State Press Plans Twice Weekly Issues

Editors Positions Given Hall, Saxton

Twice weekly publication of the State Press and next year's Sahuaro and Press editors have been announced by the Board of Publications.

In deciding to publish the newspaper twice each week next year, on Wednesday and Friday mornings, the Board left the way clear for the present staff to start the new schedule next Wednesday, to take advantage of the last two weeks of publication.

The next issue of the Press will appear Wednesday morning.

Nelda Saxton will edit the State Press next semester, the board announced, and Graydon Hall will head the yearbook staff.

Miss Saxton has served this school year as State Press managing editor, and was organizations editor last year. This is her third year on the staff.

Hall is assistant Sahuaro editor, and is finishing his second year on the yearbook staff. Both new editors will name their complete staffs later in the school year.

Next year's Press, when published twice a week, will probably be tabloid size, Editor Don Dotts announced. With an average size of eight pages each issue, the two issues per week will just about equal the news space in the present eight-page full-size editions, he said.

"We hope this is another step toward a good daily campus newspaper for this growing university," Dotts said.

GO-O-O-O DEVILS! . . . Yell leaders for next year have been practicing in preparation for a big year with new yells. Dave Barnes, right, was recently named head yell leader. Others, from left, are Joe Phillips, Betty Oda, Bob Reynolds, and Janice Woods. Weekly practices are being held by the boosters each Tuesday at 4. Additional leaders will be added to the group next fall.

Gordon Band On Program, Starting At 8

The Coronation Ball, grand finale of the year's social events, is set for tomorrow night in the Memorial Union Ballroom from 8 until 12.

An expected crowd of 2,000 will view the coronation of campus royalty and a 45-minute to one-hour floor show by the Mills Brothers. Dance music will be provided by Claude Gordon and his orchestra.

THE MILLS Brothers, scheduled to perform at 10 p.m., will be preceded by the coronation of the campus king and queen, whose identity will be kept secret until the coronation ceremony at 9:15 p.m.

An added attraction of the ball will be the presentation of newly elected ASAS officers who will flank both sides of the stairway leading to the royal throne.

Kim Rose, ASAS president, will emcee the royal procession as it enters the south door of the ballroom and marches to the stage at the north end.

THE ROYAL COURT, complete with pages, jesters, flower girls, robe and crown bearers, and the king and queen, will proceed down an aisle, lined by the king's court composed of Air Force cadets.

Campus king and queen will be crowned while seated on thrones decorated with helium-filled balloons covered with sparkles. This theme will be carried out in the rest of the ballroom and the Skylite Terrace. The band will play from a platform at the west wall.

Trophies will be presented to the king and queen, and the queen will be given a bouquet of long-stem yellow roses.

CANDIDATES for queen include Bea King, Billie Jane Narramore and Gwen Newman. King candidates are Gerry Machmer, Arnie Rosenberg, Warren Summers, Tommy Hill and Dick Kosidowski.

The Den will be open during the dance for the convenience of those who wish to purchase refreshments.

Summers, Social Board chairman, is in charge of the dance.

ERNEST J. HOPKINS

Honors Talk To Be Given By Hopkins

Ernest J. Hopkins, AS journalism professor, has been elected by the faculty to deliver the principal address at the traditional Honors Assembly May 24.

The choice of Hopkins as speaker was announced yesterday by Dr. H. D. Richardson, AS academic vice-president.

DR. RICHARDSON said that election as honors speaker is considered one of the highest tributes bestowed on a faculty member by his colleagues.

Hopkins' reply, when interviewed, was, "I am both deeply gratified and distinctly humbled by the honor, and I shall try to have something significant to say."

Debaters Rated Tops In Nation

Arizona State's debate team of Frank Gadiant and Al Flewelling has taken top honors at the national Pi Kappa Delta forensic tournament at Rapid City, S. D.

A TOTAL of 104 colleges and universities representing 41 states participated in the annual tournament which began April 14.

Gadiant, a junior from Rock Island, Ill., is majoring in electrical engineering in the college of applied arts and sciences at AS, and Flewelling, junior from Phoenix, is majoring in social studies in the college of liberal arts.

Dr. William H. Stites, assistant professor of English, coaches the AS debate squad. During the past semester, Arizona State was represented at the Western Speech Tournament in Stockton, Calif., and the Rocky Mountain Forensic tournament in Denver, Colorado. At the Denver tournament, the girls' team took first place, with Beth Brokaw and Benetta Brewer sharing the honors. At the Southwestern tournament in Tucson, the team of Max Richards and Gadiant placed third.

Next year, Arizona State will be host for the regional Pi Kappa Delta tournament to be held during Easter vacation.

DR. STITES urges all who are interested in being on a debate team to contact him at English 104-B. There are always openings and training should begin as soon as possible, he says.

To Follow Devils

'Migration Train' Planned For Fall

A guarantee for a Southern Pacific train for a migration trip to San Diego for the Oct. 26 meeting between the Sun Devil and Aztec grid teams was announced this week.

Making the announcement, Jim Gould, Rallies and Traditions Board chairman, said the trip is still in the preliminary planning stages. The final decision will be made by the students' enthusiasm for the idea, being tried here for the first time. Migration trips have proved very successful at many other colleges and universities,

Gould said. "THE WHOLE IDEA of having a large group of students traveling to a game together is to build and promote unity between individuals and campus groups," he said.

"The cost of the trip will be around $30 per person, and Southern Pacific requires a minimum of 275 passengers before they make the trip since the special train will have to be brought in from Houston or San Francisco," Gould added.

AS NOW scheduled, the train will leave early Saturday morning and arrive in San Diego in time for about four or five hours of sightseeing around the famous Southern California city.

Mr. Eugene Brock, advisor to the Rallies and Traditions Board, said that the group has been working on the special fare and the trip arrangements for about six weeks.

"These migration trips," he said, "have been tremendously successful at many other schools, and I don't see why they can't be just as successful here. Our students are as live as any."

The decision to make the San Diego game the one for the trip was reached after careful consideration of costs, travel time, weather and things to see and do in the town chosen, said Gould.

Turnout Light

In voting for campus king and queen, 830 students went to the polls Wednesday, ASAS President Kim Rose informed the State Press.

There was only one castout in the entire balloting, Rose said, due to incorrect marking. Three women ran for the title of queen, and five men were in the running for king.

Winners will not be announced until tomorrow night, when they will be crowned at the Coronation Ball at the Union building.

Pacific Schools Presidents Meet

Student body presidents from 11 western states, Canada, Mexico, and Hawaii, will convene at Arizona State for the Pacific Student Presidents Association convention, May 8-11.

Over 170 delegates from 120 schools, colleges and universities will meet here to discuss student government problems such as elections, finances, publicity, and student faculty relations.

The convention is scheduled to get underway with registration Wednesday morning and a banquet that night. The key note address at the banquet will be given by General William Dean, widely recognized Korean war hero.

Convention delegates will stay at the Hotel Valley Ho in Scottsdale. Meetings are to be held in the union Thursday and Friday.

Petitions Ready For Who's Who

Nominating petitions for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities are now available.

Petitions may be obtained in the Office of Student Affairs, Administration Building, Room 103, and turned in not later than Monday, May 13, 1957.

Nominations can be made by any official college organization, faculty member or collegiate student.

QUALIFICATIONS for Who's Who stipulate that the candidates must have at least 84 semester hours of credit by September of '57. This provision includes graduate students who have not already been elected. Each candidate must have attained at least a 2.00 cumulative index at the time of selection.

Candidates are judged on the basis of extra-curricular activities such as organization membership, offices held, and committees, and honors based on ability which include scholarship, athletic, recognition, debate and drama.

THE COMMITTEE in charge of selection is comprised of the ASAS officers, Senior class officers, presidents of AMS and AWS, and the Chief Justice. The chairman, ASAS president, will vote only in case of a tie. Other non-voting members are the Dean of Students and his associates.

In the final selection all qualifying applications will be read in full. Students will also be enabled to keep their application up to date until the actual voting takes place.

WAC Story Told In Film

The full story of the opportunities of a career in the Women's Army Corps will be outlined to interested women next week by 1st Lt. Lorraine Rossi, Arizona regional WAC recruiting officer.

Lieutenant Rossi will show a film on the executive life of a WAC officer and answer questions on duties, pay, social life, training assignments, and travel.

NOTICES will be posted in all women's dormitories Monday designating the dorm and hour at which the film will be shown.

Further information may be obtained at the Army ROTC office on campus or by telephoning extension 443.

Top Students Are Chosen To Honorary

The selection of thirty-four students for membership in Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary society, has been announced by the Arizona State faculty members.

A partial list of those replying to invitation and their grade index is as follows: graduates, Lela Belle Barkley, 3.85, Charles F. Brown, 3.87, Frances H. Hill, 3.51, Doris Jo Howard, 3.97, Glenn A. Kovar, 3.78, Donald W. Rehorst, 3.59, Mrs. Lixie G. Zimmer, 4.00.

SENIORS: Charles N. Abraham, 3.70, Carole J. Anderson, 3.67, Mrs. Nellie Black, 3.72, Herbert E. Hackett, 3.56, Doris Ann Holtgreve, 3.85, La Vonne Mae Lutz, 3.50, Maurice Mickelson, 3.55, Mrs. Alma Hayes Munsell, 3.51, Ronald C. Murphy, Jr., 3.64, Robert E. Novascone, 3.52, Nelda L. Saxton, 3.64, Richard L. Schaefer, 3.57, Raymond E. Veir, 3.68, Darwin D. Van Campen, 3.65 and junior Richard D. Wenek, 3.87.

Membership is limited to graduate students and seniors who achieve a 3.50 cumulative grade index and juniors 3.75.

Closing Drama Production Scheduled For 4-Day Run

Final rehearsals are being held for the Drama Workshop's spring production, "Grahame Crackers."

The Dana Thomas play will be staged in the Fayne Training School Auditorium the nights of May 7, 8, 9, and 10. Curtain time for the fast moving three-act comedy is 8:30.

Tickets for the public may be purchased for 75 cents at the auditorium daily from 12 to 2. Student tickets will be given upon presentation of activity cards.

BECAUSE there will be a limit of 75 seats for each performance, it is advisable to purchase tickets in advance.

Miss Vera Zimmerman, director. Sharing the spotlight are Marley Patterson as Jane, and Kenneth Dabrow as Peter. OTHER members of the cast include Brenda Bell, Darla Bowers, Clarelle Hagerty, James Joslyn, Bob Magid, Genevieve Pease, Dolores Rutowski, and Charles Taylor. "Grahame Crackers" is the final Drama Workshop production of this school year.

General R. Scott ROTC Speaker

Main speaker for the ROTC honors ceremony and parade May 24 will be Brigadier General Robert L. Scott Jr., commander of Luke Air Force Base.

Both army and air force ROTC units will participate in the annual program which begins at 8 p.m. in Goodwin Stadium.

His books include: "God Is My Copilot," "Damned to Glory," "Runway to the Sun," "Between the Elephant's Eyes," and "Look of the Eagle."

Before being assigned to Luke as base commander on Oct. 1, Gen. Scott was director of information services, Office of the Secretary of the Air Force. He commanded the Jet Fighter School at Williams Air Force Base, Chandler, from 1947-49.

AFTER THE outbreak of World War II, Gen. Scott was active in the pioneering phases of Air Force activity in the China-Burma-India theater of war.

IN OCTOBER, 1943, Gen. Scott returned to the United States, but in 1944 he was back in China with a rocket team in fighter aircraft, experimenting with HVAR-type rockets against Japanese supply locomotives in eastern China.

He was directing this type of testing from Okinawa against enemy shipping when the war ended.

A COMMAND pilot, who flew 338 combat missions in World War II, with 13 confirmed victories in 925 hours of combat flying, Gen. Scott is also an established author.

Wives Club Luncheon Set

The Faculty Wives Club at Arizona State has scheduled its annual spring luncheon for tomorrow. The luncheon, starting at 1:00 p.m., will be held in the banquet room of the Memorial Union.

Carla McBride, soprano, and Ray Rosales, tenor, will present various musical numbers.

BRIDGE and canasta will be played after the program. New officers of the club are Mrs. Marion Smith, president, and Mrs. Herbert Stahnke, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Francis Yale is the outgoing president.

CO-CHAIRMAN of the luncheon are Mrs. Alan Wager and Mrs. Hugh Hanson. They are assisted by Mrs. Glenn Austin, program; Mrs. William Guenther, decorations; and Mrs. Irving Stout and Mrs. Lee Thompson, door prizes. "And Suddenly it's Spring," is the theme of the luncheon.

Group Outings At Payson, Blue Point Highlight Religious Activities For May

Religious organizations are busy scheduling picnics, retreats, meetings and elections for May.

LUTHERAN Student Association members are journeying to Blue Point Sunday for a picnic. Campus residents are to meet at Danforth Chapel at 2:30 p.m. Phoenix members may gather at the home of Jerry Buechner, 1714 East Culver, at 3:00 p.m.

Westminster Fellowship has slated a full day of activities at their annual spring retreat Sunday. Held at the Payson Presbyterian Church, the group will hold discussion, business and planning sessions concerning all areas of WF life for 1957-58. There is a 50 cent registration fee and members will be served three meals. Chairman is Elaine Vermeline.

Sixteen Congregational Fellowship members returned from a three-day trip to Mormon Lake April 28. The group visited the Snowbowl and stayed at Pilgrim's Playground.

On the Baptist student calendar next Thursday evening is a supper and weekly meeting from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. Reverend Bill Tapscott will speak on the topic, "Cessenes and the Dead Sea Scrolls."

DELTA PHI, LDS men's fraternity, will hold their annual spring formal May 10 at the LDS Institute. A floor show and refreshments are being planned. Tickets are $1.00. All Delta Phi alumni and Lambda Delta Sigma members may attend. General Chairman is Richard Heywood.

A state Convention has been set for this Saturday by the Student Religious Council. Ten officers and representatives of the council will meet with SRC students from Tucson and Flagstaff for the all-day convolve to discuss problems and projects.

ally starts the annual round of commencement activities. At this time outstanding students are honored for their achievements. This year approximately 150 students are to be honored.

FIRST ITEM on the assembly agenda is the installation of the recently elected ASAS officers for the next year. Presentation of the band scholarship award by representatives of the Phoenix Junior Chamber of Commerce follows the installation ceremony.

Hopkins' address, on the topic, "Are People Obsolete?" is to precede the awards of honors, final part of the program.

All students, faculty and guests are invited to the program, which is intended as public recognition of outstanding achievement. Ten and 11 a.m. classes are to be dismissed on the day of the assembly, enabling everyone to attend at 10:30 a.m. in the Memorial Union ballroom.

HOPKINS recently announced his retirement in June. The selection as Honors Assembly speaker will cap an illustrious 50 year career in journalism.

Group Plans Sunday Tea

Honor students will be feted at a reception Sunday by members of Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary fraternity. The reception will be held in the Memorial Union Ballroom from 4 to 5:30 p.m.

Approximately 750 undergraduates with a 3.0 average or better have been invited to attend the affair.

PROGRAM for the afternoon includes welcoming of the guests by Dr. R. E. Wochner, president of the AS chapter, and three musical selections by Marjion Smith, assistant professor of voice.

"Don't Go Through the Locking Glass" will be the title used by guest speaker Jack MacDonald, public relations director at Arizona Public Service.

Chairman of the reception is Dr. Katherine Turner, professor of English. She will be assisted by Mrs. Hazel Quaid, associate professor of music; Dr. Jacob Fuchs, associate professor of chemistry; and Robert Zacher, associate professor of advertising.

Students Request Mills Brothers In Person Song May Get Debut

In a letter dated April 9, the student body presidents from the University of Arizona, Arizona State, and ASC at Flagstaff requested permission from the Board of Regents to be allowed to attend the open meetings of the Board.

The purpose of this, according to the letter, would be to observe the problems facing the Regents. These problems and their solutions directly affect the students, and the presence of the student presidents may, on occasion, be of valuable assistance to the Board of Regents in determining student opinions on certain matters.

"WE ASK no voice unless asked specifically about a point by the Board," says Kim Rose, Arizona State president.

The request also stated that they did not desire to be present at any of the closed or special meetings.

"We also think this would be an ideal way in which the three presidents could get together and exchange ideas between schools. This would serve to engender better inter-institutional feelings and would result in a more complete and unified system of higher education in Arizona," says Rose.

By CHUCK GRANIERI And LORETTA TURANO

A brand-new, as yet unreleased, recording by the Mills Brothers called "Queen of the Senior Prom," may have its world premiere tomorrow night at the annual Coronation Ball.

"If the music gets here in time, we'll be able to rehearse and go over it with the band and have it ready for the ball, but we're not sure yet," Herbert Mills stated.

"IT'S OUR newest recording," the mellow-voiced singer continued, "and has never been performed in public before." He paused and then added with a smile, "I kind of like it myself."

The Mills brothers, Herbert,

Harry and Donald, busy the year around making personal appearances and TV shows, prefer to work before a "live" audience. "You can get more into your work that way," they agree.

They enjoy performing in night clubs or for dances, but admit "we haven't done college shows lately, but we used to years ago." They plan to give their regular routine for students attending the Coronation Ball.

The singing trio prefers television work, as there is present the combination of a live audience and mass communications. They first appeared in color television in Glasgow, Scotland, in 1934, even before America had commercial TV.

DRESSED alike in beige sportshirts, initialed cardigans and tan slacks, the boys seemed perfectly relaxed and at home in the familiar nightclub atmosphere of soft background music, dim lights, clinking glasses, and intermingling voices. They are currently appearing at the Ko-Ko Club in Phoenix where this interview was held.

Their life sounds like an easy one, "but 45 weeks a year of singing and touring adds up to a lot of hard work." But it is this kind of work that has paid off in record sales and made hits out of most of their songs.

"PAPER DOLL," a favorite for years, has passed the 5 1/2 million mark in sales. "We had to make a new master copy a few years ago," the brothers said. "Paper Doll" was our biggest seller and one of our first to get a gold record." The Mills Brothers were one of the first vocalist groups to receive this award.

When asked which record they liked the best they replied, "We like 'em all. Guess we like 'em all music."

"Daddy's Little Girl," "Glow-worm," "Undecided," "Till Then," "Down by the Old Mill Stream," are all well-known favorites by the trio. They voiced a preference, however, for the ballad-type song, as "it is easier to harmonize."

THE BROTHERS originally started out in show business in 1922 as amateurs and went "pro" in 1926. "We started right at the top, as far as earnings went," Herb stated. "But, of course, it can't compare with what we make today." He smiled but evaded the question on exactly how much money they now earn.

They have had no formal musical training; "only what Mother and Father taught us," Herb explained. "They were swingers traveling with a troupe. We come from a long line of show people," he added with pride.

Their break into show business began as a team of four. In 1936, John Jr., the oldest brother, died. Their father helped with the routine for a time and then the three went on alone.

THEY HAVE made several movies over the past 24 years, with such big-name attractions as Jimmy Durante, Dick Powell, Jean Blondell, Gary Cooper, Ann Miller and Marian

THE MILLS BROTHERS

The Mills Brothers have entertained in Las Vegas the past 14 years. "We generally run four weeks three times a year at the Thunderbird and four weeks twice a year at the Flamingo Hotel." They have also performed in top night spots in Reno the past five years. Their tours include top eastern, midwestern and western cities.

Expressing their like for Phoenix, the brothers especially "enjoyed the golf courses." "Any place there's a golf course is OK with me," says Herb. He grinned and stared for a moment as he saw his conversation being condensed to the hieroglyphics of shorthand. "I like Phoenix. It's all right with me." Don and Harry agreed.

FAVORITE hobby, of course, is golf.

"Most of us play golf. We used to play polo with nine horses, but that takes too much time and energy, so now we all play golf," one of the brothers stated.

"That's what we generally do on our vacations," Herb volunteered. The boys usually manage to sandwich in vacations twice a year. "If we're lucky."

Graduation Applicants Set Record

This year's list of applicants for graduation, sets an all-time high for Arizona State, according to Alfred Thomas Jr., registrar and director of admissions.

Breaking last year's high of 1,038 graduates, the new record is expected to exceed it by 77, bringing the total list of candidates to 1,115.

THE LIST was approved Sunday by the Board of Regents for students expecting to graduate May 28, pending completion of the present semester's requirements.

A breakdown of the list shows 74 candidates for bachelor of arts degrees, 390 for bachelor of science, 399 for bachelor of arts in education, 248 for master of arts in education, and four for the doctor of education degree.

Two Contracts Accepted For Further Solar Study

Permission for Arizona State to accept two research contracts totaling $53,587 was announced this week by President Grady Gammage. He also reported a grant of $2,500 to the school.

The Board of Regents okayed the one year continuation of a contract with the Office of Naval Research for studies of high temperature thermal diffusivity. Total worth of the award is $22,056, which includes $11,000 for the previous contract.

THE OTHER contract is also connected with the AS solar furnace. It is a $31,531 research project from the Army Office of Ordnance Research to carry on research into melting techniques and refractories to produce massive metal.

AS is also recipient of a $2,500 grant from the United Cerebral Palsy Research and Educational Foundation for use by the AS summer workshop on exceptional children.

Stadium Site Still Pending

The Board of Regents at a meeting April 27 stated that the location of Arizona State's new $800,000 football stadium will be determined by May 20.

Board member Lynn M. Laney, stadium committee chairman, reported that the engineering firm of Headman, Ferguson and Carollo is making a study of the proposed stadium site. Their report is to be completed by May 7 and will be ready for action of the Regents at their May 20 meeting in Flagstaff.

AT THE meeting the Board also authorized a 10 per cent increase in athletic scholarships at Arizona's three institutions of higher learning.

Increases approved are, at the University of Arizona from 120 to 132, at Arizona State from 96 to 106, and at ASC at Flagstaff from 60 to 66.

The Board also agreed to consider a request by Dr. Grady Gammage, president of Arizona State, to raise the number of scholarships at Arizona State to the same level as at the University of Arizona.

Promotions for 24 Arizona State faculty members were also approved by the Board at the same meeting.

AS Receives Metal Microscope

The precision optical microscope donated to AS by AIR-research Mfg. Co. of Arizona two weeks ago is now located in the new engineering and technology center.

The $3,000 piece of equipment, which looks like a big camera and microscope combined, can magnify specimens of metals up to 2,500 times. The instrument, a metallograph, is used in the study and analysis of metal structures. It can be used for direct viewing or photography of metal specimens.

IMMEDIATE work is planned for the metallograph in metallurgy and other engineering courses, in addition to research designed to counteract the depletion of Arizona sources of metals.

Leighton King, AIR-research engineering coordinator, when presenting the equipment, said "This is in line with our policy of supporting engineering schools in general and Arizona State in particular."

COEDS ON CAMPUS

Where's Book On Manners, Coeds' Wear?

By NELDA SAXTON

What happened to "Devil's Best Fork Forward"?

This book of general information was begun by Spurs some time ago as a project which would aid coeds in solving problems of dress, manners, invitations, and introductions that arise on our campus.

Just such a problem that could be helped by this book comes up every time someone mentions the word "formal" or "semi-formal." Undoubtedly the Coronation Ball will be the occasion for numerous doubts as to "What shall I wear?" Some girls will appear in frothy ballerina length formals. Others will show up in cottons and heels. Some will feel properly dressed, and some will be unhappy because the proper dress wasn't clear.

Another problem that raises its ugly head all too often is that of invitations to social events. Emily Post is quite clear about what to say, but she doesn't tell you which dignitaries are to sit at the head table or which of the officials are to be invited to a small party or a large dinner dance.

As we understood it, this project was also designed to give information on good dance bands, and restaurants with prices, capacity, and type of food.

If Spurs has discontinued this project for some reason, it might be a good idea for some other honorary to carry the ball. Certainly such a book is badly needed on a campus such as ours where informality is the keynote, and customs are so different from what is quoted in Emily Post and Amy Vanderbilt.

JOTS . . . Just as a matter of curiosity, why don't the Arizona State women attend the sports events on campus? Baseball certainly isn't so difficult that it can't be understood, and its all for free. If you have qualms about the hot sun, come up to the State Press office and join the senior knotnole gang. It's great sport.

'Bull Sessions' Talk Valuable

By JOSH GALINDO

Wheaton College Record editors pointed out the importance of "bull sessions," in a recent editorial. There is no credit issued for them but the talk certainly is valuable.

They claim that it probably would be disastrous to give college credits for "shootin' the bull," for it would rob the custom of its spontaneity. People chatter about things that interest them, and that is why bull sessions never become dull.

OFTEN bull sessions resemble bull fights as the arguing reaches a climax. When the dust cloud of words settles, the debater's views have been clarified and modified.

The outstanding extra-academic situation from which everyone benefits to some degree is commonly known as the bull session among men, but it is not foreign to the life of the coed.

San Jose State College is celebrating its centennial this week. Featured events are the Lambda Chi Alpha Parade Pusheart Relays and a big centennial ball.

The swimming team from the Emporia State College are commenting on their stay in jail recently. However, they didn't break any laws. When they were returning from a meet the western Kansas blizzard struck and they were stranded with the hotels and motels sporting no vacancy signs.

A friend of the swimmers saved the day for them. The strange part was that he was the sheriff and offered the county jail. One of the team members stated, "It seemed rather like dorm life."

AS In '52

Only five years ago at Arizona State: Clyde Smith, head football coach at the University of Indiana from 1948 to 1951, was named new head football coach at Arizona State, by President Grady Gammage.

Last Sunday's rain cancelled the AMS picnic, froze the meat (without OPS authority) and scattered the perishable food to the Salvation Army.

THE BOARD of Publications voted unanimously Wednesday noon to nominate Bill Foster, sophomore journalism major, as editor of the 1953 Sahuaro. Final decision on the nomination rests with the Student Council.

The ASC Army and Air Force ROTC units will join forces May 16 for their honor award presentations and regimental parade at 8 p.m. at Goodwin Stadium.

Assistant conductor of the famed Robert Shaw Choral, Leonard Moore will be in charge of choral work at the seventh annual Arizona High School Music Camp to be held here this summer.

FORMATION of Alpha Sigma Kappa, honorary scholastic society, is hoped to be the first step in bringing either Phi Beta Kappa or Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic societies, to ASC.

Two debate teams from ASC scored a victory in the Arizona Intercollegiate Speech League Tournament held last week at Phoenix College.

Senator Hugo?

By STAN HALL

"Congratulations on your being elected to the Student Senate, Hugo Sturdy."

"Are you talking to me?"

"Yes, you're Hugo Sturdy, aren't you?"

"I'm Johnson of the Elections Board. You've been elected to next year's Senate . . . congratulations."

"But, I don't know anything about the student senate . . . I didn't even run for the silly . . . er . . . office."

"I don't care . . . you've been elected and you have to serve . . . it's your duty to your fellow students and the Alma Mater."

"Well, if I have to I have to . . . what do I have to do? I mean I never knew anything about politics."

"Well actually, there isn't too much to it . . . gotta attend Senate meetings about once a month . . . have your name on a committee of the senate . . . and . . . OH, Yes, one important thing . . . you can say AYE can't you?"

"HUH, WHATTA you mean say aye?"

"Not aye . . . Aye . . . Aye . . . and you can raise your right hand can't you?"

"Sure I can raise both my hands . . . sec."

"Yea, that's real good, Hugo Sturdy. You'll make a good senator. One thing to remember, Never Say Nay. Congratulations Hugo Sturdy."

"Hi, There Hugo . . . How are you? Ha . . . Ha . . ."

"HELLO, great big fat buddy, What are you laughing about?"

"Haven't you heard yet?"

"Oh, you mean my being elected to the Student Senate?"

"Yea, pretty neat trick we pulled on you, huh buddy?"

"I'm sure glad you did . . . I'm gonna make the best darn senator this school ever had . . . 'Never Say Nay Hugo' . . . that's me . . . and listen to this 'Aye — Aye — Aye' . . . pretty good, huh?"

"HUGO Sturdy, you're not serious about becoming a senator, are you?"

"Why, sure buddy, why not?"

"Well, you see Hugo Sturdy . . . it's like this . . . some of us were sitting around gassing about the elections, and somebody suggested we run the fraternity dog, Rover . . . I said, 'no that would be too easy — why not run you' . . . so we went out and got a petition and you won. It's that simple . . . we really didn't want you to have to be a senator, we were just going to point up the fact that you can elect anyone if you can paint big banners."

"OH, WELL I don't care what you think . . . I talked to Johnson from the Elections Board — he's a campus wheel, you know — and I know how to be a good senator so I'm going to go ahead . . . # EDITOR'S Scratchpad

By DON DOTTS

Well, it's over — and the Easter vacation really flew by!

We had the fortune of spending the entire Easter week on the campus of San Diego State College. When we left the school, we felt just a little sad, for in that one week, its students had made us feel right at home.

Perhaps this campus can pick up a few pointers from SDSC in hospitality. Student body presidents from 120 colleges and universities will be guests of Arizona State next week for a big regional convention. ASAS President Kim Rose hopes that all AS students will extend such hospitality to these visitors.

We saw at San Diego last week that it can be done. We're sure the students of Arizona State will do the same for next week's visitors.

San Diego uses a system of bulletin boards which, we're sure, makes people less dependent upon their student newspaper for routine announcements. An excellent car pool system has been arranged there, with a large bulletin board for the posting of rides.

ANOTHER bulletin board near the SDSC Associated Students office features clippings of news stories about the school appearing in downtown papers.

The SDSC campus is really growing. Its students and progressive atmosphere reminded us a lot of Arizona State. It was a nice vacation, but except for the resumed academic grind (oh, yes!), we're glad to be back!

Made our Greek heart real sad to see that one of our fraternities has scheduled its big dance of the semester for tomorrow night, the same night as the Associated Students' big Coronation Ball.

Another fraternity is holding a big annual event the same night. We like to brag that the fraternities and sororities, to a great extent, back all Associated Students activities as much as they can.

Perhaps one centralized activity calendar would have helped the fraternity in the scheduling of its formal. We imagine that, when it checked to see if it was conflicting with something else (and we hope it DID check), the calendar it referred to didn't list the Coronation Ball.

It's been pointed out before, but nothing's been done about it, that this university has four or five "official" calendars on which student activities are to be listed.

It's a pity that something so simple can't be worked out.

KASC Starts Its Big Move

By DICK MACROBIE

KASC staff members are looking forward to moving into the new studios in the recently constructed, Engineering and Technology center.

Lynn Dryer, Kasey's chief engineer, has already begun moving equipment into the new building.

THE FUTURE home of KASC will include a master control room, three studios, a special record library, a news room, and complete offices.

New microphones and new amplifiers will be installed along with the present broadcasting equipment.

Bruce Ballard, station manager, said, "We plan to start broadcasting from the new studios next September. KASC will be the best equipped station, both commercial and educational in the state."

MIKE McNULTY, sports director, has been experimenting with remote broadcasts of AS home baseball games. McNulty and crew spot the action with the aid of field glasses. The experimental sportscasts emanate from the Starlight Terrace.

AS Cowboy Wins Rodeo

All-around cowboy honors went to Joe Morrow during the rodeo sponsored by the ASC, Flagstaff Rodeo Club last Sunday. The Arizona State cowboy was awarded a pair of chaps.

Attending the rodeo were students from northern Arizona high schools, Arizona State, UofA, Arizona State College at Flagstaff, Eastern Arizona Junior College, and

Students interested in the Marine Officer Training Programs will have an opportunity to talk with the Procurement Team May 6 and 7.

The group will hold interviews on the patio of the Memorial Union.

After attending two six-week summer training courses at Quantico, Va., and earning a bachelor's degree, members of the platoon leaders class are commissioned Second Lieutenants in the Marine Corps Reserve.

Ground officers are assigned to Quantico for a basic course, and flight officers are assigned to Pensacola, Florida for 15 to 18 months of flight training.

Approximately 300 Korean G.I.'s haven't signed for their checks this month, according to the Veterans Accounts office.

THESE FORMS have to be in the Phoenix office on time to be sent with the regular veterans payroll to California. The Phoenix branch is handling all veterans accounts for Arizona.

There is absolutely no guarantee that late signers will receive their checks on time, the office says.

Last Year

Among events taking place at AS one year ago were:

Coronation of the campus king and queen highlights this evening's formal Coronation Ball in the Memorial Student Union building.

Bill Braman, Dick Dodson, and Dave Garcia took presidential posts of senior, junior, and sophomore classes, respectively, in yesterday's elections.

COMMENCEMENT speaker during graduation ceremonies will be Dr. Arthur S. Adams, president of the American Council on Education, Washington, D. C.

About 150 student leaders and Sun Devil athletes are to be guests of Campus Crusade for Christ at a banquet Wednesday evening, and two famed American athletes are on the program.

The Arizona State debate team of Neil Di-Capua and Sanford Gadian will meet the number one debate team from the University of Arizona today.

THE CHORAL Union will present a concert Wednesday, May 9, as the final program of the Festival of Fine Arts at Arizona State.

The deadline for making reservations for the first annual senior married men students banquet has been set at May 15.

A new portrait studio is planned for next semester in an expansion program announced by the college photo service this week.

DR. IRA B. JUDD, Blue Key adviser for fifteen years, was honored at the organization's annual banquet April 27.

A meeting with Arizona State President Dr. Grady Gammage and an inspection of the Army ROTC units here are scheduled for Gen. Robert N. Young, commanding general of the Sixth Army, when he visits the campus Tuesday.

The high-riding Wildcats from down south will come into Tempe tonight for their annual track meet with the Sun Devils starting at 7:30 at Goodwin Stadium.

Editorially Speaking Good Idea

The Board of Regents has been asked to invite the student presidents of the universities and state college to attend its meetings.

In a letter to the Regents dated April 9, AS President Kim Rose proposed what sounds like a fine idea. Rose maintains that the three student governments and the Board of Regents are, on different levels, working toward the same goals.

THE THREE student body presidents are asking the board for an opportunity to observe the problems facing the Regents, but not for an actual voice in the meetings. The problems facing the Board each month affect directly every student on each of the three campuses, and Rose says that, for this reason, the student government is extremely interested in these problems.

We're sure that several occasions arise in the course of a year's activities, with which student opinion would be of valuable assistance.

Rose's proposal would also provide a chance for the three student presidents to hold their own monthly meetings and co-ordinate their student bodies and foster better inter-school relations.

THERE MAY be a few draw-backs. Perhaps there would be a few added expenses with such a system. The student governments would undoubtedly be more than willing to defray such small costs.

The board members, in their meeting last week-end, postponed action on the request until their May meeting.

The students of the three institutions could benefit from such an arrangement. We hope it can be worked out.

Guest Editorial Innovations

The front page of today's State Press tells of a migration trip to the San Diego State - Arizona State football game next year that is being planned and sponsored by the Rallies and Traditions Board.

This is only one of the innovations the Board would like to start on this campus since we (the Rallies and Traditions Board members) feel that Arizona State students have just as much or more spirit than the average college student.

THIS SPIRIT only has to be brought out in well planned, fast moving, sound rallies and traditions.

Three other new innovation — a 100-man freshman rooting squad, rooters caps for all Arizona State students, and an attempt to encourage uniform dress at sports events — are under consideration.

All these things will give the average student a feeling of belonging to the Arizona State community. When a person feels he belongs, interest increases, and so does participation.

THE ROOTING group — the "Hell Raisers" — will be chosen from the leaders from the various high schools. The rooters cap will be chosen on the basis of a study made among representative students. The uniform dress has been decided on as white shirts and blouses — weather permitting.

Like any campaign of this sort, co-operation is the key.

It will take all the upperclassmen to enforce the frosh "beanie" rule next year. By the same token, it will be the upperclassmen who lead the new people toward a sound tradition and rally program by setting the example.

ARIZONA STATE has suffered and is still suffering from growing pains. The physical and traditional parts of the school have been equally hard hit. Because of this we feel the only way to establish a sound program is by starting with the Freshman Class. That is what we will be attempting next year. Again we need co-operation and new ideas.

All this points toward the day when, as a large university, we have the new stadium and an enthusiastic student body, thoroughly versed in a sound basic tradition program which will add more to the reputation of a fine university.

We feel that without this program of traditions we will never truly be a university in the broadest sense of the word — and a tradition program is essential to a real university.

The fraternity is in the process of planning the group's White Star Formal.

Province Officer Visits Teke House

John Chavers, the new Province Supervisor for Arizona and California Tekes, arrived at AS Sunday on a familiarization tour of chapters in this province. Chavers was accompanied by a former pledge-brother, Dave Oakley. Plans are underway for Tekes from USC, Berkeley, Flagstaff and

AS to form a car caravan to attend the national convention this summer in Pennsylvania.

Another purpose of the visit was to make final arrangements for the Province Leadership School to be held at USC tonight and tomorrow. Shelby Tate, retiring president, and Ken Chamberlin, incoming president, will attend from AS's Beta Chi chapter.

Meals, Meetings Planned By Organizations In May

Frosh Women Hold Dinner-Meeting

The Athenians, freshmen women's honorary, will hold a dinner meeting Tuesday in the Memorial Union, room 218. There will be a short installation ceremony the same evening.

Off Campus Coeds Slate Meeting

Next Wednesday at 12 noon, off-campus women are to meet in the unfinished lounge of the Memorial Union for a meeting.

New officers were elected for next school year. They are Sheila Getz, president; Ann Ahern, vice-president; Jill Long, recording secretary; Joyce Montieth, corresponding secretary and Beverly Caruso, treasurer.

P. E. Men Plan Initiation

Pledges of Phi Epsilon Kappa are making final plans for their formal initiation. Participating in their last informal week of pledging are Ed Ryan, Fred Reeves, Keith Wisgerhof, Roger Worsley, Jim Little and Ken Leonard.

M. O. Best B Elects Officers

New M.O. Best B officers for 1957-58 are President, Dave Fanner; vice-president, Tom Fitzgibbons; Secretary, Jim Rolfe; Treasurer, Steve Gubin; Social Chairman, Neil Corbin and Inter-hall Representative, Bill Minor.

Gammage Hall Has Luncheon

A pool-side luncheon and swimming party Saturday at Camelback Inn will be the highlights of Gammage Hall's wind-up activity of the year. At 1:00 p.m. members will be served around the pool and will spend the rest of the afternoon swimming.

DRESS REHEARSAL . . . Practicing for the seventeenth annual Delta Sig Follies are, left to right, Jack Ferrel and George Lerg. The remaining performances of the follies are scheduled to run tonight and Saturday evening at Cosner Auditorium, 10th street and Forrest, Tempe.

CONGRATULATIONS are in order to Alpha Epsilon Pi. The fraternity was awarded the best delegation trophy at the AEPi Western Regional Conclave held in Los Angeles during Easter vacation.

"All help" will break loose Monday in the Lambda Chi Alpha House as Help Week officially starts. Help Week will continue until Sunday at 1 a.m.

Many interesting projects have been planned for the pledges, including the recovery of the seven foot Lambda Chi paddle that was "borrowed" last semester and is believed to be somewhere inside West Hall.

Long hair and skirts have invaded the Delta Sig house this week as the fraternity stages its seventeenth annual follies. Two nights remain to see the "beautiful" girls sing and dance.

Sorority May Calendar Crowded With Formals

Gamma Phi Beta May Agenda Full

The Mom's Club of Gamma Phi Beta will treat the chapter and their families to a picnic supper Sunday at the home of Joanne McKone. Monday afternoon the chapter will exchange with ATO fraternity at a picnic and swimming party at South Mountain Park.

Also on the Gamma Phi social calendar for May is the ADPI-Gamma Phi baseball game, May 14; the Senior Dinner, May 19; and the formal dinner dance, May 11.

Theta Chi, Tri Sigma Have Swimming Party

Exchanges top the agenda of the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority. Sunday the members of Theta Chi and Tri Sigma will hold a swimming party at Saguaro Beach. Also Tri Sigma and Phi Delta Beta held a party exchange Wednesday evening. Judy Hutton had charge of both events.

UA, AS Chi Omegas Attend Banquet

Arizona State and the UA chapters of Chi Omega met recently at the Westward Ho for the annual Eleusinian Banquet. Guest speaker for the program was Mrs. Leslie Hodge. Mrs. Hodge spoke to the group on "Highlights of Mexico."

Lenora Slater was presented the Junior Loyalty Award for outstanding service to her chapter. Connie Wagoner and Jan Jackson were general chairmen of the event.

'This Is Your Life' Featured In Follies

The 17th annual Delta Sig Follies opened last night with a variety of acts centered around a modern theme, and included everything from primitive jungle dances to high society classics.

Over 75 men participated in the show which will run tonight and tomorrow night in Cosner Auditorium at Tenth and Myrtle in Tempe. The curtain rises at 8 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door or from any Delta Sigma Phi member for 75 cents.

A FASHION show, opening chorus, ballet, and "This Is Your Life," are the featured acts of the show which is emceed by Jerry Taylor and Jack McKone.

"This Is Your Life" again this year features the life of a prominent faculty member. Last night's act was centered around the life of Professor Rudy Lavik, Head of the Men's Physical Education department and for many years was Athletic Director here. Professor Lavik, one of the oldest faculty members in point of service, joined the Arizona State faculty in 1933.

AN ADDED attraction for the Follies will be the Black-out featuring stimulating dances with a folk lore theme.

Other acts of the show include "Waldo Chavez and His Calypso Group" and several pantomimes.

Methodists Schedule Sing Sunday Night

The Wesleyan Singers present their annual spring concert Sunday at 8 p.m. The public is invited to the program at the Methodist Social Hall in Tempe.

This year's theme is "Medley of the Ages" and will include three representative moods in music; gothic, classique and moderne.

AN INNOVATION at this year's program is a modern dance in several numbers.

Choral selections include "Kyrie Eleison," "O fili et filiae," "Ava Maria" by Bruckner, "Elijah Rock," "Black is the Color of My True Love's Hair," and "Jojobalal."

Portions of the Black operetta, "Papageno," adapted from the opera "Magic Flute" by Mozart will be performed.

THE SINGERS are members of Wesley Foundation, student Methodist group on campus. Director of the group is Dixie Gene Zimmer, Rose Marie Matthews is accompanist and Carolyn Cox is choreographer. Tickets are 50 cents.

Alpha Delta Pi Officers Honored

The Alumnae Advisory Board of Alpha Delta Pi offering a dinner feting the officers of the sorority. The luncheon is to be held at the home of Mrs. Franklin Saylor of Phoenix.

AS Gym Team To Host Meet

Top stars across the state should bring keen competition to the 1957 Arizona A. A. U. Gymnastic Championship meet at Arizona State tomorrow.

Open to all amateur athletes the 7:30 p.m. program includes 11 events. It is scheduled at the new Sun Devil gym and is open to the public.

ADDING INTEREST to the meet will be the five judges, some rated among America's fine gymnasts: Tom Hairabedian, USC ace now coach at Washington High; Dave Goodson, UA star coaching at Phoenix Union; Dr. Ronald Thomson, formerly of the Springfield College drill team; John Robinson, one of the nation's most skilled horizontal bar men; and Nick Lee.

Shapely Donna Snedden, AS sophomore who turned down an offer last fall by the Harlem Globetrotters to travel around the world giving half-time exhibitions on the trampoline, is expected to compete in the girls' trampoline event.

LITTLE Barney Rouse, fifth grader at Madison Park Elementary School, may give the older performers a go for their money on the trampoline. Meet Chairman Norris Steverson of AS says Barney's specialty is several back somersaults with a full twist ending with a double twist in the same stunt.

Sun Devil ace Chuck McMahon plans to enter every event — if his hands heal sufficiently from an auto mishap two weeks ago. The versatile AS star scored 27 points against Arizona's Wildcats earlier this spring in meet action. Last year he won the tumbling title and was second in five events.

Other Arizona State entrants expected to cop-top places are Bob Foley and Dick LeBeau. Foley alone scored 15 points against the Wildcats gymnasts and LeBeau garnered 11½.

MEDALS are to be awarded the first three placers and ribbons will be given for the second three. The meet has no age limit and is open to all amateurs.

Glen Jones, free lance gymnast who has performed at several state high school assemblies this season, is to be featured in a special exhibition with a partner.

STARTER . . . Vigorous swinger Royce Youree will start at shortstop for the Sun Devils tomorrow in their twin bill with the Wildcats at Mesa. Youree is a veteran from last year's Satan diamond squad.

Erickson Nine Set For Cats Demon-Cat Spike Dual Rated Toss-Up

By PHIL KEYES

An end to the nine-year drought of victories in the Sun Devil-University of Arizona baseball rivalry is the hope which buoys Coach Mel Erickson on the eve of the first meeting of the two clubs tomorrow at Mesa's Rendezvous Park.

Although three key Sun Devils are handicapped by injuries, Erickson believes that the long-awaited year of retaliation may have arrived. "On the record," he states, "we appear to be pretty evenly matched. The teams that have beaten us have also whipped the U." The last time a Demon nine decisively defeated the Wildcats was back in 1948.

ERICKSON has named Jim Sims (4-1) as his starter in the first game, slated for 4 p.m. Either Dave Graybill (6-3) or John Chavez (2-1) will go in the second tilt. The first game is a seven-inning affair.

Whether Graybill gets the nod over Chavez or not will depend on the condition of his leg which he injured several weeks ago. Also on the ailing list are Rightfielder Phil Kemp with a badly bruised finger, and Catcher Curt Bryant, suffering from two bruised knees.

Coach Frank Sanect of the University is expected to start his two right-handed aces, Dave Baldwin and Burdette Morago.

ARIZONA State, winner of 12 of their first 14 games, has a 14-10 win-loss record. However, the Satans have won only two of their last 10 games. AS and Pepperdine tied 1-1 in another game.

During the last two weeks, the Devils have played 11 games and made a trip to the coast. In an effort to get more batting punch, Erickson has been holding intensive batting drills the last two days.

The probable starting lineup will include: John Jacobs (.290), Ken Toney (.305), Don Baniewicz (.209) and Royce Youree (.236) in the infield; Bill Mead (.350), Hadley Hicks (.301) and either Graybill (.418), Kemp (.238) or Fran Urban (.143) in the outfield; and either Bill Porter (.393) or Bryant (.250) behind the plate.

Sanect expects to start Glen Festin or Bob Wilson behind the plate, Marty Hurd at first base, Johnny Colyer at second, Jesus Ruiz at shortstop, Craig Sorensen at third and Tommy Clarkson, Dick Nixon and Harry Messick in the outfield.

Sorensen and Messick have been the Wildcat sparkplugs at the plate while Ruiz is a fielding demon for the Pueblo crew.

What could be called a preview of next week's Border Conference track meet will be staged tomorrow night in Tucson between the Arizona State Sun Devils and the University of Arizona Wildcats.

The meet, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in Arizona Varsity Stadium, is rated as a toss-up with both teams favored in four events and the remaining seven deciding the winner.

ARIZONA STATE, aiming for its 10th track crown since 1946, will be seeking revenge for last year's surprise 69-62 loss in a dual meet and 70 2/3-50½ setback in the BC championships held at Lubbock, Texas.

Coach Baldy Castillo's spikers are expected to take first in the javelin, 880 yard dash, and first and second in the high jump and pole vault. Tucson probably will cop top spot in the 40-yard dash, 120-yard high hurdles, 220-law hurdles and mile relay.

Al Miller's best toss of 207-11½" virtually assures the Demons first in the javelin, while senior Dale Winder will be out to better his own BC record of 1:53.9 in the 880.

JOE ROSE, who three weeks ago pole vaulted 15'1" to rank high nationally, and last week cleared 14'5½" in the Drake Relays, is expected to lead the field.

Tom Whetstone and Jerry Robertson have both high jumped 6'5¾", this season. Eddie Griggs possesses a 6'2" high jump mark and a broad jump mark of 24'1".

EXPECTED to give Griggs trouble in the broad jump is the Wildcats Jim Tate, who last week against San Diego State leaped 25'2½". He also recorded a 9.6 century mark and 20.9 220-yard dash.

Another top Wildcat is Jim Lair, former Tolleson high 440 ace, who has clicked off the distance in 48.7. Tate also tries his hand at the distance. However his times haven't been as impressive.

Harry Lucky in virtually every Wildcat meet has raced home first in both hurdle events, but the Demons' Leon Burton could press him in the lows.

Three big question marks loom around Alex Henderson, Don Rothermund, and Tom Pettitt.

HENDERSON, the freshman distance runner from Australia, has been out the past several days with both the flu and a throat infection and may get stiff competition on his 4:09 mile and 9:22.6 two-mile from the Wildcats Walt Goodwin with times of 4:20.2 and 9:18 respectively.

Rothermund's marks of 148 feet in the discus and 50'7½" in the shot put, barely edged out the U's Ed Brown by a foot in the discus and six inches in the shot in their only previous meeting this year.

DALE WINDER, who ran a 4:17 mile last year while placing second to San Diego Naval Training Center's Paul Murphy who set a Goodwin Stadium standard in 4:15.7, will try the distance for the first time this year.

The theme for the annual WAA banquet to be held in the Memorial Union Thursday at 6:30 p.m. is "Stairway to the Stars," according to a club spokesman.

All WAA members are invited, and tickets may be purchased for $1.50 from any council member or at the office in the Activity building.

PRECEDING the banquet the spring initiation of new members will be held in the Union ballroom. All initiates are urged to wear white clothing and heels.

President Joy Main, who represented Arizona State as a discussion leader, and Connie Cabbage, accompanied advisor, Miss Betty Graham, to the Athletic Federation of College Women National Convention in Lincoln, Neb., April 15-18.

RESULTS of recently completed intramural basketball are: first place, Off-Campus and LDS; second, Matthews and North Halls; and third, Wilson Hall.

Hobert Wins Golf Honors

By AL SKINNER

Stan Hobert, once noted for a very explosive temperament on a golf course, combined a pressure-proof attitude and some sure shotmaking to win the Northern California Collegiate Invitational golf championship last week.

Hobert won his final match by defeating Stanford's Bill Seamon, 1 up.

HOBERT and teammate Jim Bernard were tied with nine others at 73 in qualifying for the championship flight. In the sudden death play-off for the top eleven men, Hobert earned a 35 foot approach with his wedge for an eagle 3. In the final match with Seamon, Hobert stroked a wedge shot within an inch of the cup on the final hole for a par 3.

In that same sudden death play-off, Jim Bernard boomed a tremendous drive down the fairway, stroked a 5 iron within 3 feet of the hole and canned his putt for an eagle 3 on the par 5 hole.

During the championship play Jim Bernard downed the defending champion, Gordon McKenzie of Seattle University, 4 and 3 in the first round and then lost to Gary Liotta of Contra Costa College in the quarterfinal match.

In the semi-finals, Hobert fashioned a 1-under par 70 to defeat the tourney medalist, Ernie George of San Jose State by a 1-up margin.

HOBERT fired another 1-under par 70 in the final match with Seamon, a former national junior champ.

Before the invitational tournament, the Arizona State team competed against UCLA at the Rancho golf course. They made 11 straight victories by defeating the Bruins by a 25-11 score. Dirk Prather was medalist with a 70.

THEIR victory string was ended by USC, which scored a 20-16 upset over the locals on aptly named Hillcrest Country Club.

Demon Thinlies Humble Iowans

By JEFF KIEHL

The winning skein of Sun Devil distance ace Alex Henderson came to an end April 20, when he was defeated by Iowa's Olympic star, Charley "Deacon" Jones in both the mile and 2-mile events. The Devils had too much depth for the Big 10 Hawkeyes however, and captured the meet by a score of 66½-56½.

Jones' winning time of 4:08.9 set a new state record for the mile and bettered Henderson's old mark of 4:10. Henderson's second place time was 4:09.

ASC's time pole vaulter Joe Rose won his specialty, as he soared to a height of 14'10", with Bobby Charles in second place at 14'2". Demons Eddie Griggs, Fritz Gritzner, and Roy England swept the broad jump with Griggs leaping 23'5" for top honors.

Leon Burton was a double winner as he won the 100 yard dash in 9.8 and the 220 yard low hurdles in the exceptionally fine time of 23.7.

Other Satans victorious in their events were, Don Rothermund in the shot put with a throw of 49'10" and half miler Dale Winder who strode in ahead of teammate Dave Clough to win the two lapper with the time of 1:58.2.

AS Netters Seek 'U' Win

Arizona State will have two chances to break the jinx that the University of Arizona men's tennis team holds over them when they meet tomorrow at 1:00 p.m. here and Tuesday in Tucson.

The Devils, who have never beaten the Wildcats on the courts, will have their work cut out for them both times as they prepare for next weekend's Border Conference championships in Tucson.

The Sun Devils last week found the going rough on the West coast as they dropped matches to San Diego Naval Training Center and San Diego State College.

The Naval Training Center Bluejackets, filled with former college stars, trounced the Demons 7-2, 9-0, while the Aztecs won, 6-3.
