revisions of the present program, students will be allowed to complete a fully approved curriculum in four years instead of the five now required. The revisions put nursing education in Arizona on a par with other professional fields as pharmacy, engineering and business, stated Dr. Arnold Tilden, dean of the AS college of liberal arts.

A curriculum for the new school is currently being formulated by a special committee composed of Dr. Tilden, E. Loretta Anderson, Mrs. Josephine Barger, president of the Arizona State Board of Registered Nursing Education; Mrs. Jean Davidson, director of nursing

Nation-wide Humanities Leadership Emphasized In Three-Day Conclave

National leadership of Arizona State in Humanities training in the general education field is being emphasized in the three-day Humanities Conference which began on campus yesterday and continues today and Saturday.

Representatives from 24 Western colleges and universities are in attendance. This is the first Humanities Conference held in the West since one in San Francisco nine years ago, and the first ever held in the Southwest. It is held in cooperation with the American Association for Teacher Education and the three Arizona higher-education institutions, with this college as host.

The topic is the development of cultural understanding through Humanities courses, in which Arizona State has pioneered, with recognition throughout the nation as the consequence.

Tonight at 8 p.m., in Room 203 of the B.A. building, Dr. Robert D. Davidson, chairman of the Humanities at the University of Florida, will deliver the keynote address on "Present and Anticipated Problems in the Humanities." Students in Humanities 102 will be allowed supplementary activity credit for attendance at this address. Students in Art 100, Music 130 and 110, Architecture 100, Foreign Languages 100, and Philosophy 100, are especially invited to attend.

Dr. Davidson will also speak Saturday morning at 11:15, in the Library Browsing Room. The conference opened yesterday at the Memorial Union with Dr. Harry Wood, head of the Art department, presiding over a colloquium on the significance of Humanities courses. A second panel discussion on the content and structure of Humanities programs, will take place in the Browsing Room at 2 p.m. today, with Dr. Grant Fletcher, head of Music, presiding.

A third, also in the Browsing Room, will be held tomorrow at 9 a.m., with Dr. James J. Jelinek of the College of Education as moderator. "Current Trends in Humanities Education" will be the topic.

Dr. G. D. McGrath, Dean of Education, will preside at Dr. Davidson's speech Saturday morning. Participating in the various sessions will be Dr. Arnold Tilden, Dean of Liberal Arts and Sciences; Dr. Charles Meister, professor of English at Flagstaff; and Victor Baumann, professor of English at Phoenix College, as well as a long list of visitors from other Western States. The event is arranged by a committee consisting of Dr. Dorothy C. Schilling, chairman; Miles Dresskell, James W. Elmore, Dr. Herbert Gurnee, Jean Hopkins, Paula M. Kloster, Dr. Thea Parrott, and Dr. Irma WOMAN'S WORLD... Locha Diaz, newly elected AWS president illustrates the theme of Women's Day, "It's a Woman's World." Granting approval to the idea are Maurice Mickelson and Earlene Hicks, presidents of McClintock Halls "B" and "A". Women's Day takes place next Wednesday and is the occasion for the women on campus to appear in heels, hose and party dresses. Beginning the day's events is an assembly at 11 a.m. The annual awards banquet climaxes the day.

WINNER'S SMILE . . . Pat Kane reflects her joy at being the director of Chi Omega, the winning sorority, in the IFC Sing Wednesday. Marvin Hamby Greek Week chairman stands beside her. Second place winner in the sorority division was Kappa Delta and third was Alpha Delta Pi. The winning sorority was awarded a permanent trophy and a traveling trophy which remains in possession after three consecutive wins. Chi Omega took possession of a traveling trophy last year. This year marked their fourth consecutive first place.

Financial Aid Awarded Soon

It's still not too late to apply for non-academic scholarships according to the scholarship office.

Time is drawing short, however, and those interested should contact Bill Coulson, Scholarship Committee secretary, immediately for details.

Two new financial assistance programs have been made available. The Computer Department of the General Electric Company's Industrial Electronics Division has contributed $1500 to Arizona State for an honor program in computer engineering for the 1957-58 academic year.

From this sum, which will be administered by the AS Scholarship Committee, awards will be available to outstanding junior or senior computer engineering students of high academic standing.

Basic awards in the program will cover the recipients' tuition, fees and laboratory equipment. If funds permit, supplementary awards for other academic expenses may be made to the recipients. Interested students may obtain further information and application forms from Dean Thompson, of the College of Applied Arts and Sciences.

Harold H. Alpert, Phoenix real estate and insurance broker, has donated an annual $100.00 art scholarship to Arizona State. The scholarship will go each year to an outstanding junior or senior art major. Demonstrated ability and need for financial assistance will be the criteria of selection. The first award will be made this spring.

"This award is the first illustrating a trend toward offering assistance to students on the basis of art talent," said Dr. Wood, Art Department head. "The college is certainly appreciative of Mr. Alpert's pioneering in this field," he added.

education of the same board: Mrs. Vurlyne Boan, director of education at Good Samaritan and president of Arizona State League of Nursing; and Mrs. Mary Pittman, director of nursing at Arizona State Hospital where students will receive psychiatric training.

NEWLY APPOINTED head of the school of nursing is E. Loretta Anderson. Miss Anderson, appointed April 1, was formerly director of nursing at Good Samaritan since September, 1954. She received her Registered Nurse degree from Michael Reese Hospital school of nursing, Chicago, Ill.; public health nursing and bachelor of science degrees from the University of Minnesota, Minn.; and a master of science degree from Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y.

Miss Anderson also completed post-master's degree graduate study at Cornell and the University of Chicago.

A clinical training program is being worked out in conjunction with Good Samaritan Hospital in Phoenix. The hospital will have the only teaching program directly coordinated with and directed by AS. Clinical instructors will be AS faculty members.

FRESHMAN Students who elect to take their clinical training at another hospital may do so, stated Miss Anderson.

By offering the B.S. degree in nursing, Registered Nurses become qualified for public health nursing, teaching fields in nursing and further graduate work, according to Miss Anderson.

The AS Home Economics building was built in 1951.

Panhellenic Council Aids Sororities

By ROCHELLE MACKAY

Panhellenic Council is the organization which encourages and supports sororities and their campus activities. It is also the governing and coordinating body for the Greek women.

Other officers of Panhellenic Council include Joan Simms, vice-president; Rosie Talliver, secretary; and Nelda Saxton, treasurer.

Panhellenic Council is composed of two delegates from each of the six sororities and one delegate from the associate Panhellenic member.

AS SORORITIES on the Panhellenic council include Alpha Delta Pi, Sigma Sigma Sigma, Kappa Delta, Gamma Phi Beta, Chi Omega, Alpha Sigma Alpha, and Alpha Epsilon Delta, the associate member.

For the first time in AS history, Greek women will have a place to live together. The new housing plan, to be initiated this fall, will be Palo Verde ing plans to revise the various rules for rushing, pledging and initiation.

Under the direction of Sharon Neff, president, Panhellenic has teamed with IFC to sponsor the annual Greek Week.

IS THIS AUTOMATIC? Joy Dyer looks disgusted with Maud the cow when no results are evident from her milking efforts. The pretty coed has yet to learn that manual assistance is needed. Object of concern is the milking contest being held as a part of the Intercollegiate Rodeo competition today and tomorrow.

AW, COME ON. Joy makes an attempt to pump the cow with no success. Miss Dyer has only a few more minutes to get her task accomplished in the milking contest which takes place at the Chandler Sheriff's Posse Arena. This is only one of many events scheduled in the yearly competition.

AH, HERE WE GO. Now we have the right idea in the milking situation. Time is running out, though, and a rodeo club member makes a check on his watch for official timing. Other events included in the weekend events are a barrel race for women, a calf scramble for men, and a western dance tonight.

Study Begins For Degree

A program of study leading to an education specialist degree at AS will be put to use the first term of the summer session, announced Dr. Irving W. Stout, director of the graduate division, last Monday.

The education specialist degree is the fifth graduate degree Arizona State is authorized to grant this year. The authorization to grant this degree in December, 1954.

DESIGNED to develop specialization in some area of education, the education specialist degree requires one year of advanced study beyond the master's degree in education.

The curriculum leading to an education specialist degree is a terminal program and not an intermediate step toward the doctor of education degree, Dr. Stout said.

Areas of concentration open to candidates for the education specialist degree this summer will include public school administration, public school supervision, curriculum and instruction, guidance and counseling.

In addition to the master's and doctor's degrees in education previously offered by AS, the Board of Regents authorized AS on February 24 to grant master of arts and master of science degrees in ten subject fields.

Fox Speaks Here Today

The Arizona State Science Colloquium will play host to a noted computer scientist at 4 p.m. this afternoon in Science 250.

Speaking on "Numerical Solution of Partial Differential Equations" will be Dr. Leslie Fox, appointed first director of the new computer center at Oxford University, England.

DR. FOX, who received his doctor of science degree from Oxford, has spent the last ten years in the mathematics division of the National Physical Laboratory in England, working in numerical analysis.

DR. FOX has published about 20 papers on methods in numerical analysis, covering all branches of the subject.

Late Orders Cost Money For Seniors

OOPS! Seniors, you goofed if you didn't order your cap and gown prior to April 1.

The initial order was made April 1. All seniors placing orders for caps and gowns or announcements will be charged extra for the processing of a second order.

CAPS AND gowns formerly were priced at $2.80 but now will cost $3.30. The announcements have been raised four cents each. The price is now 20 cents.

Announcements are due to arrive in the bookstore May 1. Caps and gowns will be available after the rehearsal on May 24.

College Life Studied Here

American college life at Arizona State received a five-day study this week by a visiting representative of the U.S. Information Service in Tripoli.

Libyan employe and motion picture technician, Abdalla L. Shagruni, examined the curriculum and activities at AS and life in the southwest as part of an orientation program designed to assist him in interpreting American life to his Libyan countrymen.

PRESENTLY responsible for the USIS film program in Tripoli, Shagruni is also arranger for all film showings in Libya, and maintenance man for all equipment.

After completing studies at the Arabic Secondary School and evening language courses, Shagruni became a radio repairman of the British Information Service before joining the USIS staff.

Before Shagruni came to the AS campus, he received intensive training in Washington, D.C., emphasizing maintenance of projectors, amplifiers, and television receivers.

DR. W. P. SHOFSTALL, AS dean of students, served as Shagruni's adviser and planned his activities.

The AS Foreign Student Club officiated as host and provided a committee of students who served as guides. A reception was also held for the visiting technician and a list of activities prepared for his brief stay in this area.

Arizona State Will Host Student President Parley

Arizona State will play host to the 32nd annual convention of the Pacific Student President Association May 8 to 11.

Delegates from 120 schools, colleges and universities will meet here to discuss student government problems such as elections, finances, publicity, and student faculty relations.

THE DELEGATES will stay at the Valley Ho Hotel in Scottsdale, and meetings are scheduled for the Memorial Union on May 9 and 10, according to Kim Rose convention host.

This is the second time that Arizona State has been the host of the P.S.P.A. convention. It was held here in 1936 when James Creasman, present, Arizona State Alumni Secretary, was the student body president of Arizona State.

Workshop Scheduled For Payson

The Payson Leadership Workshop is tentatively scheduled for the weekend of May 18, Chairman Bill Cole has announced.

Attending the workshop will be the new senators, new board chairmen and members, old board chairmen, old and new AWS and ASM presidents, and faculty advisors.

OBJECT OF this workshop is to acquaint the new officers with the regular procedures of student government. They will discuss budgets, programs, and possible legislation.

It will not be all work for the group, however. Entertainment, under the direction of Pauli Udall, includes a dance, baseball, and swimming.

AS Rifle Team Schedules Match

The Arizona State Sun Devil rifle team will play host to teams from Texas Western, New Mexico A & M, and the universities of Arizona and Santa Clara in an invitational meet tomorrow in Phoenix.

Firing will be conducted starting at 8:30 a.m. at the Phoenix Union High School ranges and the standard National Rifle Association Collegiate Program of ten rounds each in prone, kneeling and standing positions will be fired.

THE TEAMS will be shooting for the "Arizona State" invitational trophy, and individual shooters will vie for first, second and third place medals.

Visiting teams will be the guests of the Sun Devils at the Arizona State-Brigham Young dual track meet at Godwin Stadium tonight. The Devil riflemen visited the Miners in El Paso in February and journeyed to Santa Clara last fall.

Applicants must be under 30, preferably single, able to speak English and French, and be a graduate by next June.

THE DEADLINE for applications is May 10, 1957. Interested students may obtain further information by writing the American Committee on United Europe, 120 East 56 Street, New York 22.

Musicians Audition For Scholarships

Auditions were held recently for special music scholarships and music activity scholarships. Special music scholarships include the Elenore Altman Scholarship which covers private music lesson fees for a piano major; and the Arthur Emery Harvey Scholarship in Applied Music, given in piano.

THE PHOENIX Symphony Guild also offers two scholarships for music majors which provide regular registration and class fees, non-resident tuition and a cash stipend of $200 a year, and require the recipients to audition for membership in the Phoenix Symphony orchestra.

The Mary H. Redewill organ scholarship covers private lesson fees for a student who has had previous instruction in organ.

Music activity scholarships provide for regular registration and class fees, and in certain cases for the remission of fees for private music lessons.

AUDITIONS were held March 23 in the Arts Building. Auditions for scholarship renewals were held the week before.

Everybody's Job

The Devil's Den poses quite a "housekeeping" problem. Students trooping through there in droves every day make mopping difficult and neatness impossible.

Sometimes the Den is in a slovenly state, of course, but the fault lies not only with the management, but with the patrons — the students.

THIS CONDITION, since the Den is one of the few places visited by nearly every campus visitor, need to be corrected. The solution lies in a compromise between the management and the students. If the management made more of an attempt to keep the place clean, maybe it would be contagious and the students would be more careful of their cokes, straws and cigaret butts while in the Den.

By the same token, if the students exhibited a desire for a neater, cleaner snack bar, maybe the management would take more pride in their housekeeping.

There is nothing more embarrassing or degrading than to bring a visitor to the campus and the new Memorial Union, only to have them sit in someone's spilled coke or have to wade through the debris on the floor.

ACTUALLY, the solution is simple. Everyone — from the Devil's Den management to the students — should take more pride in the place and thereby make more of an effort to really make that part of the Union a showplace for students as well as visitors.

Convention Aid?

Convention delegates are flocking to the campus. AWS, Panhellenic and Interfraternity Councils have already hosted regional conclaves. The Pacific Student Presidents Association gathers here in May, and in two years, a national AWS convention is on the agenda.

Just how welcome do the convention delegates feel when they arrive on a strange campus? Are cordial greetings extended only from the host groups?

EVERY STUDENT should make an effort to cooperate with convention committees by offering housing space and giving help when needed. Something more is needed, however.

A campus convention host committee might be a wise promotion move. Such a committee could prepare a brochure welcoming delegates and telling them of the campus life, giving them a map of the grounds, and stating general information about AS social life, available facilities, and nearby recreational areas.

This might be distributed to arriving delegates and also used as propaganda in obtaining convention bids.

It is a widely accepted fact that one of the best means of publicity is personal contact. When students from other parts of the United States know that Arizona State exists and has such fine academic and social facilities as the computer center, the solar furnace, the expanded liberal arts college, the good climate, the new Memorial Union, Arizona State's reputation and enrollment shoots up.

One visitor tells a friend, the friend tells a little sister and Arizona State gets another student.

It's up to us to see that the convention delegates get the proper impression of Arizona State.

AMS Working

One of the major projects of the Associated Men Students each year is the sponsoring of the traditional All School Picnic. Scheduled for April 16, next Tuesday, this year's picnic promises to be one of the best yet. The purpose of the picnic is to give Arizona State students a chance to get together for a day of outdoor fun during the spring when the out-of-doors seems the most inviting.

This year's picnic features an afternoon of swimming, games, a picnic dinner and a dance on the tennis courts in the evening.

EVEN THOUGH this is designed primarily for students, the faculty — this is All School Picnic and the faculty and staff are an integral part of the school — are encouraged to participate.

Last year AMS was faced with a mob rushing the dinner lines before the tables and servers were ready. This year we would appreciate your cooperation in waiting since this is a tremendous project and takes time.

ALL OF THE projects undertaken by AMS require cooperation of the entire student body.

I believe AMS has come a long way this year and feel this is due to the cooperation and help of the student body. I would also like to thank everyone for this help and say that if Roy Crosby, AMS president-elect, gets as much help next year there will be another successful Associated Men Students program chalked up for the enjoyment and education of Arizona State Students.

COEDS ON CAMPUS

Versatile Coeds To Be Honored At AWS Fete

By NELDA SAXTON

Coed shin in the campus spotlight Wednesday with the arrival of Women's Day.

Party dresses, heels and hose are in style as femininity comes to its ampus peak.

On this day of days women are supposed to be women. They are being honored by their men, their dormitories, their elders and their peers. They pause from the usual humdrum existence of bowing to the wishes of the ever-dominant male to blossom forth as WOMEN — separate individuals.

The high quality of these individuals is shown as the long-awaited awards are bestowed upon deserving women. Pleiades parade proudly — evidence of deeds accomplished — and Spurs carry the hopes of deeds to come.

Scholarship takes the spotlight for a moment when sorority, dorm and individual awards are presented. All-around superiority receives tribute as the top ten seniors are announced — those who do so much yet rarely receive due recognition.

AWARDS BY the hundred are presented and outstanding girls are honored at the annual much-anticipated banquet. Every group applauds when a member receives recognition.

This is one of the few things AWS does which the coed seems to feel deserves almost full support from the female student body.

It is the highlight of the year, and most certainly deserves the applause it gets. Parts of it are dull, but that's to be expected, we are told, when there are so many awards announced.

THE CHANCE of seeing honor after honor heaped upon the fair sex is a tremendous boost to the female ego. These awards naturally go to a few of the same women. A member of Pleiades who gets a scholarship trophy, a hall office, etc. etc. deserves it.

This, however, should serve as an inspiration to those coming up. There are plenty of awards to go around, and certainly they go to the deserving girls. Keep at it freshman, someday you'll be up there in Pleiades white.

This is all well and good for the women on campus, but what about the men. Granted that this is rather a dainty feminine thing, but it could just as well be geared along the masculine vein with a Men's Day. If the AWS Council can get with it for its women, how come, the men don't make a defense? Are they afraid the women will find out that men aren't really superior?

JOTS . . . Men, don't just stand there gawking next Wednesday when a gal walks past looking specially nice — tell her so.

OTHER PEOPLE'S TROUBLES

Kansas State Showers Brief-Water's Scarce

By EMIL LeGATES

"Shorter" showers have been the rule after gym classes lately at Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia, because of a water shortage in the Sunflower state.

But college officials labeled, as "false" rumors that the school would close because of the lack of water.

A LIONESS saw her young offspring chasing a hunter around and around a bush. The lioness growled fiercely at the youngster and said:

"Junior, how often do I have to tell you not to play with your food?"

One night not long ago the alcoholic division of our Kaffee Klatch got to talking over the various possibilities of summer jobs. Somebody mentioned that one of the boys was planning to work for the Forest Service as a smoke-eater.

We kicked it around for a while, and an opposition member confided that although the pay per hour was good, there might not be many fires. Would a guy have a chance to sock enough to cover next year's school expenses?

THIS MADE Mike McNulty bristle:

"Yeah, you just tell him to go to California — He'll get his fill of smoke-eatin' there. They have hundreds of fires every-year, and when they haven't got any fires, they have an earthquake.

"I swear, they're either goin' to burn that state down, or shake it to pieces."

Hollywood actress Barbara Rush spoke to Syracuse University students recently, and the Daily Orange reported her views on her profession.

Censorship is becoming less and less necessary, she thinks, because:

" . . . we're becoming more educated and poised. People are less Victorian now, and sex won't seem as naughty as time goes on." . . . Well, there goes another college activity.

"Gold, GOLD!"

EDITOR'S Scratchpad

By DON DOTTS

We've heard that a pretty coed, recently elected to next year's Student Senate, is now up for expulsion from the year's Senate because of non-attendance!

Someone say something? We're one of KASC's most ardent boosters. The campus station is professionally managed, and offers AS students a tailor-made program schedule.

When asked if we thought KASC really had any listeners, though, we had to answer honestly, "Not many at all."

This might be due to several reasons. We're sure that a big one, however, is the quality of reception, even on campus. KASC is a "wired wireless" station. This means that it has little power, but is carried by wire to most parts of the campus, to be heard in dormitories throughout the university. The station has physical facilities which cannot be matched by most commercial stations.

THIS MATER of reception must be improved. Could wires be strung across the highway to the five Adelphi fraternity houses, and the new 300-man dorm going up there? Could power be boosted a trifle, or more wires strung to remote parts of the campus so all students could take advantage of KASC's fine programming?

Right now, if you get a chance, turn your radio dial to 660—KASC. If you can hear it, you'll get good listening. You who drive to school can get the station on your car radios (on campus). Why not try it?

This year's Blue Key Carnival was the most successful yet. The honorary organization took in quite a bit of money for its scholarships. It seems there was a larger variety of things to do at this year's carnival. More groups sponsored booths than in any other year.

The small membership of Blue Key did a tremendous job in sponsoring what is becoming one of the campus' outstanding annual events.

SPEAKING OF best events of the year, Wednesday's IFC Sing turned out just as we expected. Again it was a great show for the spectators. Members of each group which sang really worked hard preparing for the big night, and it paid off.

The Sing is one of the biggest events the Greeks sponsor. Townspeople and students alike look forward to it.

Walked by this university's trophy cases yesterday in the Memorial Union building. What was there? Why, some sort of art exhibit, naturally!

WE'RE PROUD of our cultured campus, but where are all those trophies we're supposed to have? Isn't the logical place for them the trophy cases in the Union? Just thought we'd mention it — again.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"YES I'M GOING TO PASS YOU BECAUSE I'M TIRED OF HAVING TO MAKE UP NEW TESTS FOR THIS COURSE EVERY YEAR!"

AS In '52

It's been five years at ASC since:

The voting power of next year's Student Council hinges on the vote cast by ASC students today.

Reigning royalty for the annual Coronation Ball to be held in Mesa, April 25, will be elected today.

Leah Klein and Gerald Sanders will take part Sunday evening in another in the series of student music recitals on campus.

Thirteen students of the Soil Conservation class will take a field trip tomorrow to see conservation practices in various parts of the valley.

Senior student Lawrence Packard walked away with a first place award in discussion and speaking at the Phi Kappa Delta debate tournament in Stockton, California, last week.

The annual springtime run of lawn movies have resumed and, barring sudden showers, students may see free flickers every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. on the training school lawn back of Old Main.

Arizona State's athletic board of control may be ready to recommend a new head football coach by this weekend, Dr. D. R. Van Petten, athletic director, stated on Wednesday.

Last Year

One year ago today Arizona State Students were concerned about:

In a meeting at Tucson April 7 the Board of Regents approved a total of 1,076 applications for graduation from Arizona State on May 25.

Tempe Beach will be the scene of the annual all-school picnic next Wednesday, April 18.

Numerous activities have been planned for all Arizona high school seniors during Arizona State University's Senior Day, Saturday, April 14.

Over 150 exhibits have been entered in the Central Arizona Regional Science Fair scheduled to open here today.

The last in the present concert and lyceum series, Nan Merriman, will sing Wednesday, April 18, in the Memorial Union Ballroom. The concert is scheduled for 8 p.m.

Bohemian Ball, an all-school dance, will be held tonight, 9-12, at "Tony's Terrible Trap" in the basement of the Memorial Union.

An all-student and alumni art exhibition that opened Tuesday in the Memorial Union features approximately 250 entries.

ROTC units at ASC are preparing juniors for their six-week summer encampment at Fort Lewis, Washington.

Coke, Not Shoat

"Ah, hello there . . . You must be Hugo Sturdy, the outstanding senior swine judge from Qumquat, New Mexico . . . I'm Dr. Magoo."

"Yes, I'm Hugo . . . How do you do, Dr. Magoo?"

"Not Magoo, Hugo . . . It's Iagoon . . . Dr. Philbert S. agoon."

"Oh. Sure is a big school you all have here. I asked your people where your office was. Three said they didn't know."

"Probably a senior that lacks one hour of the graduation requirements . . . You have to take that into consideration, you know."

"Yea, I guess so . . . still he didn't have to yell at me."

LET ME show you around the school, Hugo. You know, we have the fastest growing school in this part of the country."

"Yea, that's what I've heard. I tried to read all that stuff they sent me in the mail last week, but I couldn't understand it."

"Sometimes the catalog is a bit scholarly for high school seniors. Well, let's go see some more of the campus."

"What's that building over there?"

"THAT'S M.O. BEST, a men's dormitory."

"What's the building over there by it that looks the same?"

"That's M. O. Best, too."

"Hey that's pretty neat . . . having the milking shed between the two wings of the dormitory."

"That's not a milking shed, Hugo . . . It's a recreation room for the residents of the dorm."

"WHERE IS the milking shed, then?"

"Out at the school farm."

"Where's the school farm?"

"How about a coke, Hugo?"

"Fine . . . That's what I came here for. I've heard you have some very fine shoats here in the swine department."

"Huh . . . Well, come on, Hugo."

"THIS SURE is a nice building . . . lots of glass . . . plenty of ventilation and everything."

"Yes, this building is only a year old. This is the Den . . . What do you want?"

"Where's the Shoat?"

"What shoat?"

"THE SHOAT you said we were coming over to see. You said this was the pen, didn't you?"

"No, no, NO, Hugo, this is the Devil's Den and I said 'do you want a coke' . . . not a shoat."

"Oh, I see . . . Sorry I mistook your Devil's Den for a pig pen . . . But as long as we're here we might as well have a coke."

"Yes, Hugo."

ON OTHER CAMPUSES

Home Ec Dean Encourages Men To Enter Field

"Men, you're missing the boat" claims M. Eunice Hilton, dean of the College of Home Economics at Syracuse University.

Miss Hilton said that those passing up Home Economics as a college major fail to understand that study of this field has progressed from "home making" into one of professional activity on the grand scale. She said that one young chap who majored in food handling had ten jobs waiting for him. Starting salaries ranged from $7,000 up.

Let's go men. Here's your chance to eat and make money at the same time.

The Kansas Daily Kansan exclaimed editorially when they discovered that married students were allowed to compete with unmarried students in a course at their university: "Marriage and the Family."

THEY DIDN'T think it just in allowing married students to compete with unmarried students. They figure that an arrangement could be made where the marrieds would not be asked to come to class until the second half of the subject matter is taught.

WEST TEXAS State's Buddy Knox had good and bad news together this week. He was to appear in the Ed Sullivan Show but is supposed to be inducted into the service the same week. For those of you who haven't heard of him, I'm sure you have heard his current number five hit "Party Doll."

We Wonder . . .

Why are so many dances and other student body events piled up at this time of year, while so many other weekends are empty?

Why are there three or four "official" calendars where various student events "must" be recorded. Such calendars are maintained by:

1. The office of the associate dean of students.
2. The ASAS activities vice-president's office.
3. The Memorial Union head office.
4. The Interfraternity Council.

Why isn't there one truly all-inclusive, official university calendar?

Why aren't class elections held with the ASAS voting? It would bring a better turnout, and keep everyone from getting tired of voting week after week.

Fraternities Plan Varied Events As Part Of Pre-Easter Rosters

Delta Chi Raffles Portable Television

Delta Chi is planning to raffle a portable television set and several other prizes on the evening of May 3 as a fund raising campaign of the fraternity. Also on the Delta Chi agenda is a miniature golf tournament to be held April 11-14, with trophies being awarded to the winners. May 4 the fraternity's plans for their annual Sweetheart Formal will be realized. The fraternity's new pledges include Charles Miller, Allen Benedict, Fred Boley, Phi Masters, Paul Widmer, Gene Kersten, and Robert Iaciono. Norm Christenson, Joe Noncheck, Allen Benedict and Phil Masters will fill the positions of pledge president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and sergeant at arms, respectively.

Alpha Epsilon Pi Convention Bound

The Western Regional Conclave of Alpha Epsilon Pi is to be held on the UCLA campus April 20-22. The AS AEPI basketball team is considered one of the top contenders for the Western Regional championship.

Field Day Slated By Alpha Gamma Sig

Alpha Gamma Sigma's are in the process of planning an Aggie Field Day for all agriculture students, April 16, which will include panel discussions lead by AGS men. The agriculture faculty and students will clash in a softball game in the afternoon to climax the event.

Phi Kappas Greet National Chaplain

Saturday, Phi Kappa fraternity will welcome their National Chaplain, Father Weisenberg, to Arizona State. A breakfast in his honor Sunday morning and a luncheon Monday are planned for Father Weisenberg.

Sigma Nus, Dates Venture South

Sigma Nu fraternity gave a Palm Party at the VFW ballroom with a South Seas motif Friday. Everyone wore sarongs and beach hats, and drank refreshments from ripe coconuts to complete the hall decorations.

Teke, Alumni Give Oak Flats Picnic

Tau Kappa Epsilon alumni threw a picnic Sunday for the undergraduate chapter at Oak Flats, just north of Superior. Teke plans now include a return engagement featuring an alumni-undergrad game, the losers supplying the refreshments.

Found A Greek Toad? Return To Lambda Chis

By AMY RUSICH

If anyone finds a toad running around campus, please return it to the Lambda Chi house as soon as possible. More than ten toads destined for the Toad Hop Wednesday escaped last Monday night leaving the toad finding committee in despair. All turned out well even though some toads had to be used twice.

DISASTER, in the form of a "high tide" washed away the bridge in front of the Delta Sigma Phi house late Sunday night.

The pledges and actives of Alpha Tau Omega held a work day Sunday — Hmm... It must have lasted into the evening too!

Connie Wagoner was recently chosen Alpha Gamma Sigma Sweetheart. Connie will reign over the AGS Spring Dinner Dance.

PHI KAPPAS are busy shopping for wedding gifts for Marilyn Hood, Chi Omega, and Mike Coffinger who will be married April 22 in Phoenix. Marilyn is Phi Kappa's 1956 Sweetheart.

The women of Alpha Delta Pi are awaiting the forthcoming April marriages of their sisters JoAnn Phlegler to Gene Gilman and Ellen Amberg to Bill Stamp.

Austin Myers, ATO, has announced his pinning to Mary Lou Pyle, Chi Omega, recently.

Phi Sigs Host Sixty Delegates

Sixty undergraduates and 15 advisers and officers of Phi Sigma Kappa will start arriving tonight for the fraternity's Region Five Conclave.

The men, representing nine chapters in California, Nevada, and Arizona, will attend the all-day conclave tomorrow, and be guests of the Arizona State fraternities and sororities at the Grecian Ball tomorrow night.

THE MEETINGS will be broken up into discussion groups on fraternity operations. Among the officers attending the conclave are Paul C. Jones, national president.

DIAL KASC

KASC Plans Staff Dinner For May 18

By DICK MACORRIE
KASC plans an awards banquet for May 18. The dinner will take place at the La Casa Vieja in Tempe.

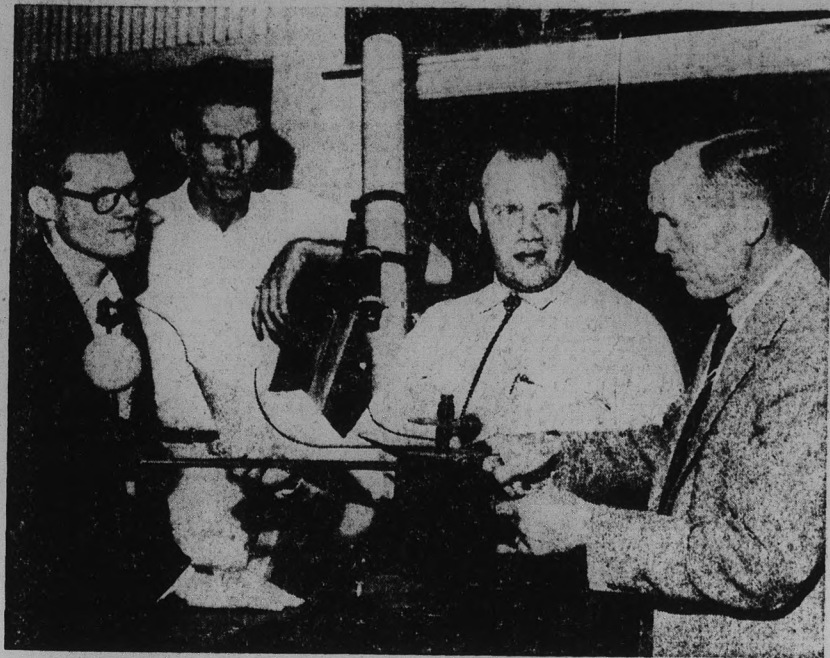

Bruce Ballard, Kasey station manager, said, "We have planned an evening of fine entertainment for the staff. Special awards will be given to outstanding staff members."

AWARDS WILL BE given to the best announcer, male and female, best disc jockey, best newscaster, outstanding personality, best FM announcer, and the most valuable KASC staffer.

An award that stands in a class of its own will be given for the GooF Of The Year.

THE CAST of announcers on Night Watch find the students to be very interested listeners. Roger Davis, Roger Kudron, Jack Reader, and Dixie Peila have been kept busy answering the phone and playing record requests of the students.

Driving home this Easter? Why not be a pal and give someone a lift? The trip won't seem near as long if there are people riding with you, and you'll be doing them a terrific favor, too. For both those who can give rides and those who need 'em, headquarters is the Information Desk at the Memorial Union Building.

COMET CAPERS... Officials of the AS Astronomy Club display equipment they will use in a comet and planet observing session Tuesday, April 16, 6:45 p.m. in front of the Science building. Left to right: Rick Wenck, science council representative; Loyd Brumage, vice president and science council representative; Arthur Louis Joquel II, president; and Dr. F. G. Yale, club advisor.

Comet Appears April 16

A new comet and the planet Mercury, will be the target for the Astronomy Club's telescopes April 16 at 6:45 p.m. in front of the Science building.

The comet, first one of importance since 1943 and possibly the brightest one since 1910, is just coming into position after circling the Sun. Comets have been extremely rare for the past fifty years, and the club has hopes of observing this one before it disappears.

THE CLUB'S other telescope will be trained on the Planet Mercury, just visible at sunset. Description of the coming transit of this object across the Sun will be given on the afternoon of May 5, according to Arthur Louis Joquel II, club president. Later in the evening the telescope will be focused on the Moon and the planet Jupiter.

Sororities Slate Activities

Sigma Sigma Sigma Celebrate Founding

The 59th anniversary of the founding of Tri Sigma sorority will be observed Monday evening with a dinner and ceremony at the Feedbag. Arrangements for the event will be in charge of Shirley Weber. Tri Sigma was founded April 20, 1898, in Farmville, Virginia. Installation of the new Tri Sigma Executive Council was held last Monday before the members attended the Greek week reception.

ADPi Mothers' Club Treats Actives

The business at hand for the Alpha Delta Pi Mothers' Club is the coming Pot Luck Dinner they will give the sorority alumnae, mothers, and actives in the near future.

Who rates what for performance and smoother riding in the low-priced three? Chevrolet has laid the answer and the proof on the line!

First, Chevrolet won the Auto Decathlon over every car in its field, and over the higher priced cars that were tested, too. This rugged ten-way test (right, below) showed Chevrolet was the champ in handling ease, braking, acceleration, passing ability, smoothness of ride and other driving qualities you want in a car.

Then, Chevy won the Pure Oil Performance Trophy at Daytona (left, below) as "best performing U. S. automobile."

It's quite a feeling to know that you are driving a car that performs so well, responds so beautifully and is so finely built. You feel proud, of course. But you also enjoy a surer, smoother, steadier way of going, a keen cat-quick response of power, and the easiest handling you've ever experienced behind a wheel. Just try this Chevrolet (V8 or Six) and see!

Chevy showed it's still the champ... at Daytona... and in the Decathlon!

Groups Initiate Students

Biologists' Orientate New Initiates

A pre-initiation meeting was held April 2 by Beta Beta Beta biological honorary, for the purpose of orientating initiates. Future plans are being arranged for an initiation banquet in May.

Advertising Fraternity Initiates New Members

Twenty new members of Delta Sigma Pi were initiated April 7 at Cadda City. Highlights of the event were an afternoon initiation, a banquet consisting of steak dinners, and a dance from 9:30 to 12:00 p.m. Judy Combs, Rose Queen of the fraternity, was presented with a bouquet of red roses.

Engineers Plan Trips Elect Officers

The Engineers Club will meet April 17 at 7:30 p.m. in the Memorial Union, Room 209, to plan several field trips and a picnic. Tentative plans will also be made for the annual trek to Hoover Dam. A movie will be shown on the Nikie Guided Missile. According to Joseph R. Roulhae, press representative, the meeting is open to the public. All engineering, pre-engineering, technology and industry students are urged to attend.

New officers were elected April 3. They are president, Philip Ernst; vice-president, Jerry Hodges; secretary, Bob Anderson; and treasurer, Ray Veir.

Alpha Delta Sigma Hears National Bank Speaker

"The young people of today should be 'free-wheeling', creating new ideas and not following old patterns," stated George Christie, Vice-President of the First National Bank of Arizona.

Mr. Christie addressed the members and guests of Alpha Delta Sigma, the honorary advertising fraternity at ASC, last Tuesday in the Memorial Union.

PROFESSIONAL members of ADS, Sherm Payne, advertising manager for Arizona Public Service Company, and Bob Speakman, of Arizona Wild Life and Sportsman Magazine, also spoke to the group.

New officers recently elected in the advertising organization are Larry Huckler, president, Andy Lamber, vice-president, Jack Reaser, secretary, and Charles Gmieri, treasurer.

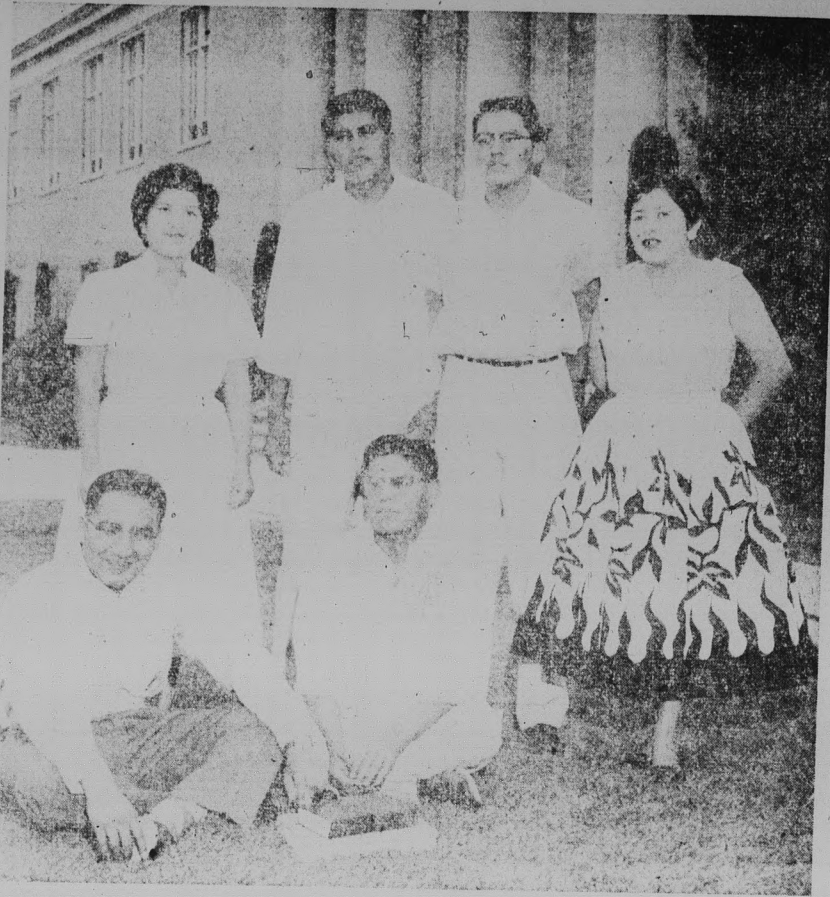

Robert Zacher is the faculty advisor to ADS and the organization is guided by the Phoenix Advertising Club.

Organizations Schedule Varied Activities; Events Include Dinner, Dance, Field Trip

South Hall Holds Dinner-Dance

"Rhapsody By Candlelight" is the theme of South Hall's annual dinner-dance tomorrow evening at the Arizona Ambassador. Girls and their dates will have a buffet-style dinner and will dance to the music of Sam Margolis from 7 to 12.

Marie Haas is general chairman. Committee members are Pat Tracy, Lucha Diaz, Sally Shannon, Nita Harvick, Barbara Terman and Sandy Davidson.

Geology Club Slates May Activities

The annual Geology Club spring field trip to Northern Arizona and Southern Utah is scheduled for May 1 through 5. Only geology majors and students taking geology courses may attend the trek to the Grand and Zion canyons.

The groups will be accompanied by Dr. Virgil Becker, faculty sponsor.

May 8 is the date set for the spring installation banquet to be held in the Memorial Union Faculty Dining Room.

Those who will be installed are Elizabeth Dingbaum, Joe Kemer, Ralph Rowell, Ronald Anderson, Mike Scullin, Harry Steeper, John Reilly, Darrell Danahery, Bob Finger, Kenneth Buell, Thomas Brooks, Bob Fisher, John Ziegler, Wilma Gray, Gene Dobbins, Bob Stone, Roger Groves, Tom Clary, and Bill Twitty.

Welfare Group Changes Meeting Schedule

The Social Welfare Club will replace its bi-monthly meetings with informal luncheons in the cafeteria every two weeks at 12:30 p.m., it was announced by Mrs. Naomi Harward, sponsor.

April 17 is the next luncheon date.

German Club Outing is Saturday Night

Members of the German Verein, Arizona State German Club, have been invited to the Phoenix German-American Society's monthly get-together Saturday night. The evening's festivities will be highlighted by a dance starting at 9.

Purpose of the outing is to promote a closer understanding of German culture in correlation with the study of the German languages.

Students, Faculty Boost Annual Beaux Arts Ball

Faculty and students who attended the Beaux Arts Ball in the Union last Saturday unanimously agreed that the event should be an annual affair.

The costume ball followed a "Paris After Dark" theme, complete with cigarette girls and depicting Paris scenes, such as the Place Pigalle, the Eiffel Tower, and L'Arc de Triomphe.

"A wide variety of costumes showed a great deal of originality and effort on the part of students and faculty," stated Dr. Robert W. Coorod, one of the costume judges for the event.

Winners of costume prizes include Carol Westfall and Tony Reale for most original couple; Jane McCullough, Jim Wilson, Pat Dawson and Bob Foley, most authentic couple; Patricia Wood and Ronald Wright, most original individuals; Eddie Toporic, most authentic individual; Paul Whipple, funniest; Ellen Savage, most frightening; Jane Sauer, prettiest costume; Dr. and Mrs. Robert A. Heiman best faculty costumes; and Arnie Rosenberg, most pitiful attempt.

Decorations for the ball showed an enormous amount of preparation. A scene of downtown Paris, painted by the Art department, served as backdrop for the band. On the far wall L'Arc de Triomphe was painted by Kevin Brown. The Eiffel Tower, in small scale, rested on the piano. The Sky Light Terrace was set up as an open air cafe, while the ballroom was converted into the Club de Champs Elysees for the event.

Jean Pierre, Chavy and Pierre Perrier, foreign exchange students from Paris, acted as co-masters of ceremonies for the floor show billed as "A Touch of The Folies Bergere." According to Bill Sullivan, publicity chairman for the event, the French students added an authentic air as they introduced acts and led the group in singing Allouette, famous French song.

Religious organizations have scheduled a variety of activities for the week remaining until Easter vacation.

Wesley Foundation members have planned two events for the weekend. A treasure hunt, slated for tomorrow at 8 p.m., will kick off the two-day agenda. The hunt, stated Marjorie Fletcher, press representative, is guaranteed to take participants to new and exciting places.

A special schedule has been set up for Sunday. An Easter play, "The Magdalene," will be presented by the Tempe High School Methodist Youth Fellowship at 8 p.m. to culminate afternoon and early evening activities.

Wesleyan Singers will have their practice at 5:30 p.m., followed by dinner in the Wesley lounge at 6:30 p.m. The evening program, "Esumenicity," under the direction of Sharon Cantor, will begin at 7 p.m.

NEWMANITES resumed their regular meeting schedule last Tuesday after relinquishing the time for a Mission held at Mount Carmel Church. The group's current project is to sell coffee and doughnuts after the 6:50 a.m. mass during Lent. The Lutheran Students Association has planned a group dinner at the Big Apple to precede their Sunday evening meeting. The dinner is slated for 6 p.m.

LAS members who need rides from the campus should meet in front of Danforth Chapel at 5:30 p.m. on Sunday. Phoenix residents may meet at the same time at the home of Jerry Buecher 1741 E. Culver, for rides to the Big Apple.

Jane McCullough, Jim Wilson, Pat Dawson and Bob Foley did such a good job of representing the entire Y-kum family that the judges awarded the authenticity prize to all of them.

Originally sparred with Pat Wood and Ron Wright dressed as courageous riders of a Model T, complete with dusters, goggles and a bonnet for Pat. Eddie Toporic wore the costume of a Don Cossack dancer and Paul Whipple was judged funniest in a Cub Scout costume.

Ellen Savage, using her last name for an idea, donned a mop of orange hair and a savage make-up job and was judged most frightening. A Colonial gown with hoop skirt, a powdered wig, and pink mask made up the costume of Jane Sauer.

Hooky-players, Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn, were personified by Dr. and Mrs. Heiman for the faculty award. Arnie Rosenberg's pitiful attempt was a costume of slacks, dress shirt, tie and a very fashionable scoop-necked night gown.

Judges for the ball were Dean and Mrs. W. P. Shofstall and Dr. and Mrs. Coorod. Warren Summers, Social Committee chairman, was in charge of the event.

The AS Science building was built in 1949.

Professors Participate In Conclave

Attending the fourth annual conference of the Rocky Mountain Council of Latin American Studies were: faculty members

Dr. Arnold Tilden, dean of the College of Liberal Arts; Dr. Russell K. Bowman, head of the department of Foreign Languages; Dr. Paul Miller, professor of Geography and Geology; and Mr. Tom Herick, instructor in Latin American Area studies.

The conference was held April 4-6, at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas.

MR. HERRICK was Chairman of the Nominating Committee for next year's officers. He also participated in a panel discussion of "Recent Trends in Ibero-American Historiography and Related Activities."

Dean Tilden was chairman of a panel discussion on "Recent Political and Economic Development in Ibero-America."

Dr. Miller is a member of the executive committee of the Council.

According to Dr. Bowman, the next convention will be held at Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah, in 1958.

Arizona State's present name was designated in 1945, changed from Arizona State Teachers College.

Demon Thinclads Meet BYU Tonight

By JEFF KIEHL
 Alex Henderson, Arizona State's one and two mile whiz, will probably not compete in tonight's meet with Brigham Young. The Aussie ace has been in the college infirmary since Wednesday morning with an undiagnosed malady.

Infirmary personnel yesterday stated that he would not be able to run tonight. Goodwin Stadium will be the site of one of the season's finest track meets, when the ASC Sun Devils host Brigham Young University in a dual cinderfest today at 7:30 p.m. The Mesa, Arizona bolstered Cougars from Utah boast some of the nation's top performers. Hurdler Eldon Hastings, weight man Gary Merrill, pole vaulter Marcus Nielson and broad jumper Weldon Jackson are all Mesa High products, and figure to pick up points for the BYU cause.

HURDLER Richard Millet, who formerly starred for Phoenix College and Mesa before entering the service and spending two years on an LDS mission will be another main threat for the Utahans as he has turned in 14.4 and 23.1 clockings in the high and low hurdles respectively. Hastings and Dave Parker also have approximately the same times.

Sprinters Harry and Roland Anderson pose a threat for Devil's Leon Burton and Tom Pettit in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Both are around 9.6 in the century and Harry has a 21.3 time in the 20. Arlyn Finlison heads a fine array of quarter milers with a 48.8 mark in his event.

Onofrio's Linkers Clip Cats

By AL SKINNER
 A 15-3 win over the UofA boosted the Sun Devil's golf team winning streak to eight straight last weekend at the El Rio Country Club in Tucson.

Stan Hobert and Dirk Prather shot 1 under-par 69's to share co-medalist honors.

ARIZONA took one of the four matches when Jack Conrad beat Jim Bernard, 3-0. Conrad had the low score for Arizona with a 71.

Prather shot his best golf of the season although he was bothered by faulty putting.

Prather and Hobert had the best-ball score of 63.

THE SUN DEVILS will meet their toughest test of the season this week-end when they host New Mexico University at the Arizona Country Club.

Billy Swope, 1956 Skyline Conference individual champion, leads the invading New Mexico team Saturday morning.

Duff Lawrence leads AS scoring this season with a 72.62 stroke average, followed by Dirk Prather with 72.85 and Stan Hobert with 73.10.

Wulk To Employ Fastbreak Play

By ABE GUTIERREZ
 "I plan to recruit first in Arizona, very definitely," disclosed Arizona State's new basketball coach, Ned Wulk, in a telephone conversation with the STATE PRESS yesterday.

Wulk, speaking from Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio, also stated that after seeking potential college basketball players in this state, he would emphasize recruiting in California and the Midwest.

"THE FAST BREAK will probably be our offensive attack. We've always used that set-up here in Xavier and I've always believed in a lot of unning for my players. Players don't have any business in basketball if they don't intend to hustle and run."

Defensively, the 37-year-old mentor said he plans to use man-to-man and change-of-pace patterns with very little or no zone defense.

Head of the Physical Education Department at Xavier, Wulk plans to have the freshman team practice with the varsity next year. He said that the hiring of a student or graduate assistant to head the frosh squad.

"THE TREMENDOUS growth and future of Arizona State, academically and in athletics, and my close acquaintance with Mr. Clyde Smith were the two main factors in why I accepted the position."

Mentioning that he thought Arizona State has a great potential in basketball, Wulk further stated that he is very anxious to start his new position here.

"I'm very anxious to begin my new job and am looking forward to meeting the people of Arizona, especially the coaches. If a coach desires to build his basketball team to a high standard, those contacts with prep mentors are essential."

COMMITTED to fulfill his contract at the Ohio school until June 1, Wulk is planning to come to AS in early June or July.

Xavier's basketball team for the last two years has reached the quarter-finals of the National Invitational Tournament under the guidance of Wulk. His squad compiled a 20-8 record last season.

A graduate of LaCrosse State College in Wisconsin, Wulk played football and basketball while there under Clyde Smith, now Arizona State's athletic director.

BEFORE accepting the Xavier position six years ago, the new Sun Devil mentor had various prep coaching jobs.

Smith said that over 100 applicants applied for Coach Bill Kajikawa's old spot. Arizona state high school coaches applying were Wade Oliver, Ed Long, Verl Heap and others.

The three are former Satan basketball stars.

"IN SCREENING the applicants for the position, it was imperative that the man offered the position has the same high standard of conduct as our former basketball coach, Bill Kajikawa," said Smith.

Two Demons Take Honors At Spikefest

Arizona State's two top track and field performers, pole vaulter Joe Rose and miler Alex Henderson proved themselves among the top in the nation Saturday, as each turned in winning performances at the annual Texas Relays.

Rose set a new Relays record with his winning vault of 14' 3 3/4", which is still below his top mark of the year (14'6").

HENDERSON, the Australian freshman, was declared ineligible for the 2-mile due to an NCAA ruling that freshmen are not allowed to participate in college or university division events in NCAA championship competition. Alex, though handicapped by a wind, later went on to cop the mile in a time of 4:12.5, finishing with yards to spare.

The relays is one of the outstanding meets of each year, drawing top athletes of the country. This year's competition featured Olympic stars, Bobby Morrow, who won the 100 in 9.3, and ran on Abilene Christian's world record-breaking 440-yard relay team.

Eddie Southern, Olympic hurdle star, won the high hurdles and ran on the Texas relay team that shattered the world's 880-yard relay record.

AS Splits Series With Aggie Nine

By PHIL KEYES
 Utah State mauled the Sun Devils' top two hurlers in a pair of error-ridden baseball contests over the week-end but managed only a split of the series.

The Utes shelled Dave Graybill and Joe Kostyk Friday for a 17-14 victory, but AS came back Saturday afternoon behind a 16-hit barrage to win, 19-12.

THE DEMON defeat was the second in 13 games this year, and Graybill's first setback after five straight victories.

Helping to account for the two football-like scores were 30 errors, 14 by Arizona State. The two games produced 62 runs on 51 hits and 31 walks.

Utah State broke the first game wide open with a seven run sixth inning, routing Graybill and erasing an AS 6-5 lead. George Stettler slammed a bases loaded home run to put the Utes ahead, 9-6. Graybill departed from the game in the seventh, charged with 11 of the Aggie runs.

UTAH, aided by two Demon miscues, added five runs in the eighth off Kostyk, while the Devils rallied for eight tallies in the bottom half of the same stanza.

Outfielder Bill Mead contributed two homers and a single to the Devil cause.

Saturday, the Devils were never headed, as they built a 3-0 first inning lead and tallied four more times in the second on Hadley Hick's round-tripper with the bases loaded. Hicks later added a double and a safe bunt for a team-leading total of three hits.

FIRST baseman John Jacobs clouted a two run home run in the fourth inning. Jim Sims hit a solo homer in the sixth.

The Utes pecked away at the AS lead with a pair of tallies in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings and rooked Sims for three markers in the seventh. The big blow in the seventh was a three-run home run by outfielder Sam Winters.

Substitute shortstop Jack Blake became the fourth AS home run hitter when he bashed a two-run circuit clout in the seventh canto.

SET AND GO. Sun Devil Eddie Griggs will be featured in the century and broadjump tonight against BYU. Griggs best effort in the broadjump this year is over 24 feet. He is also a 6-foot high jumper.

Intramural Scene

The Har-Penn Hawks, Los Conquistadores, Roughnecks, Phi Epsilon Kappa and Lambda Chi Alpha are the Intramural league leaders in softball this week.

Lambda Chi, with its 2-1 record, paces the Arizona circuit; PEK is the frontrunner in the State league with a clean 3-0 mark; Roughnecks is also 3-0 to hold the reins in the Tempe class; and Los Conqs and the Hawks share the College leadership with identical 2-0 slates.

TWO MORE weeks of action remain on the softball front. Delta Sigma Phi is still in front in Intramural team totals with 131. Vic Wily of PEK is the individual sparkplug with 40 points.

A MANAGERS' meeting is to be held in the Intramural office on Wednesday at 3:15.

Frosh Infielder Bolsters Satans

An 18-year-old freshman who never played high school baseball is currently Arizona State's starting first baseman and third in batting with a healthy .364 mark.

Farmboy John Jacobs, who came here last September from St. Joseph's High School in Hays, Kansas, is the youngest member of Mel Erickson's varsity nine.

THE 6'-1" ace from the wheat land, where he operates a tractor on his father's farm near Hays during the summer months, has belted three home runs, five doubles, and driven in 13 runs to help Arizona State win 11 of 13 games.

Although Jacobs had no chance for prep baseball, he played on a junior league team at the age of 12. He followed up three years later in American Legion action and last summer was with the Hays Larks, semi-pro club.

The calm first-sacker boosted the Larks to second place in the West Central Kansas League in 1956 with his .350 batting average. He finished sixth among hitters in his loop during the campaign.

AT ARIZONA State, Jacobs is a resident of M. O. Best "A" and is majoring in general studies at the present time.

Although he is only in his first collegiate year, the youthful sparkplug has kept Sun Devil fans enthused with his power hitting and stellar infield play. Coaches agree he is one of the finest baseball prospects in modern Arizona State history.

Sun Devil Netters In Court Action

After getting off to a slow start this year due to lack of candidates, the Arizona State men's tennis team on April 4th took a 6-1 match from Phoenix College on the local courts.

Yesterday they went to Luke Field to meet the Fliers for the first time this year.

PHOENIX College singles results were: Chuck North (AS) def. Larry O'Hara (FC) 6-4, 6-1; Doug Harrington (AS) def. Gordon Mohr (FC) 6-3, 6-0; Ed Evans (AS) def. Ted DeBerry (PC) 6-2, 6-3; Dave Mecke, (AS) def. Bob Usdane (PC) 6-8, 6-3; and Jerry Alfred (PC) def. Phil Fry (AS) 6-4, 3-6, 3-6.

Doubles scores were: Harrington-North def. O'Hara-

Mohr 6-2, 6-3; and Evans-Mecke def. DeBerry-Usdane 6-1, 6-1.

Six Arizona State racquet club members will have their work cut out for them when they enter the Arizona Open Tennis tournament in Tucson, this weekend.

The six are Georgene Brock, Quola Hatch, Lois DuBois, Doris Hirose, Norma Haskew, and Judy Benscoe.

IN LAST year's meet held in Phoenix, DuBois went to the quarterfinals in the singles. She, Brock and Benscoe are the only veterans from last year's team.

The tournament, which is open to any amateur in neighboring states, offers some of the best competition found in the Southwest, according to tournament officials.

Four Game Series

Sun Devil Baseball Squad To Host Wisconsin Crew

By BILL DOYLE
 The University of Wisconsin Badgers of the Big Ten Conference will meet Arizona State in a four-game series starting next Thursday at Tempe.

The Badgers finished third in the Big Ten last year with an 8-4 record.

HAMPERED by cold and snow, they have only been able to hold a few outside practices this year.

The Badgers, coached by veteran mentor Art (Dynie) Mansfield, now in his 18th year, have played only two games this season, both against Washington University at St. Louis, Missouri.

Their mound staff, which appears to be the best in recent years, includes veterans John Aehl, Pat Cvengros, George Schmid, Jim Sepich, and sophomores Jim Rosneby, Jim O'Toole, Bill Schweers and Ross Wandschneider.

LAST season Aehl had a 10-5 record, Cvengros was unbeaten in his last four games, and Schmid racked up a 4-1 record. A broken ankle kept Sepich from pitching last year, but in 1955 he had a 2-3 mark. Top relief pitcher on the 1956 staff was Dave Rowlands, however he may be tried as a starter this year.

The Badger infield appears strong with two top candidates, Walter Holt and Wayne Kellihier, trying out for the initial sack. Also available are Chicago sophomores John Brick and Dave Moriarty. Holt last season batted .327.

The strongest positions on the team are up the middle where second baseman Bob Rorrerani, a .328 hitter last season, combines talents with shortstop Jim Schultz. Backing them up will be team captain and center-fielder Bill Rubin.

AT THIRD base will be either Ron Knoll, who hit .636 in limited service last year, or sophomore Dick Stivers, whose timely hitting may give him an inside track for the position.

John De Merit, who last year set a record for home runs hit in a single season with 12, will be in rightfield. Left field will be held down by either Gerry Mattson, Ron Neiman, Ward Johnson or Holt.

THE CATCHING department appears to be solid with lettermen Ken Townsend or Kellihier shaping up as the two top candidates.

For the Sun Devils, the big guns could be Bill Mead, who leads the club with his four home runs thus far in 13 games, and Dave Graybill with his .537 batting average.

Five other players, John Jacobs, Bill Porter, Don Banewicz, Hadley Hicks, and Mead are currently hitting well above the .300 mark.

THE TEAM also is maintaining a 12.1 runs per game average in 13 plays.

Familiar Foes On Grid Slate

Release of the 1957 Sun Devil football schedule shows only one change from last year's slate. Montana State will replace North Texas State. Otherwise, AS will again face the same four Border Conference foes and five non-conference teams.

THE DEMON gridgers will play six home contests again, the first one Sept. 28 against Idaho University. The season will end Nov. 30 with the Devil's annual battle with the University of Arizona at Goodwin Stadium.

G.E. Grants Given To AS

Grants totaling $4,000 for the establishment of a General Electric Computer Department Honors program at AS and the University of Arizona were announced Tuesday by H. R. Oldfield, Jr., general manager of the department.

The Honors program at AS establishes an undergraduate grant of $1,500 which is to be used to sponsor the registration fees and laboratory equipment for juniors and seniors during the 1957-58 academic year. The program at the University of Arizona establishes a graduate grant of $2,500 to sponsor one graduate student next year, plus tuition and laboratory equipment.

In the case of the graduate grant, the student selected by the UoA must be a duly registered PhD candidate in the School of Electrical Engineering and his dissertation should be in the field of electronic digital computers.

THE AS recipients must have high academic standing and be duly registered as bachelor of science candidates in computer engineering.

Meet Faculty

Dean Assists Growth

A fifty percent increase in next year's teaching staff of the College of Business Administration was announced this week by Dean Glenn D. Overman.

Dean Overman said that the increase is a result of a reorganization of the college to provide students with majors in fields that before were not available.

The dean, who came to Arizona State from Oklahoma City University this fall, is a World War II veteran. He saw duty as a naval officer in the South Pacific, where he was attached to the Marine Corps.

DEAN OVERMAN did his graduate work at Indiana University, from which Clyde B. Smith, of our P.E. Department, graduated, and where Dr. Marvin H. Alisky, who will take over as head of the Department of Mass Communications next semester, has been teaching.

When asked what his pet peeve was Dean Overman replied, "My pet peeve is people who don't do as much as they could."

HOP, YOU FOOL . . . Giving last minute instructions to the winning toads as they put them into the entry circle of the Lambda Chi Toad Hop, are representatives of Sigma Pi fraternity, Matthews Hall, and Kappa Delta sorority. The toads were named Lucky Livermore, Margaret Gisolo, and Marvin Karp after Arizona State faculty members. Winner of the sweepstakes was the Sigma Pi toad. Toads of Matthews Hall and Kappa Delta won in their respective divisions. Trophies were awarded to the groups and the faculty members whose name they carried.

Event's Results Hit Peak

A record was set in this year's Blue Key Carnival.

Ticket receipts from the carnival were $841.90. After expenses $366.64 was turned over to Blue Key for its scholarship fund.

Alpha Delta Pi again led organizations in the annual affair by clearing $62.56. Sophomore Council was second with $32.88, and Pan American League was third with $31.81.

CHI OMEGA'S balloon throw netted $30.68, and McClintock A completed the list of the top five with $23.98.

McClintock A had originally netted $108.50, top money in the carnival, but expenses were $76.53.

Checks for expenses and refunds are now being mailed, Nick Salerno, carnival chairman, said.

Askin' Around

How To Improve Parties?

This week's question asked by the State Press inquiring reporter was, "What do you think can be done to improve the Associated Students social program?"

David Rubin, Senior majoring in Geology—"The activities which have been planned and carried out this year . . . should be carried out every year. Traditional activities which can be bettered every year . . . are good for the campus."

JACK ROOK, Sophomore majoring in Engineering—"Have more beer parties. . . I thought the Union Birthday party was really nice."

Sharon Canter, Freshman majoring in Education—"Actually I don't believe the program itself needs improving, just the publicity of the program."

Leroy Andrews, Senior majoring in Physics—"Plan some activities for non-dancers."

ALICE HOWELL, Freshman majoring in English—"There should be less competition between organizations and the Associated Students."

Max Richards, Freshman majoring in Political Science—"I feel there is a definite need for more balance in the program . . . spread out the activities more, even if it means dropping some of them."

Jim Turner, Senior majoring in Education—"Center more of the activity around the various religious groups on campus."

Jim Rowe, Freshman majoring in Business Management—"The ones they have now are good, but they don't have enough events . . . have more events."

LOIS CERWINSKE, Freshman majoring in Elementary Education—"I don't believe the program needs improving, the publicity either. If students don't participate it is because they're not interested."

Jim Aguilera, Freshman majoring in Business—"Have more social and academic activities, say about one a month."

Competition For Cover Offers $25

Is any talented student interested in making $25 the easy way?

If so, Associated Students is sponsoring a cover contest for the fall issue of the Arizona State Calendar-Handbook.

All cover entries must be turned in no later than May 17 at the ASAS office on the second floor of the Union.

DICK FINLEY, 57-58 activities vice-president, stressed the all-school aspects of the calendar. He said a desirable cover should give a comprehensive look at campus activities including academic work, traditions, sports, cultural events, social life and faculty-student relations.

Covers will be judged by the Executive Council. Qualities such as originality, imagination and suitability will be judged.

Speech Class Semi-Final Results Released

Three semi-finals in the Speech To Inform contest were held on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Winners of a contest held Monday were Mary Johnson, first place, Fred Collins, second, Bernadine Fawlowksi, third.

Cordelia Scholey, Gerald Davidson also placed.

THE SECOND semi-finals held on noon the next day, placed two winners in first position, Elmer Hatfield and Emanuel Rosenfeld. Second place went to Clarelle Hagerty, with Lyle Hawk in third place.

Last semi-final of the week placed Charles Leech in first position, Barbara Ziegler, second, and Shirley Ann Duncan, third.

Finals will be held Monday from 2 to 4 p.m. with the following ten speakers participating: Mary Johnson, Shirley Ann Duncan, Fred Collins, Charles Leech, Barbara Ziegler, Emanuel Rosenfeld, Elmer Hatfield, Lyle Hawk, Clarelle Hagerty and Marie Kappes.

WINNERS of a speech contest to be held Tuesday will participate in the intra-class contest. Semi-finals will also be held at that time, with finals occurring Wednesday at 3 p.m. All students are invited to attend.

Choir To Sing Mozart's Mass

Mozart's Mass in C Minor, one of the famed German composer's finest works, will be presented in Phoenix on May 14 by the Arizona Symphonic Choir.

AS Executives Attend Conclave

Two newly appointed delegates from AS attended the Western Regional Conference, President's Committee on Education Beyond the High School, held in San Francisco Wednesday and Thursday.

THE DELEGATES, Dr. Grady Gammage, president of Arizona State, and Dr. H. D. Richardson, academic vice-president, attended the conference to consider steps western states can take to prepare now for the vast increase in college enrollments expected during the next two decades.

Dr. Richardson served as recorder for one of the discussion groups.

WILLIAM J. Hersey, director of recreation at the hospital, said there is a great need for any and all types of books and magazines for patients.

He said the hospital would pick up the books if notified they were available.
