Charles Taylor as Mr. Emmett Brett, a Scrooge-like businessman, is the town's Shylock who is forced into a role in the amateur theatrical. Clarelle Hagerly, is Mrs. Grahame, the mother of the happy-go-lucky family which laughs at troubles, but finds its way out of them regardless.

DARLA Bowers is cast in the role of the disapproving, wealthy Aunt Augusta.

"Grahame Crackers" is directed by Miss Vera Zimmerman. Miss Zimmerman has had previous directing experience at Redlands University.

Tickets available for the public may be purchased for 75 cents at the auditorium daily. Student tickets will be given upon presentation of activity cards.

Last night's opening performance was well-received by the Payne auditorium audience.

Army Communist Authority Mayer Announced Commencement Speaker

This year's Commencement address will be delivered by Major William E. Mayer, one of the Army's foremost authorities on communist indoctrination, it was announced Tuesday by Dr. Grady Gammage, AS president.

The address will be given during graduation exercises, to begin at 8 p.m. Tuesday, May 28, in Goodwin Stadium.

An instructor in neuropsychiatry at the Army Medical Service School, Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, Major Mayer has interviewed and examined the complete records of more than 1,000 American soldiers released from prisoner of war camps in Korea.

MAJOR MAYER has spoken to military and civilian groups throughout the United States and the Far East and has given testimony before the Senate and House investigating committees in Washington to explain the phenomena of communist indoctrination.

After completing undergraduate work at the University of Washington, Seattle, and Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill., Major Mayer obtained his medical degree at the Northwestern Medical School, entered the navy, and interned in Philadelphia.

He had a residency in psychiatry at the U.S. Public Health Service Hospital in Fort Worth, Tex., in 1947, and was also in charge of the Navy's training school for enlisted neuropsychiatric technicians.

WHILE in the San Francisco area from 1948-50, Major Mayer had a fellowship in psychiatry at the University of California Medical Center, taught psychiatry at the University of California Medical School, and later completed another year of residency-type training at the U.S. Naval hospitals at Mare Island and Oakland, Calif.

In July, 1950, Major Mayer was sent to the Far East as Chief of the Psychiatry and Neurology Service of the U.S. Naval Hospital at Yokosuka, Japan, and in six months he saw the hospital expand from 80 to 5,000 beds.

DURING the following year, Major Mayer was chief of psychiatry aboard a hospital ship, the SS Repose, in Korea. For the next 11 months, he was psychiatrist with the First Marine Division and executive officer of the First Medical Battalion in Korea.

In November, 1952, Major

Mayer was transferred to the Regular Army Medical Corps and became assistant chief of the Neuropsychiatric Department at the 8167th U.S. Army Hospital and Tokyo Army Hospital in Japan.

It was during this period that he was assigned to the special project of studying returning prisoners of war.

Devil Cowboys Tops In Region

"With a better chance of winning the nationals than ever before, Arizona State's rodeo team leads the region by 600 points," according to Norris J. Steverson, rodeo club advisor.

The team has won a trophy at every regional attended the past two years. John Nickerson is leading in the all-around classification with 410 points. In calf roping Arizona State team members Terry Jensen and John Nickerson totaled a tie for first place with 110 points apiece.

BILL NEAL, in this division, took third. Kenny Adams took first in bull riding with 144 points. Jon Nickerson placed second with 129. In bareback bronc riding Buddy Martin placed third with 72 points. In the saddle bronc riding division Jon Nickerson placed second.

Phil Stockton totaled second in team roping.

May 12 the team will journey to Pierce Junior College at Canoga Park, Calif. This will be the third regional of five. The five regional points will be combined to determine the national championship. The team will compete May 18 and 19 at Fresno State College.

THE REGIONAL will take place at Klamath Falls, Ore., May 25 and 26. Two teams will be sent from regional to compete in the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Championship at Colorado Springs, June 14-16.

"We have the respect of everybody, everywhere we go and are treated like kings," stated Buddy Martin, "except when we come home."

"There is need for backing at home," stated Steverson. "Arizona State is losing some of its best rodeo riders to other states due to lack of interest on the campus. There are not any stalls for horses, and the team doesn't receive money for intercollegiate activities."

"RODEO holds the second highest spectator attendance for sports in the United States. The team believes that with a little money they could give novelty shows that student spectators would attend."

Trophies the team has won the past two years will be on display May 16 in the Memorial Union.

HAPPY MONARCHS . . . ASAS President Kim Rose crowns newly-elected Campus Queen Bea King. Dick Kosidowski, right, was named campus king in last Wednesday's balloting. The crowning took place at Saturday night's annual Coronation Ball. Over 800 voters went to the polls to elect campus royalty.

'Official Calendar'

The ASAS Social Committee claims Saturday's Coronation Ball was officially calendared far in advance.

Members of a fraternity, whose yearly all-school event conflicted with the Associated Students dance, made the same claim.

TO WHICH "official" calendar were they referring? As far as the State Press can determine, the following "calendars" now exist:

Activities calendar, associate dean of students office.

Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Office of ASAS activities vice-president.

Memorial Union office.

Interfraternity Council office.

WHICH OF these "calendars" must be consulted when an organization schedules an event? When the Associated Students plan an event?

What is the purpose of each calendar? Are any of them supposed to include ALL AS activities?

Were candidates in the recent elections looking for issues on which to run?

HERE IS one of the biggest mix-ups this university has ever had! This institution needs desperately a central calendaring system.

Can't someone do something?

Where Are They?

There is something on this campus hard to understand.

Last fall — and every fall — when football season gets under way, students think nothing of putting on mass pep rallies to back the team. Along with this, the stadium is packed Saturday nights, Blue Key men with hundreds of programs are at every entrance, and a mass of publicity is disseminated almost daily from the college sports office.

WHAT HAPPENS? The football team wins seven in a row.

Basketball begins and, the cage team, although struggling through a losing season, draws sizeable crowds. Then comes baseball season. Arizona State knocks off eight straight foes and piles up a phenomenal 100 runs to opponents' 22 — shattering a host of all-time school records.

But where are the crowds, the rallies, the publicity posters? Where are those students who strove so valiantly to boost school spirit last fall — even if it meant sacrificing sleep to build floats and foregoing some of the pleasures of social mixing to give themselves until it hurt.

WHERE ARE the fraternities looking for projects to boost school prestige and spirit? They were so thick six months ago — but now?

A case of vanishing Americans?

COEDS ON CAMPUS

Clothing Course Gives Advice On Good Dress

By NELDA SAXTON

Charm, personality, poise, and beauty — the goals of the modern female.

A professional modeling course for the achievement of these goals costs a student anywhere from $80 to $250. Yet a coed on this campus can attain her goal for much less.

The home economics department offers a two-hour course designed to make the Arizona State coed look and act like a lady.

Home Economics 102, Clothing Selection, tells what is best to wear, when, and what colors are suitable.

Coeds have the chance to dress properly for a tea and are constantly checked for their dress in class.

For a gal who has no aspirations toward a modeling career, this course is something to think about in planning next year's electives.

We found an interesting little book last week in the office of Mrs. Scoular. It's put out by the social director of the University of Illinois and contains answers to just about any general etiquette question a coed could ask.

We discovered for instance how to train yourself to remember names, how to keep from being habitually late, how to make a blind date more successful, how to get your date started on his way when it's time to leave, and loads of other informative information.

This is exactly what Arizona State needs only on a more localized basis not confined purely to etiquette.

The Illinois book is currently available in Mrs. Scoular's office for consultation. Might learn something.

AS In '52

It's only been five years since: The Student Council on Tuesday night, after hearing sensational charges lodged against the Devil's Den by two ex-employees, voted its recommendation to the Devil's Den Committee that there should be a change in management at the Den.

The annual Honors Day Assembly will be held Friday, May 16, at 11 a.m. in the college auditorium. Dr. H. D. Richardson, Dean of the College, announced this week.

NEXT YEAR'S presidents of campus organizations, along with Student Council members-elect, are invited to attend the Leadership Workshop tomorrow at 3:15 p.m. in the Lyceum building.

Final plans for the widely-expanded All-State High School Music Camp were being made this week.

The previously unused music room in the second floor library browsing room will be equipped by Mrs. Mary Redewill, widow of the well-known Valley musician.

A REMOTE control model of the aircraft carrier Saratoga, highlighted the Industrial Arts department exhibit held Saturday.

Production of the color movie of Arizona State College and its campus life is now in its final stages and is expected to be completed by the end of May.

Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity and Gamma Phi Beta sorority walked away with top honors Monday night after the fifth annual Interfraternity-Intersorority Sing.

Arizona State's present status as a university was authorized in 1954 with the creation of four separate undergraduate colleges.

IN THE CLASSROOM

Stage Struck Students Get Acting Experience

Think you're a potential thespian? If there is any doubt in your mind whether you're particularly adept for the stage, you're due to take a course in acting.

Frank R. Byers, professor of English and director of the Drama Workshop, teaches a course in acting.

The course is designed not only to teach the student how to act, but to help the student who has no real talent discover that he hasn't got the gifted possession, or to help the student who has real talent gain practical stage experience.

THE STUDENTS of Mr. Byers' acting class begin by learning some elementary stage technique. They become familiar with that certain language that belongs to show business alone.

The course is primarily one of performance, so the student will find himself on the stage most of the time encountering every possible situation in acting. Pantomime performances are first. Every expression and movement must be definite, as the other members of the class guess what is being depicted. Naturally, the students have a taste of Shakespeare. They select a famous speech from the works of Shakespeare, and read in the "grand manner." If he can do that successfully, half the battle is won.

BYERS, author of many plays, casts the students in one of his plays. The class has the opportunity to portray the humorous characters in his play "The Cuckoo."

Next segment of the course includes the presentation of three dialects, a telephone conversation, and a "sad letter."

The student prepares his own copy for these performances and is able to really sink his teeth into something highly humorous, or something tragic. The remainder of the course is devoted to the production of famous scenes from some of the all time "greats."

Speech, Drama Topics Of Meet

Some 40 speech and drama instructors from high schools and colleges throughout the state attended an all-day meeting of the Arizona Speech and Drama Association at Arizona State last Saturday.

The group discussed such topics as "Relating of Interpretative Reading and Drama," "Summer Theater Programs," "Sources of Good High School Plays," "Papago Speech," and "Stuttering and Normal Non-

OTHER PEOPLE'S TROUBLES

Class Cheating Accepted Fact By Collegians

By EMIL LeGATES

Cheat? Forty per cent or more students at a large number of colleges do it with no apology or sense of wrong-doing!

So said a national survey released this year. And at least one college journalist makes no effort to refute it.

"This is news?" asks Dakota student columnist Chuck Sakariassen at the University of North Dakota. "I thought it was a known, accepted fact!"

READING the survey results reminded Sakariassen of a recent discussion with a friend after both had flunked "a stinker."

"Men of our calibre," said the friend in dead seriousness, according to Sakariassen, "should have been able to beat that one. If I would have known the set-up, I'll tell you what I would have done . . ." and went on to explain his system.

"I'll swear he must have spent the whole two hours sneaking glances around figuring what he could have gotten away with rather than trying to pass," says the writer. "No wonder he flunked."

"MY EXCUSE?" I'm just stupid."

He hastens to add: "I don't mean to imply I'm above it. Why white bucks are still full of ink marks from last semester's finals."

"What I'm trying to emphasize is how funny we are," he says and goes on to tell how his friend once spent eight hours making crib notes of the semester's material. (Really a "work-of-art") only to find he had unconsciously learned the stuff.

But Sakariassen finished, "Is it wrong?" "THERE ARE two sides to the question. If you value honesty as a moral virtue I guess you'd say it was. But I sure wouldn't feel guilty glancing at the next guy's paper to find out who Henry VIII's third concubine from the left was if it meant the difference between a B or a C."

"Who said, 'You're only cheating yourself?'" "Whoever it was I disagree. I'll go along with W. C. Fields who said, 'Whatever's worth having, is worth cheating for!'"

OKLAHOMA Daily editor John Campbell printed the following letter from a reader: "Dear Editor: From your editorials I gather that: 1. You're against compulsory ROTC. 2. You're against the draft. 3. You're against parking meters. 4. You're against campus police. 5. You're against closing the Oklahoma golf course to spooners. 6. You're against bicycle riders. What a complete hard-head you must be!"

REPLIED THE U of Okla. editor: "Dear Sir: From your letter I gather that: 1. You're in favor of coercive volunteering. 2. You like being drafted. 3. You're in favor of picking pockets already empty. 4. Your father is a cop. 5. You're against love. 6. You can't afford a car. You're a hard-head."

THE BOARD chairmen will explain what the work of their board is and their plans for next year.

Each person attending the meeting will be given an opportunity to select the board on which he would like to work. Members of the various boards will be selected from this meeting.

This is the first time this system has been tried. This meeting will give everyone a chance to be active in student government, and it will also make it more of an honor to be selected to one of the boards, said Dodson.

HE URGED those unable to attend the meeting to designate their board choice before the meeting.

Unsolved Mystery

Astronomy Will Hear About Comet Seen In Tempe Sky

Speaker of the evening will be Arthur Louis Joquel II, Astronomy Club president. His topic will be "Contraterrene Atoms and Comets." The talk will be illustrated with slides and charts.

Scientists have recently created samples of "backward" atoms in cyclotrons at University of California and elsewhere. These atoms, if they encounter "ordinary" atoms, explode with energy dwarfing any atomic bombs on earth.

SOME RESEARCHERS believe that comets are composed of this reverse, or contraterrene, matter, and that the tail of the comet is caused when its atoms strike ordinary atoms in space near the Sun.

AS Gymnasts Top Scorers

By GENE LUPTAK

Arizona State's Bob Foley and Chuck McMahon met all comers in the fourth annual AAU gymnastic match last Saturday in the Men's Gym to finish 1-2 in the all-around performance tests.

Foley ended his competition individual performances by grabbing 1,338 points to McMahon's 1,335. Although eleven events were held only six were counted for the all-around gymnast award.

THREE-HUNDRED points were possible for each event. Each of the five judges could give as much as 100 points to each performer. But the judges' top and low score cards were thrown away and the middle three judges scores were tallied. Each judge gave a top score of 50 points for difficulty and 50 for execution of each event.

TEAM scores were not kept in the gym conclave but the Demons won five firsts to the U of A's three. Unofficial totals not including the times in the rope climb, lists the Sun Devil's with 4,902 points to only 2,885 that the Wildcats could muster.

The other entries, Phoenix Union, Tucson High School, Tucson's YMCA, Dick Smith's Swim Gym, and Jerry Doyle Acrobat Ranch were way behind the state's two collegiate rivals.

The two high schools who were in the contest managed to garner 14 of 66 possible places. Tucson High pocketed four places but still played second fiddle to Phoenix Union's ten wins. Sam Holland of THS brought the prepsters prestige by winning the rope climb in 4.8 seconds.

ANOTHER stalwart on the hardwood Saturday was John Grimson of Tucson's YMCA. He ended the evening third in all-around performance with 1,151 markers.

One of youngest gymnasts on the floor was a fifth grader from Madison Park Elementary school. He finished fourth place in the men's trampoline.

An added feature during the evening was the women's trampoline. All six notches were garnered by girls from Jerry Doyle Acrobat Ranch.

CHUCK McMahon hoped to enter every event but due to an auto injury a few weeks ago he did manage to compete in the six events to win a berth on the all-around list.

Coach Norris Stevenson, director of the meet and State's gym coach, remarked that Arizona's AAU match ranked very high with other state's contests. "We had more entries than other states and I believe the high schoolers performed exceptionally well."

ALTHOUGH the match lasted four hours, one judge commented that on the coast some AAU meets don't finish until 1 o'clock in the morning.

Last Saturday's tennis match between the Sun Devils and the Wildcats was postponed because of schedule mixup.

The two schools tangled yesterday however.

Arizona State's track team took a 68 to 63 verdict from the University of Arizona Saturday night as Joe Rose and Alex Henderson set new meet standards in the pole vault and mile respectively.

Rose, the sophomore 15 ft. vaulter didn't hit the treasured 15 ft. mark but broke the old mark of 14'0" held by former Sun Devil strapper Dave Kenly, and went on to clear 14'4 1/4".

HENDERSON, the Australian flash took top honors in the mile in a time of 4:18.8, erasing the old time of 4:19.2 by Demon Dale Winder. Winder ran second to Henderson in the mile and later went on to win the 800 in 1:55.

The Aussie ace took second to Walt Goodwin of the Wildcats who set a new record in the 2-mile.

Leon Burton split with UA's Jim Tate in their heralded sprint duels. Burton took the 100 in 9.8 and Tate won the 200 in 21.2, tying Burton's old record. The Flint Flyer pulled out after about 75 yards of his specialty, the 220 yd. low hurdles, obviously tired after the two grueling sprints.

TATE, ranked second among the nation's broad jumpers, leaped 24'4" and beat ASC's Eddie Griggs by five feet. High point man of the meet, Tate led off the winning Wildcat relay team which beat the Sun Devil foursome of Willis Palmer, Fritz Gritzner, Jim Newman, and Al Nealy.

Palmer and Nealy, the Satan's Freshmen quarter miler, finished second and third respectively to Wildcat Jim Lair, who won in the fine time of 49.2.

Al Miller tossed the javelin 195'4" for a first place while Ronnie Sanders got second place.

Big Don Rothermund captured first in the shot put with a throw of 50'6 3/4", but was nosed out by Ed Brown of UA in the discus.

UA's HARRY Lucky took both hurdle races, winning the highs in 14.8.

Due to Saturday's victory the Devils under the direction of coach Sonon "Baldy" Castillo, have been established prime favorites to win the team laurels at the Border Conference Championships to be held Saturday May 4, on the UA track.

Top hopes for first place Devil finishers will be Pole vaulter Joe Rose, Sprinter-hurdler Leon Burton, Distance ace Alex Henderson and Dale Winder, weightman Don Rothermund, javelin thrower Al Miller and high jumpers Jerry Robertson and Tom Whetstone.

Intramural Scene

Finals in intramural softball are being held this week with the Har-Penn Hawks labeled as the team to beat.

The Hawks, champs of the College circuit, are paced by pitcher Clancy Osborne and hitting phenoms Al Carr, Bob Mulgado and Allen Benedict.

OTHER darkhorse contenders are the Roughnecks, Los Conquistadores and Phi Epsilon Kappa.

Winners of the State league, the Roughnecks are sparked by slugger and pitcher Jim Waters while Los Conquistadores have been ignited by the booming bats of Lito Castillo, Hantz Tavison, Terrell Cabrales, Hubert Medina, and the curvball twirling of Jesus Luna.

Ray Bruns, Richard Harrah and Noel Barrie are the spark-plugs behind the PEK championship aspirations.

BESIDES the Hawks and Roughnecks, other league winners were Delta Chi and PEK. Delta Chi walked away with the Arizona laurels while Phi Epsilon Kappa copped top place in the State circuit.

Demon Linkers Incinerate Par

By AL SKINNER

The Arizona State Sun Devil golf team won the fifth annual Biltmore Invitational golf tournament with a team total of 560 strokes, Saturday at the Arizona Biltmore.

Featured in the devastation of par were Sun Devil team members Duff Lawrence (136), who tied with Payne Palmer of Brophy High School for medalist honors, Dirk Prather (140), Jim Bernard (141), and Stan Hobert (143).

THE SUN DEVIL total is 52 strokes better than last year's team mark.

The University of Arizona Wildcats who were defending champions were second with a total of 598, 38 strokes behind the Devil linkers. Phoenix College was third with 606.

Coach Al Onofrio believes the 560 score is one of the lowest 36-hole team totals in the nation.

NINETY-FOUR golfers competed, a new high for the tourney sponsored by Phoenix College. Twelve AIA high schools, four private schools, and three colleges entered the tournament.

After the Biltmore tournament, Coach Onofrio stated, "I'm more than convinced that the Sun Devil golf team can hold their own with any team in the nation."

Recent statistics on the golf team back this statement, since Duff Lawrence who has played in 15 matches has a 71.4 average for 18 holes, Dirk Prather playing in 14 matches holds a 72.0 average, Jim Bernard has a 72.2 average for 15 matches, and Stan Hobert has a 72.8 average for 15 matches.

ALONG with these statistics the Devil linkers have come up with some fantastic individual rounds for the season.

Stan Hobert is low with a 65 fired at Encanto Park, Jim Bernard next with a 66 scored at the Arizona Country Club, followed by Duff Lawrence with a 67 at the Biltmore Country Club, and Dirk Prather with a 68 at Encanto Park.

THIS weekend the golf team goes to Tucson to compete in the Border Conference championships at the Tucson Country Club. The Sun Devil golf team is rated favorite for the tourney.

Graybill, Jacobs Star In AS Win

By PHIL KEYES

UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA'S WILDCATS CLOBBERED ARIZONA STATE 14-4 IN THE FIRST GAME OF A DOUBLE-HEADER AT TUCSON YESTERDAY. DAVE GRAYBILL, JOE KOSTYK AND JOHN CHAVEZ WERE DEVIL HURLERS.

Arizona State's baseball squad finally found the formula for beating the Wildcats. The Devils utilized University of Arizona miscues in the second game of a double-header Saturday night to win their first game in nine years from the Cats, 4-3.

The Wildcats themselves poured five unearned runs across in their 6-0 opening game triumph.

THE FIRST game was all Arizona from the moment two Devils collided chasing a blooper in the initial frame until Arizona State, for the second time in the game, left the bases loaded without scoring in the seventh and final inning.

Arizona State had to come from behind in the second contest Saturday with three sixth inning tallies and a single marker in the seventh. The Wildcats jumped to a 2-0 lead in the second inning on two singles, a walk and Catcher Bill Porter's throwing error.

FIRST baseman John Jacobs' single plated the first AS score in the sixth stanza following a walk to Jack Blake and in infield hit by Hadley Hicks.

When Royce Youree was hit by a pitched ball, the stage was set for the first damaging Wildcat error. Third Baseman Craig Sorenson fielded Fran Urban's high bouncer and threw wildly past first as Hicks and Jacobs sprinted across the plate to give the Devils a short-lived 3-2 lead.

ARIZONA tied the score in the top of the seventh.

Satan Catcher Curt Bryant opened the home half of the seventh with a two-base blow over the right-fielder's head. Bryant moved to third on Pitcher Dave Graybill's infield out. AS hitter, Jack Blake, failed to execute the squeeze bunt and Bryant was trapped between home plate and third. But Bryant came in with the winning run when Pitcher Masuma Ikeda uncorked a wild throw to third during the attempted run-down.

MORAGO SAFE .Burdette Morago, the University of Arizona's fire-balling hurler, slid safely into third base in first game action of last Saturday's Devil-Cat doubleheader. Royce Youree is the Demon third baseman. A former Ajo High pitching ace, Morago set the Satans down on three hits in the 6-0 Wildcat win.

Satan Bat Brigade Led By Senior Ace

For the eighth straight week, Pitcher-Outfielder Dave Graybill continues to pace Sun Devil batters while Jim Sims has taken over the pitching lead. Latest baseball statistics include games through May 1.

Graybill sports an even 400 batting average, accumulated on 28 hits in 70 at bats. Graybill also is tied for the lead in RBI's with Centerfielder Hadley Hicks. Both have driven in 22. John Jacobs follows closely with 21 runs batted in.

CATCHER Bill Porter is the number two Sun Devil hitter at .386. Outfielder Bill Mead, .333, and Jacobs, .310, are the other two AS regulars hitting over .300.

Hicks has scored the most runs, 28, and stolen the most bases, 12, but also leads in strikeouts, 18. Don Banewicz has drawn the most free passes, 26.

Southpaw Sims, winner of four games in six decisions, has limited opponents to an average of 2.51 earned runs per game. Sims has struck out 66 and walked only 21 in 71 2/3 innings.

GRAYBILL has won the most games, 7, and fanned the most batters, 83. Graybill, who has lost three times, has a 3.16 ERA.

The entire Devil pitching staff has given up 95 earned runs in their 27 games for an ERA of 3.75. Sixty-six unearned runs have been chalked up by opponents.

GLUM OUTLOOK... Sun Devil coach Mel Erickson displayed an unhappy disposition as Arizona State's victory hopes looked dim in the first contest with UA. His despondency ended a short while later though as the Satans scored a 4-3 victory in the nightcap. The win was the Devils' first over the Pueblomen since 1948 when Wade Oliver hurled the locals verdict.
